

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. A member shall not absent himself from the services of the house unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member other than the Chairman of a Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than ten minutes at a time, without leave of the house.

9. Any member of the house may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined, it shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority, and all motions to reconsider must be made on the day the vote is taken or on the next succeeding day.

11. When a question is under consideration, a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it;

and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the house shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a Committee, or to a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments may be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute to the whole may be received. A proposition, different from the one under consideration, shall not be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be excused by the Council.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from this decision to the Council by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more Pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Council.

17. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommitted by vote of the house. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the house, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the house therein.

FIRST DAY.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, KANSAS CITY, MO.,
Tuesday, May 20, 1901.

This being the time and place appointed by the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese for the meeting of the Twelfth Annual Council of the Diocese of West Missouri, the Rt. Reverend Edward Robert Atwill, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, and a number of the clergy and laity assembled in St. George's Church, Kansas City, Missouri, at 10 o'clock a. m., for divine service.

Morning prayer was said by the Rev. R. A. Saunders and the Rev. J. R. Atwill.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. G. Heathcote Hills, rector of Christ Church, St. Joseph, from Matthew xx : 26, 27.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by Rt. Reverend the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. C. Mann, D. D., the Rev. Robert Talbot reading the Gospel and the Rev. W. T. Allan, D. D., the Epistle.

At the close of divine service the Bishop took the chair and called the Council to order.

The Secretary of the last Council called the roll of the clergy from a list furnished by the Bishop. Eighteen answered to their names and took their seats. (See list of clergy, pages x, xi.)

2:00 P. M.

The Council reassembled. The Committee on Credentials made report and the names of Lay Delegates being called, thirty-five delegates, representing twelve parishes and missions, answered to their names. (See list of Lay Delegates, page xiii.)

A canonical quorum being present, the Council proceeded to business.

The election of Secretary being in order, on motion of the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith, the chair was authorized to cast the ballot of the Council for the Rev. John K. Dunn, and the ballot being so cast, he was declared elected. The Secretary appointed the Rev. John R. Atwill Assistant Secretary.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

TO THE COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI,
MAY 21, 1901.

Brethren of the Clergy and the Laity :

When the daughter of a household, having set up her own home and housekeeping, invites her father's family to visit her she is glad and proud to receive them although her cottage does not compare in roominess or in comforts with the old home. So St. George's Parish welcomes you today.

There are not here all the luxuries and conveniences that our older parishes might offer, but with indulgent interest, I am confident you will look upon the little beginning made in this quarter of our growing city and you will wish us God speed ; while making allowance for our youth you will accept what we are able to give, assured that our heart moves us to do our best although our best may be poor compared with the reception we would like to offer you A Diocese should rejoice in its children

The blessing of old upon the man who feared the Lord was that he should see his children and his children's children and peace upon Israel. The Diocese that fears God and serves him well must increase and multiply, and with its increase its peace and prosperity deepen. Fostering and rejoicing in its offspring it finds neither time nor disposition for contentions. Peace prevails Its children and children's children keep it ever young. Its enthusiasm never dies.

OBITUARY.

Before proceeding to the relation of my official acts and other matters I stop, as is our custom, to remember some of those who since the Council meeting last year have passed on and away into the regions nearer God.

Bishops who have died are—

Rt. Rev. Richard Hooker Wilmer, D. D., Bishop of Alabama for thirty-eight years—a genial, learned and saintly man, beloved by his Diocese and by the whole Church.

Rt. Rev. Charles Reuben Hale, D. D., L.L. D., Bishop Co-adjutor of the Diocese of Springfield—a scholar well known for his learning not only in our American Church but also in the Greek, whose Patriarchs and Bishops were his friends.

Rt. Rev. William Morris Barker, D. D., Bishop of Olympia, formerly Missionary Bishop of Western Colorado. Buoyant, indefatigable and wise he bade fair to make for himself a brilliant Episcopate ; but the Lord gave him early rest from his labors.

From the ranks of our own clergy one has fallen, Rev. Alfred Farnsworth Blake, Rector of Grace Church, Carthage, aged fifty-seven years. He made a merry jest of many things, but he revered holy things and persons and he despised shams. He had charge for some time of Christ Church, St. Joseph, where his cheerful personality soothed some who had been irritated and encouraged others who were downcast.

My journal will be found at the end of this address giving in detail the history of the year's work. The summary is as follows :

I have officiated at two hundred services ; have delivered one hundred and ninety-seven sermons and addresses ; have confirmed since May 1st, 1900, on fifty-one occasions, three hundred and seventy-five persons. I have celebrated the Holy Communion forty-one times. I have baptized thirty-seven. I have officiated at five weddings and four funerals ; have advanced one Deacon to the Priesthood.

Our thanks are due to the Bishop White Prayer Book Society and to the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society for gifts of Prayer Books and Hymnals.

The Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, in accordance with their resolution to reduce the appropriations to all organized Dioceses twenty per cent., reduced our appropriation for their fiscal year beginning September 1, from $1,500 to $1,200. The resolution was passed under great anxiety in view of an increased need for new work without adequate increase of income to meet the demand. The Board felt also that some Dioceses having received appropriations for a score of years or more should be forced to make more effort to help themselves than they would so long as they could rely upon the Board's assistance.

The indiscriminate reduction of appropriations for all Dioceses was an error and the Board so acknowledge.

In response to their request I have sent them a full and detailed statement of the condition and needs of our mission field.

These requests have undoubtedly been sent to all Bishops whose Dioceses are receiving appropriations and I am confident that new appropriations will be made with discrimination and as generous as the means at the command of the Board will permit.

In the meantime our offerings for the general work of the Church should continue and increase, for we give to God not to men.

CLERGY.

There are canonically resident in the Diocese thirty-two Priests and two Deacons, twenty-two of whom are engaged in active parochial work.

One Lay Reader, a Postulant for Holy Orders, is working with notable success in Boonville, the oldest parish in the Diocese, which a year ago was in a very feeble condition, but now is alive with wholesome activities. While Mr. Sherrod is not to be numbered with our clergy he is, so far as a layman can, doing a Rector's work and will soon, I hope, have the grace and Commission of Holy Orders.

I have granted letters Dimissory to Rev. L. M. Wilkins, Rev. Charles H. Powell, Rev. Elmer R. Earl, Rev. Henry A. Duboc.

I have received Rev. Charles H. Powell, Rev. Robert Arthur Saunders, Rev. Daniel G. McKinnon, Rev. Will P. James, Rev. Charlton Rupert Stearns, Rev. Samuel Thurlow, Rev. R. R. Diggs.

There are several important posts vacant at the present time—St. Paul's, Kansas City, St. Paul's, Maryville, Holy Trinity, St. Joseph, All Saints, Nevada, and a number of Missions. When these are filled our number of clergy at work will be thirty-one. We should have thirty-six at least to care effectively for missions now established to say nothing of new work that should be undertaken.

Noteworthy progress has been made in some parishes. I have already referred to Christ Church, Boonville, where the debt has been paid, an excellent vested choir introduced, the Guild and other societies revived and the Sunday-school reorganized for effective work.

Grace Church, Carthage, was a year ago in a comatose condition, but now the debt has been paid, the rectory reopened, a large vested choir organized, thirty presented for confirmation, the parish machinery put in good condition. Without detracting in the least from the unusually faithful and effective efforts of the new Rector, Rev. Chas. Sniffin, I must give to a layman, Mr. Corley, the honor of initiating this era of renewed life in that parish, and I mention his name not only to give him credit justly due, but to incite other laymen to put their shoulders to the wheel giving to their parishes the help of their business methods and business energy. Mr. Corley's plan was to secure pledges not only from the few wealthy members of the congregation, but to induce everybody to subscribe and to make the pledges a legal obligation collectible every month. General interest was awakened and suitable preparation made for the young clergyman who providentially came in the time of need.

Grace Church, Chillicothe, has improved its Rectory, built a choir room, and a class of twenty-two was presented at the last visitation. Here again, as I was informed, the improved condition of the parish was in no small degree due to efficient lay help.

Christ Church, St. Joseph, has paid the last dollar of its debt and under its able Rector is working with intense activity in many departments. One of its interesting institutions is the large Sunday-school which gave to General Missions as its Lenten offering $170.

Christ Church, Lexington, has improved its church edifice and has received from that noble church woman, Mrs. John Reid, of Lexington, Kentucky, a valuable lot contiguous to the church property.

The work at Brookfield, under the new Rector, Rev. Will P. James, is again going on well, and All Saints, West Plains, is notable for its enthusiasm and activity. The Missionary in charge has presented for confirmation within the year thirty-one, and the mission is entirely free from debt.

I might speak of other parishes and missions where grand work is done, but whose past has been so full of good that their present prosperity is not unusual. One thing has been demonstrated again and again, viz. this: that here in West Missouri the Church will expand and grow strong more surely than in some other fields of this Middle West when the effort is made with energy, grace and skill. May God raise up laymen everywhere to help, and grant us means to maintain clergy to take advantage of every opportunity.

Our opportunities for diocesan expansion are improving. People are flocking to our prairies and hills. Our farms and mines, our orchards and great centres of commerce invite them and they come.

The Diocese is divided into three convocations. In each convocation the population has increased. The population of the Northern Convocation is 579,070, an increase in ten years of 73,693.

The population of the Central Convocation is 542,505, an increase of 41,636.

The population of the Southern Convocation is 463,380, an increase of 80,100.

The population of the whole Diocese is 1,584,955, an increase of 195,419.

The population of Kansas City is 163,752, an increase of 24 4 per cent.

The population of St. Joseph is 102,797, and increase of 96 8 per cent.

The population of Joplin is 26,023, an increase 161.7 per cent.

These statistics are not altogether new to you. But have you pondered the responsibility they have created for you and me? Are we rising in our strength to assume that responsibility?

Do these figures convey to us indeed the conviction that we should lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes, that we should plant new Missions and extend the work of those now in existence? Should not we emulate wise business men who desiring to take advantage of the inflow of population, are more active, increase the number of their men, expend more upon their business, let the new people know that they are there and ready to supply their needs? I urge you, therefore, to make this year larger pledges for Missions that the Church you love may be enlarged and strengthened. When you spend money freely for your pleasures, when you assess yourself for the political campaign, when you give for the advancement of the business of your city, when you pay your dues to your club or lodge, ask yourself, Am I doing as much for the Church of the Living God? Am I not mean in my contributions, making the Church last and least? If the Church is the Body of Christ, my Lord; if it is the pillar and ground of the truth: if it conveys spiritual power and immortal life to the souls of men, ought it not to be first and foremost? May not I ask myself the question. Have I, the child of God, any right to this costly social pleasure, this luxury, this extravagant indulgence, when I am niggardly in my offerings for the extension of God's Kingdom on earth? Is not the diversion of the money at my command from its highest, its sacred use to mere selfish or temporal purposes, a sin for which God will call me to account in the last great day?

Undoubtedly our people are generally more prosperous than at any time since the organization of the Diocese. The products of the farm bring larger returns; in all branches of business there is increased activity and we should give as God prospers us, not only for our own parish work, but for the maintenance of men in the vast mission field of this Diocese, and also for the extension of the Church in the new fields opened by our arms and commerce.

We will not do our duty in this matter until we become systematic in our giving. It is scriptural truth that a tenth of an income is the least offering worthy of him who makes it and of Him who gives to us life and breath and all things. But having laid aside the tenth, how shall we divide it? Here are quite a large number of objects dependent upon the offerings of the faithful—your own parish, your Diocese, Missions at home, Missions abroad, various funds for the relief of indigent clergy, educating of men for the ministry, etc., etc. Here are my ten dollars, the tenth of my income of $100. How shall I appropriate it? It is a matter for your and my individual and prayerful consideration. You should reflect upon it. You should come to an inflexible determination.

For my part I would give the larger part to the parish for its proper maintenance, for the discharge of its dues to the Diocese and its other fixed obligations. The next fraction of my tithe I would give for the Missions of the Diocese. I do not sympathize with those who say that you have not begun to make an offering to God until you have begun to give for some object outside your own parish.

In the appointments of your church and its ministrations you do indeed receive an equivalent and more than an equivalent for your offering; but in maintaining God's house and God's Priests you are honoring God. This is your first responsibility, your bounden duty. This ought ye to do, but not to leave the other undone. Of my ten dollars, then, I would give five for the support of my parish, two and one-half I would give to Diocesan Missions, one and one-half to General Missions. The other one dollar I would divide among the various societies of the church and the poor. This tithe should be our minimum, our fixed offering. But what of especial claims upon me or of other appeals that arouse my sympathies? Well, I would not ignore them, nor would I diminish my tenth to give to them. I would give to them in addition to my tenth.

Some one will protest that to give so much would work hardship. Well, suppose it should. Are you willing to endure no hardness for the Lord's sake? And still the hardship would not be serious, for most of us could accomplish it by only limiting our selfish gratifications. The thing is done every year by a certain people who call themselves saints and they prosper. It and more was done by God's people of old, and they prospered. It is done today by some churchmen and churchwomen. Why shall it not be done by every baptized member of the Church in this Diocese? Do you know what would then come to pass? Church debts would be paid. Church entertainments for getting money would cease. We would no longer need the dole for the General Board of Missions. Men would go out into the places where now our service is unheard, to offer the sacrifice of prayer and praise, for the Diocesan Missionary Board would have a full treasury. Our giving would be dignified. It would become an act of holy worship. We, ourselves, rising to the true conception of this duty, would be enriched in spirit, and God, as in his wisdom should seem best, would prosper many in their temporal concerns, while all would be laying up for themselves a good foundation against the time to come that they may lay hold on eternal life.

The committee appointed at the Council last year to undertake the endowment of the Diocese by what is known as the insurance plan have been faithfully at work and are ready to proceed.

To endow the Diocese with a sum sufficient to relieve the parishes of the burden of heavy assessments is an absolute necessity, not only for the comfort of the Diocese but in order that we may obtain larger voluntary pledges for our mission work, and in no way could the laymen benefit the Diocese more at the present time than by contributing to the endowment fund.

The plan of endowment policies distributes the burden among a hundred or more people and over a considerable period of time.

It has worked successfully in securing large sums of money for parishes, and a General Endowment Society working upon these lines has been organized with headquarters in New York. It has received the unqualified approval of many Bishops and well-known financiers. We are not, therefore, entering upon an untried experiment, nor can objections be urged against it upon the ground of its impracticability.

It is only necessary that a hundred persons take out policies upon the lives of whomever they choose for $1000 each, and the Diocese will immediately receive the benefit of the rebate offered by the companies, and in the natural course increase from the paid policies will flow into the treasury year by year.

Of course, the best plan would be to secure direct gifts to the fund from individuals within or without the Diocese, but we have for ten years tried to accomplish that without success.

On every hand we hear laments over decline in the attendance upon Divine Service on the Lord's day when our fathers were wont to go to church morning and evening. The explanation of this discouraging phase of our people's life has been diligently sought.

Some find it in the exacting demands of business on six days of the week. Some find it in the Sunday paper whose manifold pages take time to read and secularize the mind.

Some find the explanation in this, some in that. But the conditions surrounding men and the temptations to rest and indolence are not strong enough to deter them from going, if they desire to go and if they seriously think they ought to go.

Visiting, as I do, many congregations, I note that decline in church going does not prevail alike everywhere. In some parishes the people do come when not deterred by ill health or positive duties at home. Some clergy seem more successful in bringing out the people than others are. I have tried to find out the secret of their success.

It lies not altogether in their learning or eloquence. Not the ablest men necessarily have the largest proportion of their people present at public worship.

Nor does it always follow that that sort of camaraderie, which people call good mixing, fills the church, however much it may popularize the parson. Well, what is it then? It seems to me, judging from my observation, that when the Priest himself feels deeply that the church is the house of God and the gate of heaven, when his ministrations so absorb and exude this thought that the people coming feel nearer heaven, and when the preaching is so full of grace and divine truth that the people feel they are listening to one who has been with Jesus, one who knows the way to the uplands of God and can lead them thither, one who feeds those who hunger after righteousness—then they will come.

Sometimes, not always, for there is a deplorable evil of our day that forms in the young the habit of staying at home from church and neglecting duties. The evil is this. Freedom degenerated into license; freedom that splits into kindling-wood the staff of discipline to light the fires that destroy the standards of rectitude. We are losing in this land of freedom especially, grace to rule well and grace to obey. Discipline is unpopular. If the Church disciplines one who discards its standards of doctrine and defies those who bear rule, there is an outcry made that rings through the whole land. Parents say they think it right to suffer their children to choose their own religion, to go to church or not as they like, to prepare for confirmation if they will do it without advice or constraint, or to say no to every invitation, and if they attend any service they are to go where they like.

And we trace the marked habit of absence from the worship and sacrament of the Church back to the irreligious family and to childhood that runs wild because the parent puts forth no hand to bend the twig as the tree should incline.

"Society's greatest peril today," says one, "is the demagogue who teaches and the classes who believe there is such a thing as liberty. The planets have no liberty; they follow their sun. The seas know no liberty; they follow the moon in tidal waves. When the river refuses to keep within its banks it becomes a curse and a destruction. It is the stream that is restrained within its banks that turns mill-wheels for men.

"And in proportion as things pass from littleness toward largeness they go toward obedience to law. Indeed, he who disobeys any law of nature flings himself athwart her wheels to be crushed to powder. And if disobedience is destruction, obedience is liberty. Obeying the law of steam, man has an engine; obeying the law of fire, he has warmth; obeying the law of speech, he has eloquence; obeying the law of sound thinking, he has leadership; obeying the law of Christ, he has character.

"As man increases the number of laws that he obeys, he increases in richness of nature, in wealth and strength and influence.

"Nature loves paradoxes, and this law her chiefest paradox that he who stoops to wear the yoke of law becomes the child of liberty, while he who will be free from God's law wears a ball and chain through all his years."

And yet we talk of liberty in all things. We refrain from ordering our families wisely and from commanding our children so that they form habits of righteousness.

I know him, said the Lord of Abraham, that he will command his children.

Of course, each one should in manhood and womanhood be a law unto himself or herself, and by this we mean that the one law of God should have so entered into and have taken possession of the soul that to form right judgments and to put forth right efforts is the second nature. The law of his God is in his heart, his footsteps shall not slide.

Everything in nature has in it the law of its kind. A tree cannot grow to be other than a tree. An oak by the law in it develops the spreading serrated leaf; the pine by the law in it develops the needles that sing in the wind. The law in the tree, and part of it is manifested in each tapering branch, in the fibre of the bark, in the fruit it bears.

So the children of the Church should have in them, bound up with their life, the law of the children of God. How is that law to be developed in them? First, by inheritance. Does not the oak-tree inherit the law of its kind from the seed acorn that formed in the limb of the parent oak? If the parent tree had been of another sort, the new tree would have been of another sort.

We have religion or irreligion in our blood.

Is one then worthy to be parent who does not transmit to his offspring the law of holy growth?

The law of churchly life is developed within us by that which the little child sees when upon his mother's knee and in his father's arms. The family talk; the family customs, oh, how they enter into that childish heart.

Then there is the discipline of the family, enforcing with parental authority parental convictions of duty. The family exists partly for this. Is it right to worship God in public? Is it right to listen to instructions from the pulpit?

Then, parents, command your children to go not by themselves, but to come with you, who set the example, to the house of God. Let them form under your instruction the habit of church going, the habit of observing the Lord's day, the habit of studying God's holy Word, the habit of prayer, and there will be less irreligion among the generations to come.

Undoubtedly parental discipline is part of the divine plan for the perpetuation of the knowledge and worship of Him who was the God of the families of Israel.

Of course, we are only co-workers with God. Part of the divine plan is separate from us and is accomplished by the supernatural working of Him who is the Father of the family of the first-born whose names are written in heaven.

As a result of the incarnation of our blessed Lord your child may be born again, not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible, so inheriting the law of Christ's growth, made one of his kind.

But having regenerated that child, God says to you parents, Take it away and nurse it for me. What if the new creature in Christ should die by your neglect?

The Church by her Sunday-schools, by her Priests and Deacons, takes some part in the training of your children, but you parents who have them with you day by day, you to whom God has given authority over them, you whom God has commanded them to honor, you are chiefly responsible for the development in them of the law of a holy life, resulting in the formation of godly habits.

I have dwelt at some length upon this matter, because my observation of family life throughout the Diocese inclines me to the opinion that decline in household religion and failure on the part of parents to direct instruction and train their children as soil committed to them by the Lord is the secret of much that we lament in our congregations and of the comparatively slow growth of many parishes and missions.

We should teach the children to appreciate the dignity of the one Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. We should save them from the imperfect and harmful instructions of those who do not understand or appreciate her. We should form in them the habit of observing her holy ways and seasons. We should instil into their minds the faith once delivered to the saints.

We are now to enter upon the business of our session. May we do it in the fear of God. May we as we talk of missions and as we resolve to do this or that, rise to the fervor of those who know that they are engaged in sacred duties. And may the Holy Spirit direct and rule our hearts.

May 20—At St. Georges, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion in the morning, assisted by the Rev. J. R. Atwill, read morning prayer and preached, took part in the evening service at St. Georges.

May 27—I officiated morning and evening at Trinity, Lebanon, and preached twice.

June 3—At St. Georges, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion. Took part in afternoon and evening service. Preached once and made an address in the afternoon.

June 6—At Webb City I preached, confirmed one, and presided at a meeting of the congregation. I appointed a committee to purchase a lot. The opportunity for building up a mission here is most encouraging.

June 10—In Brookfield I officiated at the opening of the new and beautiful church. Celebrated the Holy Communion twice, preached twice, baptized three adults, confirmed five.

We need here at once an energetic young priest, to take advantage of the enthusiasm awakened by the erection of the new edifice.

June 17—At Boonville I took part in the morning service and preached. Rev. Henry Mackay, the rector, retires after ten years of faithful service. His genial welcome to Boonville was unfailing and most comforting to a travel-weary bishop. He was the friend of every one in the town and the children loved him. Forty-four years in the ministry have earned him the right to rest. May the Lord be with him to cheer his declining years with hope of eternal life.

June 21—I licensed Mr. W. W. Moss, lay reader at St. John's, Kansas City.

June 22—Presided at a meeting of the trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergy. This fund should be increased by gifts and bequests.

June 24—At St. George's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion, officiated at morning and evening service and preached twice.

July 1st—At St. George's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion, officiated at the morning, afternoon and evening services and made an address at the public service for the Sunday school, when I also delivered testimonials to the scholars who had earned them by punctual attendance, perfect lessons and good behavior.

July 8th—At St. Oswald's, I preached in the morning and took part in the evening service, assisted by Rev. J. R. Atwill, who preached in the evening.

July 12th—At Brookfield I took part in the evening service, preached and confirmed two.

July 15th—At Independence I celebrated the Holy Communion, preached, confirmed four and addressed them.

This Parish is making notable progress.

In the evening I took part in the service at St. George's, Kansas City.

July 22d—At St. George's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion, read morning and evening prayer, and preached twice.

July 29th—At St. Mark's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion, and met the congregation.

This Parish has done well last year and in previous year, but it suddenly collapsed and the impression has gone abroad that it is to be partitioned among the strong parishes of the city but they do not need the slight reinforcement that would come to them from its fractions; the work of the church is needed in that northeastern portion of the city and St. Mark's must take up the burden or a new parish must be organized in its place. We believe that St. Mark's will do it, and do it well under some young priest who by the blessing of God will lead them on to success.

I have spent, and am preparing to spend the summer months for the most part in Kansas City partly, to have needed rest from travel, and partly to attend to duties in the office and the city.

Autumn appointments will be announced (D. V.) in the September issue.

August 1st—In view of the sale of the lot upon which St. John's, Kansas City, stands and the notice to move the building I met some of the people for conference.

It was decided to send an influential committee to interview the new owners and to try to make arrangements to retain the site.

August 2d—In view of the resignation of the Rector and Vestry of St. Mark's, Kansas City, I met such of the parishioners as continue steadfast and we determined to conduct the Parish until next Easter under the organization of a mission.

At the request of the meeting I appointed Rev. John R. Atwill to take charge of the congregation and if possible, to revive the Parish.

August 5th—At St. George's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion, preached, officiated at the afternoon and evening services and made an address.

August 10th—At Liberty I inspected the church property and found the church building in deplorable condition, windows broken, pews and carpet littered with debris and the congregation gone—save two communicants.

It seems wise to abandon the church and to sell the lot.

Oct. 8th—I was very pleasantly entertained by one of the Clerical Clubs in Boston and had an opportunity to answer many questions about our field and its needs.

Oct. 8th—I attended, by invitation, a meeting of a Church Club in Springfield, Mass.

Oct. 10th—I took part in the consecration of Christ Church, Springfield, and had the pleasure of meeting, besides the Bishop of Massachusetts and the Bishop Coadjutor, of Rhode Island, many of the Massachusetts and Connecticut Clergy.

Oct. 14th—In New Haven I preached on our work in St. Paul's, St. Thomas's and the Church of the Ascension.

Oct. 17th—In response to an invitation I returned to Boston to tell the Massachusetts Auxiliary about our work.

Oct. 21st—In Trinity church, New Haven, I talked about missions and especially Missions in West Missouri.

May,

Oct 22d—I visited the Berkeley Divinity school at Middletown, Conn., and addressed a congregation of the professors, students and townspeople.

I received everywhere a most cordial welcome, the Rectors supplemented my statements by emphatic addresses urging their people to manifest their interest by offerings for the work here, and I feel confident that some results will follow.

It is, however, our manifest duty to put our shoulders to the wheel. I am ashamed to beg for West Missouri when so many fields are much less able to help themselves than are we. The voice of one who talks of the needs of this Diocese sounds discordant among the many voices chanting the praises of Kansas City and St. Joseph and Joplin and Springfield.

Of course we know that our parishes by reason of debts and other difficulties are not as strong to give as their environment would indicate and that our mission field is vast and poor. Still we can do better. Let us do so! Fill up the Bishop's purse. Pay your mission pledges promptly and increase them a little. Stand by the good women of the Auxiliary.

Call down God's blessing by doing good to others who are less favored than ourselves. Broaden your sympathies. Multiply your prayers. Increase your labors. Let those far away from the great congregations, those who are alone on the prairies have their part in the good work by sending their little offerings. Then as the Church extends and strengthens it will by and by reach them and once more they will rejoice in the services of the dear old Prayer Book. God grant that when the good Mother Church is able to go into these byways and highways looking for her children she may find they have been all the while staunch and true.

Nov, 1st—At St. George's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion.

Nov. 2d—At Sweet Springs I called on the people, read service, preached, confirmed one.

Nov. 4th—At St. George's, Kansas City, I officiated at three services, celebrated the Holy Communion, preached three times and gave the certificates to the Sunday school children who had earned them.

Nov. 13th, 14th—I spent in Joplin and Webb City making arrangements for the prosecution of the work in that part of the Diocese. I had the pleasure of meeting for the first time, our new clergy, who are working so effectively in Neosho, Monett and Carthage.

Nov. 14th—In Kansas City I officiated at the wedding of Miss Georgia Ewing Halley and Mr. Donald A. Latshaw.

Nov. 15th—In Trinity Church, Kansas City, at the meeting of the Women's Auxilliary to the Board of Missions I celebrated the Holy Communion and made an address. Rev. Doctor MacKinnon preached the sermon. It was a good meeting, devout, enthusiastic and hopeful. About two hundred were present. May God bless these invaluable helpers.

Nov. 17th—At Trenton I had a pleasant reception in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robinson. In the evening we had a business meeting in the church. They have lost their minister and many people; but they have their fine stone church, and have earnest, hopeful people left who are not afraid to work, and we hope soon to have another clergyman.

Nov. 18th—At Trenton I celebrated the Holy Communion at 7:30 A. M. At the mid-day service I read morning prayer and preached, returning to Kansas City for the evening service.

Nov. 25th—At Savannah I celebrated the Holy Communion and preached. In the afternoon I read service and preached.

This mission has been for a long time without a regular missionary but has been from time to time under young men looking forward to Holy Orders, Mr. France and Mr. Merriman who have each done excellent work there.

At present the St. Joseph clergy take turns in giving a week day celebration once a month.

The ladies do the rest and do it well. They teach, manage, sing and read services in the Sunday school. They raise funds. They have resingled the roof, purchased a new chancel window, set up a new altar and they keep the church tidy. We do delight to find the edifice and grounds clean, as though cared for by loving hands.

Nov. 26th—I attended the Church Club dinner. About forty were present, and we were glad to see the Rector of Christ Church, St. Joseph, with one of his devoted layman, Mr. C. H. Nearing, who presented very clearly the plans of the committee on the endowment of the Diocese by Life Insurance, and reported all ready for the one hundred laymen who are willing to help by carrying policies on their own lives or the lives of others for the benefit of the Diocese.

Mr. Gardiner Lathrop made a most earnest and inspiring address on "The Duty of a Layman to his Parish and the Diocese."

After a short but witty speech by Mr. McCoy, the club listened with interest and delight to Mr. Henry Latchford's talk about Gladstone as he knew him in his private philanthropies and great-hearted churchmanship, a personification of the noblest culture altruism and religion.

After Mr. Latchford, Rev. G. Heathcote Hills made a short and felicitious address. Rev. Doctor MacKinnon excused himself on account of the late hour.

A committee was appointed to draft proper resolutions regarding the death of Mr. Edward C. Washburn who, although not recently an active member, rendered the Bishop valuable assistance at the outset and was an enthusiastic advocate of the Church Club idea.

Nov. 27th—At Platte City I read service and preached. We also made some arrangements looking to regular services.

Nov. 29th—At St. George's, Kansas City, I took part in the services.

Feb. 6th—A goodly number of persons interested in Sunday Schools met in response to an invitation issued by the committee on Sunday School Work appointed at the last Diocesan Council.

I Celebrated the Holy Communion and made an address.

Feb. 7th—The Diocesan Branch of the Women's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions held their quarterly meeting in Grace Church, Kansas City, Mo. I celebrated the Holy Communion, Dean Fair reading the Epistle, Bishop Tuttle the Gospel.

Bishop Tuttle preached and stirred up new interest in Missions by his earnest, forceful words. The attendance was large, the reports good, the enthusiasm of the business meeting most encouraging. In the afternoon Miss Crummer, one of the missionary workers in China, gave many interesting facts and reminiscences throwing light upon the difficulties and encouragements of the work.

In the evening the Church Club met at the Midland Hotel. After an excellent dinner Dean Fair made a strong address on "Some problems of the new Century." Bishop Tuttle followed in his usual felicitous manner and other impromptu speeches kept the members very willingly in their seats until a late hour. The club is one of the established institutions of the Diocese—most useful in many ways. May its tribe increase!

Feb. 8th—Lecture at St. George's.

Feb. 10th—At St. Paul's, Kansas City, I read service and preached. I also met the Vestry.

At home in the early morning I celebrated the Holy Communion.

In the afternoon at St. John's, Kansas City, I preached and confirmed one.

This mission has been taken in hand by Archdeacon MacKinnon and there already are indications of growth.

In the evening I read service and preached at Independence.

Feb. 12th—In Kansas City I married Mr. Wilber Townsend and Miss La Belle F. Read.

In the Parish of St. Paul's I officiated at the funeral of Mr. Bodman.

Feb. 13th—I appointed a committee to keep in touch with the Board of Managers of the General Board of Missions: Rev. Cameron Mann, D. D.; Rev. G. Heathcote Hills, Rev. John R. Atwill, Mr. S. W. Kniffin, Mr. A. C. Stowell, Mr. J. C. Hedenberg.

Feb. 15th—Lectured at St. George's.

Feb. 17th—At Maryville I took part in morning and evening service and baptized two infants. Much to our regret the Rev. L. M. Wilkins has accepted a call to a parish on the Pacific coast. Both he and his efficient wife will be sadly missed.

March 3d—At St. George's, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion, read morning and evening prayer, preached twice and, in the afternoon, addressed the Sunday School. I also confirmed four at the Mission of the Holy Spirit (Deaf-mute). This work is encouraging. Rev. J. H. Cloud officiates in the sign language on one Sunday of each month; Mr. Kent, lay-reader, on the other Sundays.

March 5th—I visited Richmond. In the evening at Carrollton. I read service, preached, confirmed three and addressed them. The Archdeacon has held most acceptable services, and Doctor Pettit, who has for years been a pillar of strength here, continues the Sunday School and services.

March 6th—I visited Salisbury. In the evening I officiated at Brunswick. There were a goodly number present. Mr. Peery and family with Mr. Samuel Carter, Captain Wallace and daughter of Keytesville, were the only Church people. Others, however, were favorably disposed. We need a missionary for these towns on the Wabash railroad.

March 10th—At Warrensburg in the morning I preached, confirmed five and addressed them. In the evening at Sedalia I confirmed one in private, thirty-six in the Church and addressed them. The Rector much to the regret of the congregation, had resigned on account of ill health; the Parish has given him six months' vacation and he has promised to return.

March 11th—At Tipton I enjoyed a pleasant visit, read service and preached in the Presbyterian church.

March 12th—At Versailles I missed my good friend, Mrs. Richardson, so long devoted to the Mission, whose death all deplored. But the good work still has friends. Mr. and Mrs. Munsel received me most cordially in their home; Mrs. Bakewell and others had made arrangements for services. Some new Church people have come. I baptized two infants, celebrated the Holy Communion, read evening prayer, preached and confirmed one.

March 14th—At Clinton I made calls, read service and preached.

March 19th—At Aurora I confirmed two and made an address.

March 20th—At Monett I confirmed two and made an address.

March 21st—At Neosho I preached, confirmed two and addressed them. These missions are all in charge of a faithful missionary, Rev. Samuel Thurlow.

March 23d—At St. George's, Kansas City, I officiated at a service celebrating the tenth anniversary of its organization. The choir augmented by former members and others, gave us fine music. Archdeacon MacKinnon, Rev. J. Stewart Smith, Rev. John Bennett, Rev. E. W. Woodruff and Rev. John R. Atwill were present. Cordial letters were received, too late to be read, from Rev. S. M. Holden and Rev. Geo. Gassner, former clergy.

March 24th—At St. Mark's, Kansas City, I preached and made an address. They are making a brave fight for the existence of their Parish, which was nearly wrecked, but is reviving. In the afternoon at St. Augustine's Mission I preached, confirmed four and addressed them. In the evening at St. Mary's I confirmed eleven and addressed them.

March 24th—At St. Mark's, Kansas City, I preached and made an address. After a gallant fight against opposition from within and without this important Parish is developing vigorous life.

At St. Augustine's I preached, confirmed and made an address.

At St. Mary's I preached, confirmed eleven and addressed them.

March 25th—Received notice of the disposition of Rev. Henry Dean Page, by the Bishop of Kyoto.

March 26th—At Breckinridge I read and preached, assisted in the service by Rev. F. E. De Longy of Chillicothe.

March 27th—At Trenton I read service and preached. Met many of the people; am most anxious to find for them a suitable clergyman.

March 28th—At Lexington I read service, preached, confirmed five and addressed them.

March 29th—At St. George's, Kansas City, I took part in the service and preached.

March 31st—While I was away at the early celebration at St. George's, my dear mother passed from earth to Paradise, a happy translation for her, but, yielding to the natural grief of one who mourneth for his mother, I cancelled appointments until the last sad rites were over.

My heart is grateful to the many friends who showed their respect for my Mother, and their affection for us who survive, by loving messages, floral offerings and personal attentions.

April 4th—At Grace church, Kansas City, I confirmed twenty and addressed them.

April 5th—Good Friday, I took part in the morning service, conducted the special service in the afternoon and made an address. In the evening I preached, confirmed thirteen and addressed them.

April 6th—At St. George's, Kansas City, I took part in the service and baptized seven.

April 7th—At St. George's, Kansas City, I took part in the early celebration, celebrated the Holy Communion and preached at the midday service, baptized several in the afternoon and addressed them. In the evening at St. Mark's I preached, confirmed five and addressed them. The congregation and enthusiasm here today were most encouraging.

April 8th—I presided at the Parish meeting in St. George's, Kansas City. The Easter offering was about $600, and the outlook is favorable for the future. The debt is to be refunded in bonds of $100, each at 6 per cent, and a certain number of the bonds to be paid each year. This, of course, is not as well as to pay the debt at once, but it is a step toward final settlement.

April 10th—At West Plains I celebrated the Holy Communion, and in the evening I confirmed eleven and addressed them.

The good work is going at full pressure and the missionary has reason to thank the Lord for abundant blessings upon his untiring labors. Arrangements are proposed to enable him to give West Plains all Sundays but one a month.

April 14th—At Christ church, St. Joseph, I preached and confirmed thirty-two. I also enjoyed the privilege of making a brief address to the Sunday School. The service with exquisite music was delightful. All departments of work (and there are many) show extraordinary activity and excellent results. The Parish is for the first time in its existence entirely out of debt.

In the evening at Trinity, Kansas City, I preached, confirmed twenty-three and addressed them. A grand service.

April 18th—At Carthage I preached, confirmed thirty and addressed them. The Church was crowded and many turned away. By God's blessing upon the diligent and devout Rectorate, of the present incumbent, great progress has been made, all debts have been paid, a fine vested choir introduced, the Sunday School enlarged, the societies re-organized, and with all this activity a most delightful harmony prevailed with enthusiastic loyalty to the Rector. We thanked God and took courage.

April 19th—At Butler I made calls, baptized an infant, preached and confirmed one. The class would have been larger but for the ignorant prejudice of friends of the other candidates, withholding them from their duty.

April 21st—At Chillicothe I addressed the Sunday School, preached, confirmed twenty-two and addressed them. This Parish is out of debt, and by the generous response to an appeal sent out by Mrs. De Longy, with some generous gifts at home, the rectory has been enlarged and improved. A large Bible class and Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been organized. The Rector is highly favored in having as his lieutenants such men as Mr. T. F. B. Sotham and others.

In the evening at Holy Trinity, St. Joseph, I baptized an infant, preached and met the Vestry.

April 23d—At Amazonia I celebrated the Holy Communion, baptized an infant, confirmed three, read morning prayer and preached.

The venerable and beloved Deacon is confined to his house by the result of a serious fall. We adjourned to his house for the Holy Communion.

In the evening at Savannah I baptized an infant and an adult, confirmed one, read service and preached. The attendance was large, music inspiring, reflecting much credit upon the fidelity of the few who are there.

On motion of the Rev. W. T. Allan, D. D., the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That all that part of the Rt. REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK AS FOLLOWS :

Your committee feeling that since the meeting of the last Council some progress has been made in the work of our Sunday Schools by the organization of the "Church Sunday School Institute of the Diocese of West Missouri," and as the aim of the institute is not to formulate and put into effect any new methods of instruction, but to enforce the teachings already set forth by the Church in her Common Prayer book and such other manuals of instructions as have received the approval of her spiritual officers and leaders, it is believed that the Institute should receive the cordial co-operation and support of the clergy, and also to the end that more effective work may be done, it is recommended that local institutes be held at the following points, viz.: Kansas City, St. Joseph, and Springfield during the year, and that competent lay members be appointed to attend these meetings and assist the clergy in work of instruction.

It is further believed by your committee that the frequent coming together and comingling of those engaged in Sunday School work is productive of much good and further, the committee recommends the use of the Int. Dio. Ser. of Lessons in the Sunday Schools of the Diocese.

G. H. HILLS,
W. S. TROWBRIDGE,
W. S. KNIFFIN,
D. G. MACKINNON,
A. C. STOWELL,
Committee.

The Rev. D. G. Mackinnon, Archdeacon, read the following :

To the RT. REV. E. R. ATWILL, D. D., Bishop of West Missouri.

My Dear Bishop—I take pleasure in reporting to you as follows:

Last October I was appointed by you Archdeacon of the Diocese with limited responsibilities; on account of my duties as Rector of Trinity Parish, Independence, for this reason, I was unable to give more than about two days each week to missionary work of the Diocese, until April 14th, when the Rev. R. R. Diggs, of Atchison, Kansas, was called to assist me at Independence and St. John's, Kansas City. As I have now entered upon a regular and definite plan of work, I have arranged appointments for the following nineteen places which you have placed under my care :

Kansas City, St. John's, Cameron, Carrollton, Trenton, Richmond, Blackburn, Pleasant Hill, Holden, Weston, Platte City, Higginsville, Sweet Springs, Marcelene, Lathrop, Odessa, Norborne, Liberty, Breckenridge, Hamilton.

I am now giving Sunday mornings to Independence ; Sunday afternoons to St. John's, Kansas City ; and Sunday evenings to Carrollton and Cameron.

St. John's, Kansas City, gives promise of being a good point after a long and hard struggle, and is already doing nicely in a financial way.

The Rev. R. R. Diggs is proving himself a valuable assistant in this field, giving Sunday morning services and attending to various Parochial duties.

The missions at Trenton, Carrollton and Cameron are doing excellent work, especially at the first named place.

During the past few months I have visited many of the mission points named above, have addressed the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church, St. Joseph, and Trinity, Kansas City, and preached the sermon at the Diocesan quarterly meeting at Trinity Church, Kansas City.

I have held missions at Nevada and Carrollton, have visited All Saints Parish at Nevada twice by request.

I have also organized several Chapters of the Children's Diocesan Missionary Society, some of which have done well, especially the Chapter at Independence.

Received from the Woman's Auxiliary $19.60 for my work. I have carried on the work and paid salary of assistant without expense to Diocesan Missionary Board, and if matters continue as at present I think I may be able to continue the work without calling upon the Board.

I now devote about five days each week to the mission field. Some of the missions give promise for the coming year and are planning to do their part in a financial way.

Respectfully submitted,

Your faithful servant,

DANIEL G. MACKINNON,

Archdeacon of West Missouri.

Mr. T. C. Florance by request addressed the Council in regard to the Church Bells and made a statement as to its condition and management.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Allen, his motion in regard to publishing a part of the Bishop's address separately, was reconsidered, and on motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills, as a substitute therefor, it was resolved that the manager of the Church Bells be requested to publish 1,000 extra copies of the Council number of the Church Bells, and circulate them through the Diocese, and that $25.00 be appropriated for the expense thereof.

The committee on missionaries' traveling expenses reported all expenses paid. Mr. M. G. Harman moved the final adoption of the amendment to Art. XV of the constitution first adopted by the tenth annual Council. [See Journal of 1899.]

On motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills, the Council took a recess until 8 o'clock p. m.

8:00 P. M.

Your Committee also recommends that the delinquency of the church of the Mediator Blackburn, amounting to $68.45, be remitted in consideration of their assessment of $25.00 for the current year being paid promptly.

JOHN F. EATON,
FRANK W. YALE,
GEO. W. LEE,
EDWARD C. HAMILL,
A. D. JOHNSON,

Committee on Assessments.

The Secretary read the following reports :

REPORT

OF SECRETARY OF DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

The Board held three meetings during the year. May 30, 1900, at which officers were elected and plan of stipends for the year presented by the Bishop was adopted. Also on Nov. 8, 1900, and March 7, 1901, for routine business. The Board has assisted nineteen points during the year, and paid stipends or parts of stipends to nineteen missionaries.

The following old names have been taken off of the list: Rev. J. W. Dunn (retired), and Revs. E. S. Earle, L. M. Wilkins, John Wilkinson H. A. Duboc, all removed from the Diocese.

The following new names have been added: The Revs. Sam'l Thurlow, Neosho and Monett, R. A. Saunders, Clinton and Harrisonville, A. R. Stearns, Lebanon, Will P. James, Brookfield.

The Board has the pleasure of reporting that pledges have been paid with more promptness than heretofore usual, and the treasurer has a larger balance on hand than last year. When this Board started in business eleven years ago it had a balance from the old Diocese of $1,200, representing virtually a donation of that amount from the Diocese of Missouri to the missionary work of the Diocese of West Missouri. The balance was a great help during the pressing years that followed the organization of the Diocese, during which time it was used up. With its assistance the Board has always been able to meet its obligations promptly. It should evidently be replaced and always kept up for use in times of emergency.

Respectfully submitted for the Board,

May 21, 1901.

JOHN K. DUNN, Secretary.

The Council adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SECOND DAY.

9 A. M., WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 1901.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning prayer was said by the Rev. J. R. Atwill and the Litany by the Rt. Rev., the Bishop.

The roll was called, and the minutes of the first day's proceedings were read and approved.

On motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills it was ordered that the fraternal greetings of the Council be sent to the Convention of the Diocese of Iowa, now in session at Des Moines, Ia.

The consideration of the proposed amendment of Art. XV of the Constitution being in order, (see page 58) on motion of Mr. J. F. Eaton, it was postponed to the next annual Council.

Mr. C. H. Nearing reported informally for the Committee on the Endowment of the Episcopate.

The Rev. Dr. Mackinnon read the report of the Committee on the state of the Church.

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your committee respectfully reports that it desires to emphasize the spirit of buoyant happiness and large hearted faith, apparent in every department of Diocesan activities. This is especially manifest in the Bishop's address which should be read by every person in the Diocese.

Statistics show a decided increase of population and prosperity in the Diocese. In many points people are now beginning to realize their duty to the Church, and we hail with satisfaction the gradual extension of systematic plans of giving in Parishes and Missions. We ask the clergy and laity wherever this system is not established, to fairly consider its great merits and advantages. The endowment fund should also be kept continuously before the people of the Diocese. There is a vast field for the Church in West Missouri, with many counties where no service of the Church has ever been held, and where we have church people. The present seems to be therefor a golden opportunity, calling us to duty and to the setting forth the claims which the Church urges upon heart and conscience, and the great advantages she possesses in her historical background, her Apostolic authority and Catholic faith.

The field is large, the necessities are great and insistent, and we feel deeply thankful for the splendid increase of missionary pledges at this Council, which will enable the Bishop to push the work in all parts of the Diocese, and which shows that the churchmen of West Missouri are determined to uphold their Bishop in extending the Church, with energy and means. Your committee therefore feels that there is ground for thankfulness to Almighty God. The Church needs but to raise the standard of the Cross and press boldly and faithfully on and victory will surely follow.

DANIEL G. MACKINNON,
SAMUEL THURLOW.
J. C. POND.

PERSONAL REPORTS.

Although retired and living in New Mexico with my aged wife and our daughter, I have been able to do some work for the Master. For four months recently I carried on the services during the illness and absence of the rector. I did the same thing for a sick and dying brother for two months, soon after I came here, nearly four years ago. Both services rendered gratuitously. I have been able, however, to earn a little as chaplain to one branch of the Senatorial Legislature. Besides this I have had no income save from the two dioceses of Missouri, since giving up my missionary work here, under Bishop Kendrick, a year and a half ago. I am thankful that I have been able to do even a little. I have held some services at the penitentiary, and at the government Indian school near here. At the latter I baptized two Navajo Indian girls whose mothers are still pagans.

APPENDIX No. 3.

AUDITING REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Right Reverend E. R. Atwill, D. D.
Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri,
Kansas City, Missouri.

The Finance Committee appointed at the last Diocesan Council respectfully reports as follows:

I.

The Committee has examined the reports, the accounts, and the vouchers of Mr. W. B. Clarke, Treasurer of the Diocese, and finds them correct.

On May 21st, 1901, the date of the report, said Treasurer had in his hands a cash balance of $1,646.63, which was made up of the following sums:—

Balance to the credit of the General Fund,	$ 317.88
“ “ “ “ “ “ Theological Education Fund	84.18
“ “ “ “ “ “ Disabled Clergy Fund,	1,244 57

The receipts of the Treasurer from the various parishes and missions throughout the Diocese the Committee assumes to be correct as stated in the Treasurer's report to the Diocesan Council, and they can be verified by reference to the various parochial reports.

The Treasurer also exhibited notes and trust deeds belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund as follows:—

Loan to F. G. Smith, drawing 8% interest,	$ 850.00
Loan to A. A. Tomlinson, drawing 6% interest,	2,800.00

Said loans appear to be secured by deeds of trust which are first liens on real estate, and there is no interest in default.

I.

The real estate belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund consists of the west half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of lot five (5) block two (2) western Highlands, Kansas City, Kansas.

The Treasurer also exhibited a note and deed of trust belonging to the Trustees of the Theological Education Fund, securing a loan to A. A. Tomlinson, at 6% per annum, of $1,200.00 This is also secured by a deed of trust which is a first lien on real estate.

The Treasurer called the attention of the Committee to the item in his Disbursements of “ By interest on Over Drafts, $58.69.” These overdrafts from time to time result solely from the delay on the part of some of the parishes and missions in sending to the Treasurer their assessments promptly when due. Such an expense ought to be avoided in the future, and can be if the parishes and missions will remit promptly.

II.

The Committee also examined the report and the accounts of Mr. C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer of the Permanent Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Western Missouri, and found the same to be correct Said report is dated May 21st, 1901, and at that date the cash balance in the hands of said C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer, was $4,974.17

III.

The Committee also examined the report, the accounts and the vouchers of Henry D. Ashley, Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Board of the Diocese of West Missouri, and found the same to be correct. Said report is dated May 21st, 1901. At that date the cash balance in the hands of said Treasurer was $1,413.58

The Treasurer also exhibited a note for $1,600.00 given by Mr. George Eberle, secured by first mortgage on real estate, which draws 6% per annum. This is known as the Bishop Robertson Memorial Fund.

A proposition, different from the one under consideration, shall not be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be excused by the Council.

The hour of 3 o'clock having arrived, the Bishop delivered his annual address.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

TO THE COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI,
MAY 13, 1902.

Rev. Brethren of the Clergy and Brethren of the Laity:

With a glad and grateful heart we welcome to our Thirteenth Annual Council you who for love of the Church have gathered from the near and the remote parts of this Diocese, so great in the extent of its territory, to bring reports of the accomplishments of the year and to consult together how best to lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes.

Our duties in the Council are sacred privileges. We should discharge them with fidelity, diligence and prayers for the guidance of the Lord as those who are creating an epoch and lending a hand in bringing to pass the purposes of God.

May His Holy Spirit direct and rule our hearts.

May He move us to devise liberal things and to go out from the Council determined by the devotion of our energies to bring them to pass.

NECROLOGY.

It has been our custom to call to mind ere we pass to our business those, who, during the past year, have entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

The Right Reverend Alexander Burgess, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Quincy, died October 8, 1901, aged 81. He was a devoted and learned man, an authority upon the Canon Law of the Church, and was at one time Chairman of the House of Deputies in the General Convention.

The Right Reverend Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, D. D., D. C. L., Bishop of Long Island, died August 3, 1901, aged 76.

He was a scholar of unusual learning and power, an eloquent preacher, the author of well known Reviews and a true Churchman.

The Right Reverend Henry Benjamin Whipple, D. D., LL. D., died September 6, 1901, aged 79.

His name is a household word at home and abroad. The story of his career as a missionary fascinates the reader, and none could plead the cause of missions with more telling effect than he. He was the friend of the Indian and the friend of the Negro. If not so deeply learned as some of his brethren of the Episcopate he was the peer of any in the practical exemplification of the teachings of the Gospel in a holy life devoted to the irradiation of the darkened minds of men with the light of truth.

The Right Reverend John Franklin Spalding, D. D., Bishop of Colorado, died recently, aged 74.

He was another of the noble missionaries of the frontier who labored with wisdom and diligence to found and build up the Church in regions developed by the westward drift of our population. Strong in faith, wise in finance, untiring in journeying, his missions, his schools, his cathedrals are his monuments.

These four aged servants of God represent types of character that the Church cannot afford to lose.

May we with zeal like theirs inspired,
Press onward in the race.

CLERICAL REMOVALS.

Among the clergy of the Diocese there have been the usual changes that seem inevitable and that often sadden a Bishop's heart.

Rev. Cameron Mann, D. D., elected by the General Convention in San Francisco, Missionary Bishop of North Dakota, left the Diocese in the early days of this year. He came to Kansas City in February, 1881, and by his strong will, active mind and vigorous personality, became a leader in the old Diocese and in the new. The parish of Grace Church under his wise management grew from a feeble beginning to its present commanding position. The Guild Hall and Church edifice are monuments of Bishop Mann's financial and executive ability no less than to the generosity of his devoted people.

Rev. Chas. J. Sniffen, recent rector of Grace Church, Carthage, has not been transferred but has been compelled to leave the Diocese in search of health from a distressing malady.

During his brief stay in Western Missouri he greatly improved the condition of his parish and endeared himself to all who knew him by his winning manners, brilliant mind and loyal devotion to duty. May the Lord restore him to health.

Rev. Robert Keating Smith had left the Diocese before our Council met last year, but retained his Canonical residence until February 10, 1902.

Rev. William G. Thompson, who also left the Diocese some time ago, was transferred during the past year to the Diocese of New York.

Rev. Alexander Coffin has been transferred to Tennessee.

Rev. C. R. Stearns has been transferred to Southern Ohio.

Rev. J. M. McBride also had, at our last Council only a Canonical residence, and has since been transferred to the Diocese of Missouri.

We are pleased to welcome among us:

Rev. George L. Neide, Rector of Holy Trinity, St. Joseph.

Rev. Percy B. Eversden, Rector of St. Paul's, Kansas City.

Rev. Charles A. Weed, Rector of St. Philip's, Joplin.

Rev. A. B. Perry, missionary at Trenton and Cameron.

Rev. Franklin C. Smith, Rector of St. Paul's, Marysville, and missionary at Stanberry.

Rev. Erle H. Merriman, missionary at large.

Rev. Theodore B. Foster, Rector of Grace Church, Kansas City, Mo.

Rev. Edgar Allen Sherrod, who has been for some time at work in Booneville as Lay Reader, has been added by ordination to the Diaconate to the list of Clergy.

Rev. Edward W. Flower, Archdeacon of the Northern Counties, has also been added to the list during the year past.

We have since the last Council lost three clergy engaged in active duty, and we have gained nine.

Within the Diocese Rev. John R. Atwill has resigned St. Mark's, Kansas City, and has become Rector of Grace Church, Carthage.

Rev. William T. Allan, D. D., has resigned Christ Church, Springfield, and has become Rector of Calvary Church, Sedalia.

THE ARCHDEACONS.

At our Council last year increased pledges were made for Diocesan missions to enable the Bishop to undertake some aggressive work, especially by the appointment of General Missionaries or Archdeacons, who should explore territory hitherto unvisited by our missionaries, and gather new congregations.

Preparations were made at once to carry out this design. One Archdeacon with an assistant was already at work in the counties whose center of operations is Kansas City.

Rev. Edward W. Flower was appointed for the territory easily reached by railways radiating from St. Joseph. He entered upon his duties last September with especial charge of Savannah and St. Oswalds, and with directions to push on the work in thirteen counties.

Rev. Charles A. Weed was appointed to look after the work in the southern part of the Diocese in thirteen counties, with headquarters at Nevada, and especial charge of Clinton. He entered upon his duties in the early part of October last.

The Archdeacons discovered, as I was painfully aware, that within their districts were a number of small congregations that had suffered and declined from various causes—chiefly because our funds had not been sufficient to maintain regular services and keep priests at work.

There were some places where churches had been closed on account of the removal of old families, and where we were now encouraged to make fresh efforts because new church families had moved in. The work in such places is not work in new territory but is work in congregations nearly new.

This question therefore confronted us: Shall the Archdeacons apply themselves strictly to work in new territory, or shall they for a year or more assist in serving and reorganizing missions where we already have church property and nucleus of congregations?

It seemed to them and to me wise before spreading over more territory to bring the congregations we already had into good working condition, keeping always in view our aim which is to arrange as soon as possible these missions in groups of three or more under missionaries of their own and incite them to larger offerings, that the missionaries who are set over them shall receive as much support from them as possible and as little as possible from the Diocesan Board of Missions.

This plan was adopted. The Archdeacons have labored untiringly in these places. In Savannah, in Clinton, in Neosho, and in other places missions have been held extending over several days.

Archdeacon Weed has so stimulated the congregations at Monett and Neosho that they offer to relieve the Board of $100 of the stipend, and are begging for a missionary of their own.

At Clinton they were much moved by the mission the Archdeacon held there, and good congregations attend the regular services held by Mr. Remick, a candidate for Holy Orders, whom I stationed there as Lay Reader.

A class of seven is waiting my visitation for confirmation.

All Saints, Nevada, which has suffered much from untoward conditions known to some of you, has been much helped by the Archdeacon's work; the debt has been reduced, the congregation has been increased, and are in much more favorable condition for the coming of a new Rector.

Archdeacon Weed has withdrawn, with my approval, from the work of Archdeacon, and become Rector of St. Philip's, Joplin. I much regret to lose the services of so efficient a missionary, but it is a crying shame that in the city of Joplin, having now a population of nearly 30,000, we have only one small struggling congregation.

There are great possibilities in that region, and Mr. Weed is the man under Providence to build up the work.

In the Central Archdeaconry, St. John's, Cameron, has been strengthened, a Sunday school gathered, and they now have their own missionary, Rev. A. B. Perry. Cavalry, Pleasant Hill, long closed, has been reopened. I confirmed six there. Carrollton is in a hopeful condition.

The grouping of the missions in this Archdeaconry is progressing, and I have appointed Rev. Erle H. Merriman to take part of the field from the Archdeacon, setting him free to extend his work into other territory.

In the Northern Archdeaconry Mr. Flower has strengthened the mission at Savannah and Oswald, and regular services are now held at several new points, viz.: Empire Prairie, Albany and Stanberry, where the Rector of Maryville officiates, and efforts are being made to establish a mission at Burlington Junction.

While therefore it may seem that the new plan of work has not yet accomplished all that we could desire in the exploration of new fields, it has strengthened the places that are ours and were ready to die, the work of the Diocese is in better condition, and we hope after having strengthened our stakes this year to lengthen our cords in the years to come.

The Archdeacons would be much more free to go out to their proper work were the Missionary Board able to pay their entire salaries or so large a portion of them that it would not be necessary for them to earn part of their support by pastoral work and giving two Sundays a month to an established congregation.

Among our older Parishes and Missions the good work is going on. If in many of these there is nothing unusual to chronicle, we find the reason in their uniform progress from year to year.

St. George's, Kansas City, has lessened its debt, its edifice has been improved, it has opened a new mission at Ivanhoe, and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has taken charge of a Sunday School in the Roberts Mission in the north end of the city.

The congregation of Grace Church, Kansas City, has held together with praiseworthy zeal during the vacancy in the rectorate, the Vestry have taken up their duties with extraordinary energy, and the new Rector enters upon his labors under the most encouraging auspices.

The people of St. John's, Kansas City, after patiently holding fast for years without much progress, have been reinforced by some new members of well known zeal and enthusiasm. A lot delightfully located and central to the families of the mission has been purchased, and plans are being made for a new stone church. In the meantime the old building on the new site will be used.

St. Mark's, Kansas City, is continuing its struggle for existence. The crisis of its troubles seems to have been passed and with the fraternal encouragement it deserves from the Clergy and Church people of Kansas City, will by God's blessing protect and advance the interests of the Church within its proper parochial limits.

The congregation of St. Paul's made a notable offering of nearly $6,000 on Easter Day. They have purchased a lot advantageously located, and plans are being drawn for a fine Church building which should be the most beautiful in the city.

The Churches in St. Joseph are flourishing. In Christ

Church I confirmed forty on Palm Sunday and Holy Trinity is developing strength under its new Rector.

In South St. Joseph, the population gathered about the new packing houses, offers an opportunity for Church extension that it seems sinful to neglect, and we cannot believe the churchmen of St. Joseph will long disregard. Under the combined efforts of the two parishes a mission might be built up that would be an honor to the foresight and generosity of those wide awake men.

Christ Church, Boonville, developing in spiritual growth, is also rejoicing in material improvements—the enlargement of its church edifice and a new organ.

At West Plains and along the one hundred miles of railway between West Plains and Springfield, Rev. Edmund A. Neville is teaching and preaching with excellent results.

The Central Convocation has held some most successful services, and the clergy have planned future meetings for the dissemination of instruction about the Church and for the strengthening of our missions.

The Convocation may afford under wise management, an occasional and pleasant reunion of the clergy and an opportunity to assist in the building up of the work in the Diocese.

Let other Convocations wake up and work.

The Sunday School Institute and the Church Club have both justified their existence. They are auxiliaries worthy of the interest and support of our people.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions! How our hopes revive as we speak that name! How grateful we are for the work they have done in West Missouri and for missions in other fields.

During the past year they have placed in the hands of the Bishop for the extension of the Church in West Missouri, $900. Truly missionary work.

But while mindful of the responsibilities God has laid upon us here, we may not be unmindful of the responsibilities He lays upon us as an integral part of the whole mission supporting Church. The privileges of the Church and the invitations of the gospel are to be heard in the foreign fields, in our new possessions, among the remnants of the Indian tribes and among the freedmen of the South.

We are bound to bear our share in this general work, or rather to claim as our privilege, our blessed privilege, the right to be fellow-helpers to the truth.

In a circular, which I will not repeat here, I have called upon every baptized man, woman and child in the Diocese to give at least one cent a week, or fifty-two cents a year for the General Board of Missions. I have shown how this can be done and the result that would follow, although in making the table of amounts that would come from each Parish and Mission, I have purposely, in many instances, underestimated the number of baptized.

I call upon the clergy, lay readers, wardens and women of vacant Missions to aid me in offering to every baptized person the privilege of giving this small amount for the great Mission work of the Church, and I am ready to furnish blanks for the pledges, envelopes to receive the pennies and account books to record the offerings received. Helping on God's work in the next town and in far away towns, God's work in our own towns will not suffer, for we are working in God's way, we are making ventures of faith, and every true Christian knows that the promise of our Lord, "Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down and shaken together," means Missions no less than charity to the poor.

The feeble congregation that gives as much as it ought for General Missions will not find its own treasury empty. It will be like the widow's cruse of oil, and never fail. But the treasury of the congregation that has no interest in Missions, no enthusiasm for Church extension, no sympathy for the men and women who bear with great self-sacrifice the standard of the cross among those who sit in darkness—upon the empty floor of that congregation's treasury will gather the dust of its own decay.

Therefore, before exhortations to fidelity to West Missouri I place exhortations to fidelity in the discharge of your duty to General Missions. I am confident that they who heed the first exhortation will be the more ready to respond to the second.

They who know the story of the Mission fields, they whose hearts beat in sympathy with the missionaries at the front, they who are giving to extend the borders of the Church, these have the true spirit of the apostles and confessors of old, these will rise to help in the hour of need at home, these will not even wait for times of special need, they will be steadfast day by day and year by year.

And so we come back to West Missouri and face the difficulties and the duties that confront us here. Looking out over the broad extent of our own Diocese, comparing with what we are accomplishing our visions of what we should accomplish, I am impelled to urge upon you as our motto these words which ring in my ears with the memory of many confirmation services, "more and more." It is the motto of true Christian living to abound more and more. It should be the legend upon our Diocesan banner. It should be the fact in our Diocesan life. Every council should usher in richer, broader, more aggressive Diocesan life.

"To only hold our own" is not worthy a Diocese teeming with western enterprise and vigor.

You, the laity; you, the clergy; I, your Bishop, should see that we abound more and more, strengthening our centers, extending our activities over prairies and hills untrodden by our priests.

We easily fall into unrighteous contentment, felicitating ourselves if our parochial report shows no decline, forbearing to disturb our complacency by plans for new enterprises that will involve more activity and gifts on a larger scale, anticipating no greater achievements in the year now beginning than in the years whose record is closed.

But have we approached the maximum of our possible growth? Of our possible influence upon the western counties of this great state? Of our possible contributions for home work and for missions? Of our possible triumphs over the difficulties peculiar to our field and that should incite us to unusual efforts?

We may sleep; some are sleeping while the morning of our opportunity is passing and when to be lulled into contentment with our achievements is sin. We should be up and doing; thinking, working, praying, giving to develop every Parish and Mission in the Diocese more and more.

There are indeed difficulties in the development of every congregation, large or small, and particularly small. There are many coming and going, chiefly going from some of our feeble missions. Influential families bid us farewell and go to swell the numbers of the mission field further west, the confirmed go almost from the chancel to the train en route for a new home beyond our borders. Those who remain are too easily disheartened. They say A is gone, B is going, and we must close the doors of the Church.

But all Missions need not despair because A and B are going and several others with them. Those who remain should rise to more courageous effort. And before the exodus takes place we should prepare for it by continually adding strength to the congregation, increasing more and more by the acquisition of new members and by developing our young men and young women into staunch supporters.

There are some even of the clergy who will say that only under exceptional conditions is it possible to increase our mission congregations more and more. There may be five hundred children swarming out of the public schools on a summer afternoon, but no one thinks it possible to add to the fifteen scholars who struggle into our little Sunday School.

There are some thousands of people in the country around and the town, but it is assumed that we cannot gather more than the twenty-five scattered about at wide intervals upon our pews.

But it is possible to increase that congregation and that school. How? By teaching the doctrines of the Church in due proportion and completeness, but with wisdom, and with care not to ask the people to accept more than the Church sends us to teach. Second, by courageous hopefulness. Courage is contagious. Enthusiasm creates enthusiasm. One loyal woman with courage and enthusiasm has sometimes saved the day when the congregation seemed worsted by the difficulties. Again, we must go at the work by building up our congregations with infinite resource and eternal vigilance. We may learn wisdom from the methods of business men.

The congregation increasing more and more, year by year, reinforced by its confirmation classes, who are so many new recruits enlisted in the war from which there is no release, is prepared to endure exodus of some of its people.

The congregation that drones along for a series of years, striving but feebly to increase more and more, maintained chiefly by the zeal of one or two collapses when one or both of the zealous two depart.

In the whole Diocese there should be steady increase more and more. It is not well to grow by "fits and starts." A sudden increase under unusual stimulus is often followed by reaction and retrogression. To increase steadily and to hold its own gain a Diocese should send down roots that strike deep into the life of the state and draw life into trunk and branches.

What are some of the roots that would steadily increase the size of this Diocese?

One is endowment. We have a Canon directing that offerings be made for the permanent endowment once each year. We have had and have now committees appointed to strengthen that root through which should flow continually financial strength.

How many Missions and Parishes have made the offering during the past year? How many individuals have responded to the efforts of the committee? Are we content to go on from year to year dependent upon goading assessments? Living from hand to mouth, or shall we set out to develop this root and provide for the financial strengthening of our Diocese more and more?

Institutions that bring the youth of our state under the fostering care and training of the Church are roots that bring vital forces into her life. Shall we always be content to live on as we are, dwarfed for want of these roots? Do you know that the characters and tastes of our farmers' sons and daughters and of the boys and girls in our smaller towns are formed by the score in institutions that are hostile to the Church?

Shall we never make an effort to establish an orphanage when destitute children may be nurtured in the bosom of their Mother, the Church?

Our missions are roots and rootlets that reach out into the life of the state. The law of self preservation indicates the duty of the Diocese to them. It should strengthen itself by strengthening them and by increasing their number more and more.

For reasons known to you I have been unable during the past year to accomplish my full measure of work, and there are several confirmation classes waiting in places that I could not visit before the Council, but I am most grateful for the work of the Archdeacons, who have officiated in my stead in many places where I had been filling the gaps myself.

Several new clergy will enter upon their duties presently, and I think the Diocese will be well prepared for work during the coming year.

I am most anxious to send out to places as yet unvisited, and there are many such; there are, as you will see by consulting the map I have had prepared, counties aggregating more than one-third of the area of the Diocese and about one-third of its population where our Priests and our Prayer Book are unknown.

To all unvisited places I would send a missionary equipped with Prayer Books and literature for distribution, who would announce services and hold them whether or no there were Church people to be found; who would explain the Church, distribute tracts and Prayer Books, and where he could do so without offense, visit families in their homes to talk with them about religion and to instruct them.

To do this and also support our regular missionaries I must have generous offerings for our Diocesan Missions.

Let us try in this, as in other departments of our work, to increase more and more.

We now have Canonically resident in the Diocese:

Bishop	1
Priests	31

Total 35

Of these twenty-eight are in active service.

There are:

Lay Readers	26
Candidates for Orders	2
Postulant	1

There have been:

Ordinations	2
Clergy Dismissed	6
Clergy Received	9
Confirmations	316

And now, brethren, let us proceed to our business and our deliberations with an earnest purpose to accomplish more than in the past, lay foundations of new enterprises and to build upon them, to develop here in this field committed to us a diocese of which as business men and as churchmen you need not be ashamed.

Let there be establishments here and wise provisions for the future, to which we can point and say, "This have we done."

And may the Holy Spirit in all things direct and rule our hearts.

REPORTS

The Rev. G. H. Hills read the report of the Committee on Sunday School work.

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

The Committee on Sunday School Work respectfully submit the following report :

A most successful meeting of the Sunday School Institute of the Diocese was held on February 20th, in Christ Church, St. Joseph, Archdeacon MacKinnon, presiding. At the afternoon session addresses were made by the Rev. John Atwill, on "The Use of the Prayer Book in Sunday Schools;" and by Mrs. Pallister, of Kansas City, on "Music in the Sunday School." Interesting discussions followed, which were participated in with great zest. In the evening Mr. George Casey read a paper on "Missionary Possibilities of the Sunday School," and Rev. Geo. L. Neide made a characteristic speech on Teachers' Meetings.

There were about fifty in attendance, although the number from out of town, owing doubtless to its being the beginning of Lent, was not as large as had been hoped. Those from out of town were entertained by the Sunday School of Christ Church parish.

Aside from the unavoidable absence of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Institute was probably the best that has yet been held. The Sunday School choir added much to the enjoyment and success of the Institute, the music being exceptionally hearty and enthusiastic.

We would respectfully recommend the Institute to all rectors, missionaries, and other Sunday School workers, as a most effective auxiliary to the work of the Sunday School in the Diocese.

The Council reassembled. On motion of Mr. James C. Horton the Committee on Finance was instructed to examine and audit the accounts of the Diocesan Treasurers and report to the Secretary after the adjournment of Council.

The Rev. J. K. Dunn read the following report:

The Registrar respectfully reports that he has received Journals from nearly all of the Dioceses during the past year. He would also call attention to the fact that the shelving provided for the use of the Diocese in Trinity church lecture room is now nearly filled, and it will soon be necessary to have additional accomodation for the journals and other documents in his charge.

JOHN K. DUNN,
Registrar.

On motion of Mr. M. G. Harman, it was resolved that a sum not exceeding $25 be appropriated for the expense of necessary shelving for the Registrar.

On motion the salary of the Secretary was fixed at $125 for the current year.

Committee.

On motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills, the report of the Committee on Assessments was received and adopted.
The Rev. John K. Dunn read the following:

REPORT

OF THE SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

The Board has held three meetings during the past year, on May 27, 1901, November 12, 1901 and January 30, 1902. At the first meeting the Rev. John K. Dunn was re-elected Secretary and Mr. H. D. Ashley, Treasurer. The meetings have been well attended, showing a commendable interest on the part of the members of the Board.

The following names have been dropped from the list: Rev. C. A. Stearns, of Lebanon, and Rev. Samuel Thurlow, of Neosho and Monett, removed from the Diocese; also the Rev. L. S. Minturn, who has been obliged to give up the charge of Amazonia, owing to age and infirmity. He has been a faithful servant of the Church and should receive her attention during the remaining years of his life. Amazonia is now cared for by the Archdeacon of Savannah. The following new names have been added: The Rev. E. T. Flower, Archdeacon of the Northern district; the Rev. C. A. Weed, Archdeacon of the Southern district; the Rev. F. C. Smith, Maryville; the Rev. G. L. Neide, Jr., Holy Trinity, St. Joseph; and the Rev. A. B. Perry, Trenton.

The Board has adjusted the stipends according to the increased pledges of last year, and is doing a much larger work than ever before. The Diocese has never been so fully covered, as will appear from the Reports of the three Archdeacons and other Missionaries.

But attention must be called to the following facts: with three points vacant at present, it is now paying a stipend list of $850.00 per quarter, and with the three vacant places filled the quarterly roll of the Board would run up to $975.00, or $3,800.00 per annum.

It is evident, therefore, that the pledges of last year must be kept up, if not increased, and that the pledges must be paid promptly and regularly, or the Board will be obliged to cut down the work very soon, or allow its stipends to go unpaid.

While the pledges of the last Council were large, the payments have been slow. The Board began the year last May with a cash balance of $1,438.58. Its heaviest items of expenditure did not begin until September and October last, when the Archdeacons began their work, yet so dilatory has been the payment of pledges that after the last payments of the year were made on stipends, by May 1, 1902, there was only about $100.00 left in the Treasury of the Board. Since that date $1,195.15 have been paid in, but we should have a balance of at least $2,000.00 on hand by the close of this Council, for there are practically no payments made on pledges through the summer. The Board cannot very well borrow (like the Diocesan Treasurer) to meet its obligations. It is earnestly hoped that all delinquencies will be made up immediately. It will be a serious and permanent injury to the work of the Church in the Diocese to abandon work that has been begun. We must take no backward steps. And yet it is impossible to continue, much less make any further advance, without funds. We cannot believe that it will be the wish of this Council that the work should stop, but its sentiments must be expressed by pledges made and paid, not by words only.

Respectfully submitted for the Board,

May 13, 1902.

JOHN K. DUNN,
Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Geo. W. Lee, the above report was adopted and ordered printed in the Journal:

Rev. D. G. MacKinnon read his report, as follows:

REPORT

OF ARCHDEACON MACKINNON.

TO THE RT. REV. E. R. ATWILL, D. D.,
Bishop of West Missouri.

MY DEAR BISHOP :— I take pleasure in reporting to you as follows :
Twenty-four places have been visited by me, and the most of the places cared for under your direction.

Traveled, miles	15,600
Services held	504
Sermons and Addresses	500
Baptized	20
Adults	8
Infants	12
Holy Communion	200
Marriages	4
Offerings and Pledges	$945.00
Salaries	740.00
Expenses	180.00

Addressed Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church, St. Joseph, twice during the year. Presided at two Sunday School conventions. Conducted Missions of one week each in the following places : Cameron, Carrollton, Pleasant Hill, Lee's Summit, Weston and Blackburn. These special services of instruction were well attended and productive of much good and the strengthening of the work.

On account of the growth of St. John's, Cameron, that mission has been joined with Trenton.

I have taken charge of St. Mark's, Kansas City, under your direction, and given them a Sunday afternoon service. The work here has assumed such proportions, and so much interest manifested, and a good pledge reported for stipend, that regular service must be commenced at once in order to care for the growing work in this part of the city.

It has been impossible to enter upon Church Extension on account of the needed care of Missions already established, and in some places too weak to be grouped.

I have been able to carry on the Mission work in the Archdeaconry of Kansas City during the past year without calling on the Diocesan Missionary Board for one cent.

The outlook for the coming year is most encouraging and gives promise of the grouping of some fields, and the establishment of new work.

In connection with the work in the Mission field, I have kept up the work of my parish at Independence.

I have been assisted in the work during the past year by the Rev. R.
R. Diggs.

Respectfully submitted, DANIEL G. MACKINNON,
Archdeacon of Central District.

The Rev. E. W. Flower, Archdeacon of the Northern District, read his report as follows :

REPORT

OF ARCHDEACON FLOWER.

THE RT. REV. E. R. ATWILL, D. D.,
Bishop of West Missouri.

DEAR BISHOP:—I beg leave to submit to you my report of work as Archdeacon since my appointment in September, 1901, at St. Mary's church, Savannah, Andrew county. I have held services on two Sundays in each month, also on Easter Day additional.

I have also given services on twenty-five week days and Holy days, including a Mission for one week in January. The Holy Communion has been celebrated at all morning services. Five adults have been baptized and five confirmed. The children have been regularly catechized, and an adult Bible class instructed by me on Sundays. Many days have been spent in pastoral visiting.

At St. Oswald's, in Atchison county, I began with one Sunday a month. Later, I was desired to give two Sundays in each month. For five months morning and evening services have been given on two Sundays with celebrations of the Holy Communion at every morning appointment, and catechizing the children publicly before the congregation.

One infant has been baptized, and a small class is awaiting an Episcopal visitation for confirmation. Owing to unfavorable local conditions week-day services are hardly practicable, but the Sunday services are well attended, and a goodly interest prevails. I have visited among the families frequently.

At St. Matthew's church, Amazonia, I have endeavored to revive the dying interest among the few church people left in the place, and where for many years that faithful Deacon, the Rev. L. T. Minturn, had prayed and labored in the cause of Christ and the Church.

Mr. Minturn is now totally disabled by age and infirmity. Very many of those gathered into the church by his ministry have departed by death and removal to other places.

There is a good stone church, a small Sunday School maintained by a devoted church woman, and I have held services on one Sunday and nine week evenings, celebrated the Holy Communion three times and officiated at one burial. Between Sundays I have visited many places in the district assigned me, searching for the un-sheparded members of the church, and trying to open doors for the acceptance of regular ministrations.

Here and there I have met with a measure of success, but in a number of places visited more time is required to accomplish much result. It has been a time of seeding rather than of harvesting.

I have established regular monthly appointments at Empire Prairie, Andrew county; at Albany, Gentry county; and at Craig, Holt county.

Visitations have been made, and in some cases a service held, in other places as follows: King City, Gentry county; Grant City, Worth county; Bethany, Harrison county; Maysville, DeKalb county; Gallatin, Daviess county; Burlington Junction, Hopkins, Skidmore, Barnard, Nodaway county; Fairfax, Rockport, Tarkio, Langdon, Atchison county; Mound City, Holt county; Rosendale, Andrew county.

The Rev. C. A. Weed, lately Archdeacon of the Southern District, read his report, as follows:

REPORT

OF ARCHDEACON WEED.

TO THE RT. REV. E. R. ATWILL, D. D.,
Bishop of West Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As my work as an Archdeacon in the Diocese of West Missouri closed on May 1st, 1902, I take pleasure in making the following report of work done:

I have kept our church open in Clinton, Rich Hill, Nevada, Joplin, Neosho, Monett and Aurora. I have also given Christ church one Sunday evening service and celebrated the Holy Communion there on the following morning. I have baptized three in Clinton, two in Nevada, one in Joplin, two in Neosho, two in Monett and one in Aurora.

I have buried one in Clinton and two in Nevada. I have had two marriages in Nevada. Nine have been confirmed in Nevada and confirmation classes started in Clinton and Monett. During Lent I gave weekly services in Rich Hill, Nevada, Joplin, Neosho, Monett and Aurora. I have given three Missions during the time since November 20th, 1901. One in Clinton, one in Nevada and one in Neosho.

Nevada's debt has been reduced $150. Money was raised in Clinton, Nevada and Monett to pay the entire expense of a Lay Reader until May. 15th, and Claude E. Remick has been doing good work in that capacity I have delivered three missionary sermons or addresses outside of my Archdeaconry.

Very sincerely yours,
CHAS. A. WEED.

The Council was then addressed by the Reverends G. L. Neide, G. H. Hills and J. Stewart-Smith. The Secretary called the roll of Parishes and Missions, and pledges were taken for Diocesan Missions as follows:

REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL TRUST FUND.

MAY 1st, 1902.

November 7, 1901, the Trustees, recommended, and on November 23, resolved, that as it was impossible for the Vestry of St. John's Church, Springfield, to comply with the conditions imposed, the land deeded to them by Thomas Hargreaves for the erection and maintenance of a Woman's Hospital, be re-conveyed to him, and that a quit-claim deed thereof be executed to said Hargreaves, by the President.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT TALBOT, Secretary.

The Rev. J. Stewart-Smith read the report of the Committee on Missions.

Your committee note with thankfulness the increased interest and larger offerings for the mission work in the Diocese which has marked the last and also the present Council, and earnestly hope that it is the herald of a bright future for the church.

They would respectfully make the following recommendations :

I. That the Parishes, Missions and individuals who made pledges at the last Council but have not as yet paid them in full, be urged to do so as soon as possible. The Board made its appropriations upon the basis of the pledges made at that time, and unless they are promptly redeemed must be seriously embarrassed.

II. That those who have made pledges at the present Council be requested to pay them as soon as possible, and not to delay until the end of the year. It will be found far easier to get the money now, than after enthusiasm has cooled, and the necessity of meeting the Diocesan Assessment and other demands is pressing.

III. That the Bishop be requested to fill the place of Archdeacon Weed of the Southern Convocation immediately, so that the work so well begun by him may not be allowed to languish for want of a priest to carry it forward.

IV. That the Board be urged to devise some plan by which the appropriations made to the older Missions may be substantially reduced and they thus be encouraged to become to a larger extent self supporting, and that the funds thus released may be applied to the further extension of the work in the Diocese in the way of opening new fields.

Respectfully submitted,

J. STEWART-SMITH,

DANIAL G. MACKINNON.

F. W. FLOWER.

FRANKLIN C. SMITH.

On motion of Mr. C. H. Nearing it was resolved that it be the sense of this Council that at least $4,500 be raised for the use of the Diocesan Missionary Board for the coming year.

On motion of Mr. M. G. Harman it was resolved that the Bishop be requested to appoint at his earliest convenience a Mission Day in each Parish and Mission, and that he be present with one or more assistants to explain the great need of funds for the Mission work.

The Rev. W. S. Trowbridge moved the following:

Resolved, That the Diocesan Missionary Board be instructed to work out a scheme of apportionments for missionary funds, suggesting them (without requiring them) as limits for the parishes and missions to work towards.

On motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills the above resolution was referred to the Diocesan Missionary Board.

On motion of Mr. H. D. Ashley, it was

Resolved, That a committee of one clergyman and two laymen be appointed by the chair to consider the practicability of arranging for a trip in company with the bishop to such parishes and missions in the diocese as may be suggested by the bishop with the purpose of holding services and stirring up interest in the church and her missionary work.

The Chair appointed as such Committee the Rev. G. H. Hills, Mr. H. D. Ashley and Mr. J. F. Eaton.

On motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills, it was Resolved, That the Church Bells be recognized as the official organ of the Bishop and Diocese of West Missouri, and that every rector and missionary be urged to appoint a canvasser or canvassers in the parish or mission to solicit subscriptions to the same.

The Rev. W. S. Trowbridge read the

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday School work of the Diocese is being vigorously pushed forward by the Sunday School Institute, which held its second annual meeting on the Monday preceding the Council. The Institute deserves the hearty co-operation and support of every rector and Sunday School worker in West Missouri. Its sessions are lively and interesting, adding substantial knowledge of Sunday School methods and work. During the coming year its officers will supply a column or more of Sunday School matter to the Church Bells, and endeavor to awaken a wide spread interest in scientific and thorough teaching. A rector who came 150 miles to its session Monday said that the one address on "Organization in the Sunday School" paid in itself for the entire expense of traveling to the Council.

Your committee urges that the rectors be prompt and careful in filling out the blanks sent by the Secretary of the Institute. Last year 14 parishes sent in reports; this year 21 responded, reporting 49 officers, 33 male and 105 female teachers and 1,195 pupils. There seems to be no uniformity in the lessons used throughout the Diocese, hardly two schools using the same series. In the schools reporting, $1,047.25 was raised during the year for Sunday School purposes and $551.38 for missionary or other objects; a total of $1,598.63 from 14 schools sending in a financial statement.

Why could there not be established a provincial institute corresponding either to the boundaries of the convocations, or to groups of counties or parishes and missions? One reason why our Sunday School Institute is not better attended is that the great distance some would have to travel involves a greater expense than the majority of Sunday School workers can bear.

The Sunday School Institute work is yet in the experimental stage so far as its relations to the Diocese at large are concerned. We believe no harm would be done and great good might possibly come from associating the Sunday Schools in the various districts of the Diocese. We recommend that such organization be undertaken either by the Bishop or by the several Archdeacons.

The Rev. C. A. Weed reported for the Committee on the interest charged by the American Church Building Fund Commission, as follows:

Your Committee to whom was referred the matter of interest as charged by the American Church Building Fund Commission, would respectfully report as follows: while rejoicing in the magnificent work done in the past by the Commission, and while recognizing with gratitude its assistance within our own borders, your Committee feels that the time has now come when the interests of our Diocese will be better served by a change of policy on the part of our Commission for the building and improvement of our church property. We, therefore, submit to this Council the following resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That this Diocese, through its Council, respectfully requests the A. C. B. F. Commission to reduce its rate of interest on all loans now in force in this Diocese so as to place us on the same footing with other institutions of like character, and relieve the heavy strain upon our sadly overtaxed parishes and missions.

2nd. Resolved, That we further request the B. F. Commission to make its rate of interest on all future loans to our parishes and missions as low as money can be gotten from other like institutions.

3rd. Resolved, That such relief in the rate of interest will prove an encouragement and will enable us more effectually to advance the interests of the A. C. B. F. Commission in our Diocese.

C. A. WEED,
G. HEATHCOTE HILLS,
C. H. NEARING,
Committee.

On motion of Mr. H. D. Ashley, the President was authorized to certify to the Journal of Proceedings.

On motion of the Rev. G. H. Hills, the Council adjourned sine die.

PERSONAL REPORT.

RT. REV. SIR :

Owing to my disability because of cataract, I neither performed much duty nor was afforded opportunity to do what I might have done. I, however, have preached seven times—once in Santa Fe—and baptized one infant. Of the times referred to above, I preached twice for the parish rector here. The Bishop of the jurisdiction has no work for me ; for nobody, perhaps, but those now in the field.

Respectfully your obedient servant,
H. MACKAY.

APPENDIX NO. 4.

AUDITING REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

KANSAS CITY, MO., June 17, 1902.

*To the Rt. Rev. E. R. Atwill, D. D.,
Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri.*

The Committee on Finance appointed at the last Diocesan Council respectfully reports as follows :

I.

The Committee has examined the report, accounts and vouchers of Mr. W. B. Clarke, Treasurer of the Diocese, and finds them correct.

On May 13, 1902, the date of his report, said Treasurer had in his hands a cash balance of $1,372.25, which was made up of the following sums :

Balance to credit of General Fund	$ 119.20
“ “ “ “ Theological Education Fund	33.40
“ “ “ “ Disabled Clergy Fund	1,219.65
Total	$1,372.25

The receipts of the Treasurer from the various parishes and missions in the Diocese the Committee assumes to be correct as stated in the Treasurer's report to the Diocesan Council, and they can be verified by reference to the parochial reports.

The Treasurer also exhibited notes and trust deeds belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund as follows :

Loan to F. G. Smith, drawing 8% interest,	$ 850.00
Loan to A. A. Tomlinson, drawing 6% interest	2,800.00

Said loans appear to be secured by deeds of trust which are first liens on real estate, and there is no interest in default except $34 on the F. G. Smith loan, which was due April 26, 1902.

II.

The real estate belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund consists of the west half (½) of lot five (5), block two (2), Western Highlands, Kansas City, Kas.

III.

The Treasurer also exhibited a note and deed of trust belonging to the trustees of the Theological Education Fund securing a loan to A. A. Tomlinson of $1,200 at 6% per annum. This is secured by a deed of trust which is a first lean on real estate.

IV.

The Committee also examined the report and accounts of Mr. C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer of the Permanent Episcopal Fund, and found the same to be correct. Said report is dated May 13, 1902, and at that date the cash balance in the hands of C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer, was $5,202.92, which is deposited in the Union National Bank, Kansas City, Mo., and drawing interest. The Treasurer reports that he has received no further dividends on claim against the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings Bank, now in the hands of a receiver. The Building and Loan Association, in which the Diocese has an investment of $400, is now in the hands of trustees and the value of the stock is uncertain.

V.

The Committee also examined the report, accounts and vouchers of Mr. Henry D. Ashley, Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Board, and found the same to be correct. Said report is dated May 13, 1902, and at that date the cash balance in the hands of said Treasurer was $1,250.15. He also exhibited a note for $1,600 given by George Eberle and secured by first mortgage on real estate, drawing interest at 6% per annum. This is known as the Bishop Robertson Memorial Fund.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

TO THE COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI,

MAY 12, 1903.

Rev. Brethren of the Clergy and Brethren of the Laity:

Again we gather—Bishop, clergy and representatives of our lay congregations to give an account of our stewardship at the close of another year and to plan for the year to come. These parochial reports, this Bishop's journal are more than formal papers; they tell the story of our fidelity or of our neglect in the Lord's work in the Diocese of West Missouri and in the Church at large since we met in 1902. During the thirteen years of our Diocesan life what sort of history have we made? Are we in each department—in our offerings for Diocesan Missions, for General Missions in the work of each Parish and Mission, in the number and character of our confirmees, in contributions to our various Funds, in efforts to reach the ignorant, the poor, and the degraded, showing a better record each year?

I would have you enter upon the work of our Council seriously, solemnly and in the fear of God, with such thoughts as these in mind. I commend to your earnest study your own parochial reports and the reports of our Treasurers, and I pray that we may not only devise liberal things for the time to come, but see to it that the things we devise here are done. No more worthy object can engage our attention and our energies than the building up of the Church of God. Why should not the men who are so keen and active in working for the prosperity of the cities where they dwell be equally zealous in striving for the development of the City of God?

With these preliminary remarks I pass on to the usual order of the Annual Address.

We pause as is fitting to recall the names of those Bishops who have been called from their post of responsibility in the Church on earth to the higher privileges of the Church in Paradise.

Eight clergy have been transferred from this Diocese during the past year: Rev. Edward Thomas Demby to the Diocese of Springfield. Rev. James deQuincy Donehoo to the Diocese of Louisiana. Rev. William P. James to the Diocese of Iowa. Rev. John Sterling Moody to the Diocese of East Carolina. Rev. Aylesworth Basil Perry to the Missionary District of Oklahoma. The Rev. Sydney Smith to the Diocese of Minnesota. The Rev. Franklin C. Smith to the Diocese of Iowa. The Rev. Edgar Allen Sherrod to the Diocese of Kansas. The Rev. Chas. J. Griffin to the Diocese of Western Massachusetts.

Eight clergy have been received: The Rev. George Herbert Bailey by restoration to the Priesthood. The Rev. Thomas Harper. The Rev. Henry Louis Austin Fick. The Rev. John Dominique La Mothe. The Rev. Frank Arthur McElwain by ordination. The Rev. Albert Watkins. The Rev. Albert Rupert Llwyd. The Rev. Claude E. Remick, by ordination.

We have on our clergy list thirty-one Priests and three Deacons. Of these, twenty-six are in active service.

We need, in order to carry on the work now undertaken, five additional Missionaries, one for Maryville and Savannah, one for West Plains, Mountain Grove and Fordland, one for Harrisonville and Butler, one for Clinton and adjacent towns, one for Carrollton, Richmond and Brunswick. A portion of the support of these missionaries is pledged by the missions themselves; but should we be so fortunate as to have our full force of men in the field, we would need a larger missionary fund than the pledges now made yield.

Your pledges this year for our Diocesan work should not be less than $4,000. And is it not your desire—the desire of every loyal son and daughter of the Church that we shall do more than hold our own—more than keep the fires burning on the altars that were erected when this Diocese was set off from the old Diocese of Missouri thirteen years ago? To most of the missions visited by your Bishop today lead pathways that were trodden by Robertson and Tuttle long ago. There is virgin soil yet to be broken in populous counties where our Church is unknown. There are children of the Church weary and sad because we do not come to them. Some of them are abandoning hope and wandering away to other Communion, where, if they do not find all the Church gives, they find the Word of God and some Christian nurture. Shall we blame them? Shall we not rather blame ourselves to whom they cry in vain for help? Shall we not blame ourselves who give so parsimoniously that the missionary money spread very thin will not cover the field now under our care much less provide men to go into regions where our Liturgy is unknown or where the few who know it have lived so long without the Church that she seems strange to them?

If we are to do our work well this year, every pledge made last year should be renewed and increased twenty-five per cent.

The Missionary Board of the Diocese in the struggle to sustain the ministrations of the Church and to discharge their honorable obligations to their stipendiaries has for want of liberal contributions from the people exhausted its reserve fund and during one anxious period of the past year had no money in the treasury and an overdrawn account at the bank. This, the Diocese should not permit and we appeal to you in the name of the Lord to enable us this year to man every post and to send pioneers into the wilderness that lies in the very heart of the Diocese.

A very little aggressive work has been done during the Conciliar year. Lamar, a post long abandoned, has been visited by Archdeacons Watkins, a congregation gathered, a Church building purchased, furniture put in and at a recent visitation I confirmed thirteen. This mission will be committed to the rector of Nevada, who, by God's blessing, will, we are confident, develop it still more.

In Webb City, another abandoned post, a mission has been revived by the untiring rector of St. Philip's, Joplin, a Church purchased and suitable furniture placed in it. They have a vested choir and regular services. I have been there twice and have enjoyed exceedingly the heartiness of the worship and the enthusiasm of the people. There is in the bank the nucleus of a fund for the purchase of a lot.

Archdeacon Flower is holding regular services at Craig, Albany, Empire Prairie and Stanberry—all new points.

Archdeacon Mackinnon is supplying some of our weaker missions near Kansas City, although the expansion of the work at St. Mark's, Kansas City, demands nearly all his time. In this parish which has caused us so many anxious hours, excellent progress has been made. The lot on which the church stands, and for the use of which they have paid a considerable rental for about fourteen years, has been purchased by the congregation. The church building has been repaired and painted; a window and various articles of church furniture have been presented, the congregation and Sunday School have been nearly doubled. A fine vested choir has been gathered and the outlook for the future is in every regard most hopeful.

Pleasant Hill, one of Archdeacon Mackinnon's missions, shows notably revival and development. It seemed a few years ago to be at its last gasp. But for the fidelity of Mr. John Hollaway and his good wife it would have been entirely abandoned. But now it is growing vigorous again; the congregations are good, they have a vested choir, the Church has been repaired and there is enthusiasm in place of despair.

St. Johns, Kansas City, shoved and buffeted off from the lot where it had camped for eleven years, took its chapel under its arm and climbed the hill to one of the finest sites in the northeast part of Kansas City. It took possession of that site, secured a title to it, duly recorded, that should not again be ordered off, put its chapel down at the rear of the lot and proceeded to lay the foundation of a fine stone building, fronting on Kensington Avenue.

The confidence of this congregation in itself and in the Lord's good will to multiply its small resources is sublime; it awakens our interest and our sympathy. Of course they will succeed. Such faith and self-sacrifice cannot fail. They are determined upon one point, and that is that there shall be no debt upon their property. More than this, with all their eagerness to save money for that Church, they have paid up their dues to the Diocese. No delinquency there! Shall not we who are interested in the growth of the Church in Kansas City have a little share in this good work? Shall we not lend a hand to help them, and to help St. Marks too. Let the strong help the weak! Let this great Church expand with the growth of our great city to gather in our own sons and daughters of who flock to this metropolis from the farms, hamlets and towns of Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Arkansas.

And far away from St. Johns in the growing south of the city, St. Pauls, growing restless in its plain little meeting house, is preparing to make for itself a beautiful home and Church worthy of the Lord whom we worship. Nearly ten thousand dollars they laid upon the altar on Easter Day. They need no financial assistance from their brethren in the Church but we extend them our hearty sympathy and wish them God speed.

We find much encouragement in the determination many of the clergy have expressed to us to rouse their people to pay promptly their Diocesan Assessment and Missionary Pledge. Quite a number of delinquencies have been discharged by parishes that have been laggards. The young clergy are beginning well in this matter, and some of the older clergy who have been negligent are waking up to the shame of a perpetual delinquency.

Our work among the colored people is limited; but Rev. Thomas G. Harper, missionary at St. Augustine's has wise plans for its expansion and for the proper care of funds that may be contributed to it. We trust that timely aid may be given freely. Here is an opportunity at our very doors that we should not neglect. Why cannot each parish in Kansas City and St. Joseph devote the open collection on one Sunday annually to this object?

A layman in one of our smaller congregations desires to give to the Diocese $1,000.00 providing that his parish be hereafter free from assessment. The assessment in this case amounts to six per cent of the gift and I hope the Council may be willing to accept the offer. In my opinion it would be wise to encourage donations of this sort, thus providing for the relief of the parishes and the permanent welfare of the Diocese. It might not be well in all cases to agree that the parish should be entirely exempt from assessment, for some parishes might grow so strong that the Diocese could fairly look to them to bear a larger share of its burdens and should not be forever restrained from the right to do so. But it would be quite safe to agree that the income of the gift should be applied upon the amount assessed against the parish reducing it that much. In the present instance it would seem that the assessment of this particular parish is not likely to increase and that the Diocese would do well to make sure of this permanent income.

I am often asked concerning the general condition of the Diocese. People say to me, "Are you encouraged? Is the work going on well?" I answer, yes. So far as the operations of the Diocese extend I thank God and take courage. We have a body of clergy who will compare favorably with the clergy of any Diocese of about the same size with which I am familiar. Of course we have clergy who belong to different schools, and who hold opposite views on debatable questions, but I have yet to see the Bishop who is at the head of a more harmonious Diocesan family than you will find in West Missouri.

In looking for clergy to fill vacant posts I insist upon what I term the four Ds. I call for men who are devout. That is a prime requisite.. No man can lift his people to a level of devotion higher than his own; no Priest can carry conviction by his preaching unless behind the sermon there is the devout man. No man is fit to stand at God's altar or to minister to souls for whom Christ died unless he has true devotion of spirit. Nothing can take its place. Without it learning is a hollow mockery and activity sham.

But the devout Priest cannot succeed if he is lazy, and to devotion he must add diligence. He must be diligent in season and out of season. By his conscientious energy he must compel opportunity. By his diligent watchfulness he must catch the advantage of every opportunity ere it passes. Diligence implies not superficial activity but hard work, day after day—drudgery.

The third D stands for discretion. The indiscreet Priest tries to drive rather than to lead his people, he hardens their prejudices and the prejudices of those who are without by hard blows instead of dissolving them by patience and love. he chooses injudicious times and methods to reprove what he thinks an offence against the moral code of churchly custom; he offends unwisely those who have been trained under puritanical standards of conduct. He has little tact.

The fourth D stands for dutifulness. The dutiful Priest bears in mind his ordination vows, his duty to the rubrics and canons of the Church, to its creeds and its standards, to his Bishop.

He may wish that some things were ordered differently, he may think that his view of worship or the view of his school is more apostolic, or catholic than that which the Church manifestly enjoins upon him, he may on the other hand think that higher criticism should revise the doctrines of the Church; but whatever his private opinions he dutifully conforms to the faith and the worship of the Church to which he has sworn allegiance. She can trust him.

Men of the four Ds are as I have said, the sort of men I desire to gather in this Diocese and, in the main, we have succeeded. We thank God for these loyal and true men who are bearing the standards of the Church out in our lonely mission fields and into our centers of population.

Under them are growing up congregations of staunch and true Church people who are learning to love the Church because they know what she is, and what she stands for.

We also thank God for the work of the women of the Diocese, especially in the Diocesan branch of the Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. While they do not neglect to send boxes and contributions for the help of those beyond our borders they have made the Bishop's purse a power in our own Diocesan mission field. But for this spring, that well would have run dry during the past year. The Auxiliary has sent to the Purse since the Council of last year, $968.45.

The Church Club is for the Diocese, not for Kansas City only although its members are thus far chiefly from Kansas City. It has had some excellent meetings during the year fully justifying its right to a foremost place among our Diocesan institutions. We commend it to you not only for the good fellowship it encourages, but also for the opportunity it gives to acquire from distinguished speakers broader knowledge of the Church.

The General Board of Missions has made appropriations for the present fiscal year amounting to $633,000.00.

They have apportioned this amount among the Dioceses and Missionary Districts in accordance with resolutions adopted at the last General Convention. This apportionment is not an assessment or a tax. It is the Board's statement to us of what seems to them our fair proportion of the obligations they have decided to assume for the whole Church. They ask this Diocese for $2,125.00, an average of forty-three cents per communicant. This is not a large amount for a communicant to give to assist in carrying out the Lord's command to make disciples of all nations. To comply with it will invite a blessing entirely out of proportion to the self-sacrifice it involves. I am sure the clergy will agree with me that in the discharge of their duty they must bring the matter to the attention of their people and press upon them their individual responsibility for the missionary work of the Church. The fiscal year ending September 1st, 1903, is rapidly drawing to a close. During the summer we can look for meagre contributions, but our Diocese has contributed only $126.35 to May 1st, 1903, toward the $2.125.00 asked. I therefore request the reverend clergy of the Diocese to preach on Missions on Sunday, May 25th, and to take an offering to be forwarded at once to the Treasurer of the Board of General Missions.

During the year I have been most thankful for the privilege of visiting nearly all of our parishes and missions and some of them several times. I have on forty-seven occasions confirmed 319. I have officiated 159 times and delivered 160 sermons and addresses. I have consecrated one Church, ordained two Deacons and one Priest, and celebrated the Holy Communion 28 times.

At the General Convention of 1901 the Bishop of Milwaukee presented a memorial from the Diocese of Milwaukee asking that the official title of the Church be changed from Protestant Episcopal to some other, and suggesting as the new title, "The American Catholic Church in the United States."

The Memorial having been referred to the Committee on Petitions and Memorials, they recommended the preservation of the document as historic, and the appointment of a Joint Committee consisting of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen "to take the whole subject of a change of name of this Church people in general, concerning it and to make report to the next General Convention, with such suggestions as may commend themselves to their judgement."

This was done and the Joint Committee are now endeavoring to ascertain the mind of the Church by asking the Convention or Convocation of each Diocese or Missionary District to inform the Committee "whether it does or does not desire that the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time, and if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor."

You are asked, as you perceive, only for an expression of opinion. As a Council you have no legislative responsibility in this matter.

The question is threefold. Do you desire to throw off the title Protestant Episcopal? Do you think this is the time to do it? If so, what other name do you propose?

Of course it rests with you to decide whether or no you will take this matter up now. With all respect for the very wise and representative Committee I am not quite convinced that we are ready to express our final convictions upon these questions, or that the vote of a Diocesan Council is the best indication of the mind of a Diocese. You may vote now that you desire a change of name and the deputation you send to the General Convention in 1904 may in view of more mature deliberation and the small majority who would carry the resolution to change, vote no; thus our premature expression of opinion may easily lead to inconsistency.

The general question of the change of name does not seem to me so important as its advocates urge. There are other questions of vital importance pressing upon us for a solution and inviting by the claims of duty to action, and I am not inclined to give very much time and thought to this minor question of our name.

Nevertheless it comes before us now with the sanction of the General Convention and it must receive respectful attention.

My own convictions are at present clearly defined but I am open to others if I meet with convincing arguments to persuade me that they are better than my own, and I claim the privilege of changing my position if it seems right to do so when the Convention of 1904 shall legislate upon this question.

We are not asked only to select a name but to throw away first the name under which we have fought our way from weakness to strength, and that is entirely another matter. The name that has been handed down to me through past generations of my family and which was the name of my father may be an ugly name, it may even be a descriptive name which taken literally would ascribe to me certain characteristics foreign to me. But it is my father's name, the name of my ancestors, and as such it is dear to me.

There are many in the present generation of Churchmen who think in this way of the name of the Church. It may not describe the Church entirely; it may not be as satisfactory a name as we might select were we christening an unnamed Church; but it is our name, the name of the Church of our ancestors, and we cannot lightly throw it away.

And as we seldom think of a man's surname as in any sense descriptive of his family although it may be descriptive literally, is not the same true of the name of the Church? How many, except for this agitation, would stop to think what the name of the Church literally signifies?

Such a step should surely not be taken unless very nearly the whole Church in this land should acquiesce. Whatever advantages might be gained by dispensing with our Church's name should not be considered, in view of the danger of dividing the family into hostile camps or of bringing grief to many who could not be reconciled to the change.

This undoubtedly would be the case were a change made now, and this alone would be sufficient to persuade me that, however the Church might possibly grow into the desire for a new name in the future, the time has not yet come and is far distant.

But suppose we should throw off the old name, what shall the new one be? Has any been suggested that would meet all the requirements?

The Memorial from the Diocese of Milwaukee suggests "The American Catholic Church in the United States." Well, I say in the creed that I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church and I say Catholic there with all my heart. I believe in the Church that is designed to include all nations and peoples and kindreds. I believe in the Church that is catholic as holding and teaching the faith once delivered to the saints; but I do not believe that this Church in the United States is more than a portion of the great Catholic Church built upon the apostles and prophets, Christ Himself being the corner stone, and I would not by the name given to this Church give rise to the suspicion that I think it more than a portion of the Catholic Church of the Creeds. Furthermore I believe in the other adjectives in the Creed that describe the Church. I believe just as stoutly as in the catholicity of the Church, that it is one Holy and Apostolic. I should fear that by voting to take one of those adjectives as the name of the Church I would throw discredit upon the others, and especially so, as in one of the many senses in which the word Catholic is used it represents not what is apostolic in doctrine and practice but something of later periods of the Church's history.

And further I believe that the Church is, in the intention of its Divine Founder One, that present divisions are unhappy and that we should strive to bring back the happy days of the one faith, the one baptism, the one family of the Lord.

Now, there is no doubt that in common parlance the word Catholic has among a very large portion of our American people a limited and a distasteful meaning. To adopt that as our name would widen the gulf between us and some millions of people who have the same creed, look for salvation to our Lord Jesus Christ, and are guided by the same Word of God that we believe contains all things necessary to salvation. The proposed change would postpone the time when they and we might draw nearer together, and when they might be willing to receive from us some of the apostolic customs and beliefs that we are holding in trust for them.

Imperfect Churches they may be from our point of view. but in piety, in devotion, in good works, in almsgiving they partake of the apostolic spirit and obey the apostolic precepts. To our own countrymen, to American Christianity we may look more hopefully for a drawing together of the Body of Christ than to Churches that owe allegiance to a foreign head and inherit the customs of foreign lands.

There is something to be said in favor of the name "The American Church" or "The Church in America" but upon reflection one finds that too exclusive and not sustained by our present condition. We may wish that we might be "The American;" but we are not. Besides, the designation "the Church in America" is too indefinite. A bequest left simply to "the Church" might go astray. They might reasonably ask what Church?

But I will not detain you to go over as you have doubtless already done the full list of possible names. One of the arguments against any action now is the failure even of those in favor of a change to agree with any unanimity upon a new name, and the manifest inadequacy of any official title so far suggested.

This Church whose commission we bear is growing in the hearts of the people, the influence it exerts is far greater than that of any other communion of like size, it stands for that which is primitive and apostolic, and the application of the teachings of the Gospel to present needs, where it has free course it builds up character that is strong and broad and Christlike. Whether we be called Churchmen, Episcopalians, or Catholics or even Protestant Episcopalians is not after all the main thing.

Our strength lies in what the Church is and we know that she is holy, catholic, apostolic just as she now is. We need not turn this way or that to make her other than she is for she is we believe what Christ would have her to be, and her commission is to go forward upon the course laid out for her by her Lord.

Sometimes upon one of our great lake steamers one hears a clamor of conflicting orders; the bow of the boat veers now this way and now that way; she backs and she goes forward while bells jangle and the revolving screw churns the water into foam apparently to little purpose. Then from above, the calm, deep voice of the captain calls down to the man at the wheel "steady" and the pilot answers "steady it is, sir," and the gallant ship moves forward straight upon her course.

It seems to some of us that our good ship, the Church, has under our management for a generation or two been veering this way and that, there have been conflicting orders, and uncertainty as to the course she would take. There has been noise and the waters about have been churned into foam.

But have we not learned that the Church's own proper course laid out by her own standards is good, and do we not hear the voice of the great Commander calling down "steady?"

If, as we desire, we would inspire the world without, with confidence in the Church they must be assured that taking passage with us they will be borne to the haven for which they set out and not to some other, and that on the way thither they will have the same guards they sought.

The thanks of the Diocese is due to "the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society" and to the "Bishop White Prayer Book Society" for gifts of Prayer Books and Hymnals, and to various individuals outside the Diocese whose timely gifts acknowledged in detail elsewhere tided the Bishop's Purse over some very trying days.

The Rev. John K. Dunn read the

REPORT

OF THE SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

It may be proper to explain something of the character of this Board, for the benefit of all who do not fully understand it.

The Missionary Board is a body composed of six Clergymen and six Laymen elected annually by the Diocesan Council. It receives and pays out the funds specially contributed for Mission work in our own Diocese, having no connection with any work outside of the Diocese. It is therefore emphatically our Board of Home work and as such entitled to the consideration and support of every member of the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri. The present officers of the Board have attended to the duties of their positions, the Secretary for the last 12 years, and the Treasurer for 13 years, which is practically ever since the founding of the Diocese 14 years ago. No officer or member of the Board receives any compensation for his services, the only expenses being those small sums necessary for postage, stationery and printing. The Missionaries of the Diocese (who are simply those of our own clergy, working at Missionary points), are nominated by the Bishop, and confirmed by the Board, which pays them stipends, so far as it can, according to their necessities, and the importance of their work. No stipend, however, is paid to any idle Minister, and a quarterly report to the Secretary is required in order that he may know that they are actively at work, and the Board may also be informed as to its character. The funds of the Board are thus carefully safeguarded and appropriated where they will be most effective. The Board has so wisely administered its affairs that it has always paid its stipends very promptly, until the past year when there has been, owing to the increase of its work, a little delay in doing so. Let us hope that generous subscriptions and pledges will relieve the Board of any such anxiety or mortification in the future, and enable it to respond to the demands of our growing communities and population.

Four meetings have been held during the year, viz.: May 29, 1902;

Nov. 5, 1902; Feb. 26, 1903, and April 30, 1903. Rev. J. K. Dunn was re-elected Secretary and Mr. H. D. Ashley Treasurer. The attendance at the meetings has been steadily larger than ever before. At its first meeting the Board appointed a special committee to raise $300 in addition to the amount pledged at the last Council. Unfortunately this committee succeeded in raising only $50 additional and at a subsequent meeting it was decided to discontinue the appropriation for the Southern Archdeacony after June 1st, 1903, the Board at the same time sending out circulars and other appeals for funds. The work during the past year has reached some 40 points, either with regular or occasional services by 18 different Missionaries, including the 3 Archdeacons whose reports will give interesting particulars.

The following changes have been made in the list: The Rev. E. T. Demby, of St. Augustine's, Kansas City, removed from the Diocese. Rev. R. R. Diggs', Archdeacon's Assistant, has become Missionary at Independence. Rev. J. de Q. Donehoo, of Marshall, has removed from the Diocese, also Rev. W. P. James, of Brookfield; Rev. A. B. Perry, of Trenton, and Rev. F. P. Smith, of Maryville. The Rev. E. H. Merriman, Archdeacon, assistant has taken charge of Grace Church, Brookfield, the Rev. E. A. Neville, of All Saints Church, Nevada; the Rev. H. L. A. Fick has taken charge of Trinity Church, Marshall; Archdeacon Mackinnon has taken charge of St. Mark's, Kansas City, and the Rev. A. Watkins, of the Archdeaconry of the Southern District, and Rev. T. G. Harper of St. Augustine, Kansas. There are now on the Board's list, including the 3 Archdeacons, 13 Clergymen officiating regularly at 20 different points, in addition to those served by the 3 Archdeacons. Six points which are vacant will probably soon be supplied, making altogether 26 different points supplied by the Board's Missionaries in addition to those visited by the Archdeacons. These will nearly double the number of points served. The total quarterly list as it now is amounts to $962.50 per quarter, or $3,850.00 per annum. In order therefore, merely to hold up the work as it is now, to say nothing of increase, the Board needs nearly $4,000. Shall it not have that amount at least by your pledges and subscriptions? For the Board,

JOHN K. DUNN, Secretary.

May 1, 1903.

On motion of the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith, the reading of the reports of the Archdeacons and Missionary addresses were postponed until to-morrow.

The Rev. J. Stewart-Smith read the

J. STEWART-SMITH, Secretary.

The Secretary called the roll of Parishes and Missions, and pledges were taken for Diocesan Missions to the amount of $2.462.00.

On motion the Council adjourned until 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

SECOND DAY.

Wednesday, 9:30 a. m., May 13, 1903.

Council met pursuant to adjournment. Morning Prayer was said, after which the Minutes of the first day's proceedings were read and approved.

The Committee on Credentials reported favorably to the admission of delegates from St. John's Church, Springfield, and Christ Church, Lexington.

Archdeacon Flower, Chairman, read the report of the Committee on Missions, as follows:

REPORT

OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

It is gratifying to learn from the Bishop's address that the Missions of the Diocese have generally been supplied with services and pastoral care the past year.

Considering the small number of Missionaries spread over a vast field, and the limited means used, we believe that reasonable progress is being made. Your committee note with serious concern the fact reported that several pledges made at the last Annual Council remain unpaid. It is evident from a business point of view, no less than that of honor, that this habit of delinquency on pledges cannot be continued with impunity without crippling the Mission work of the Diocese. There is urgent need of an increase of pledges in order to extend the Church into unoccupied parts of the Diocese, but it is of greater moment that when the Board of Missions make appropriations based upon the gross amount of pledges, it can have a reasonable certainty of receiving all that was promised, and that the payments should be made promptly each quarter.

Your Committee would recommend that a special committee be appointed to report to the next Council, based upon information secured, if some systematic plan of apportionment would be more effective than our present plan.

Respectfully submitted,
E. W. FLOWER,
D. S. MACKINNON,
ALBERT WATKINS,
JOHN R. ATWILL.

The above report was adopted, and the Chair appointed for the committee recommended therein, Archdeacon Flower, the Rev. C. A. Weed and Mr. Jas. C. Horton.

The Rev. T. G. Harper was given the privilege of the floor and made a statement in regard to work among the colored people, and on motion of the Rev. W. T. Allan the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council endorse and commend to the generosity of Church people in general, the appeal now being made by the Bishop of the Diocese and by Advisory Committee who have been appointed by him for the purpose of raising such a sum of money as would be sufficient to erect a Guild Hall and other parochial offices for the expansion and efficient organization of the work of the Church among the colored people of Kansas City.

The Rev. T. B. Foster, Chairman, read the

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

1. The resolution, offered by Mr. H. L. Harman, to amend Art. XV. by adding a "Section 2," empowering the Council "to forever release a Parish or Mission from assessments for the necessary expenses of the Diocese. Upon payment of a sum of money to be fixed by the council," seems to your Committee unwise. We recommend that it be not adopted.

II. The Committee have had referred to them the offer of Mr. Joseph F. Smith, of Lexington, and would report the following resolution which they recommend for adoption by this Council:

Resolved, That the proposition of Judge Joseph F. Smith, of May 2, 1903, offering to donate one thousand dollars to the support of the Episcopate, be and hereby is accepted, with the following regulations governing said acceptance, to-wit: Said one thousand dollars shall be permanently invested by the Trustees of the Fund for the Permanent Support of the Episcopate of this Diocese, and the interest from such investment shall be perpetually accepted as full payment for the annual assessment to be made by this Council against Christ Church, Lexington.

III. The resolution, offered by the Rev. W. S. Trowbridge, to amend the Title and Art. I of the Constitution, by substituting "Kansas City" for "West Missouri," is unanimously recommended for adoption. Your Committee would respectfully submit the following among the reasons that may be offered for the change proposed.

(a) It is in accordance with all precedent of the "One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church of Christ"—to which, in the language of Art. II of our Constitution, "this Church acknowledges its allegiance to be due"—that a Diocese should be known by the name of its principal city, and not by the name of the geographical or political area embraced in its jurisdiction.

Anciently there were no exceptions to this rule; only in modern times, on this continent and by the Churches of our own Communion, has there been any departure from this time-honored precedent, which departure was due to the conditions of a new and sparsely-settled country, and to the desire of our forefathers to conform the Church in her Dioceses as far as possible to the names and territorial limits of the original thirteen states. With the growth of the Church and the multiplication of Dioceses by the process of sub-division, the task of finding suitable names has been anything but an easy matter as long as the name of the state was regarded as a necessary part of the new title. In 1865 the Church in Western Pennsylvania determined to call herself the "Diocese of Pittsburg," and three years later the churchman in Northeastern New York, seeing the absurdity of such a cumbersome title of four words, followed the example of their Pennsylvania brethren and named their Diocese "Albany." The inevitable sub-division of the Dioceses of Central and Western New York will result before long in new Dioceses bearing the names of Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Utica. In fact, the tendency to revert to the ancient custom, sanctioned by centuries of usage in the mother country, is growing more pronounced every day. Curiosities like "Niobara" and "The Platte" are things of the past. The House of Bishops rejected such terms as "Western North Carolina" and "Eastern Minnesota" and "Western Kansas" in creating the Missionary Districts of Asheville, Duluth and Salina. The division of Maryland, begun when the Diocese of Easton was created, and continued when the Diocese of Washington was set off, will demand in time a "Diocese of Baltimore." The old Missionary district of the State of Washington is no more, and in place of it we have, not "Western" and "Eastern Washington" but, "Olympia" and "Spokane." "Northern California" has become "Sacramento," and the new Diocese in the southern part of that state naturally calls itself "Los Angeles." No less than seventeen Dioceses and ten Missionary districts have thus conformed to ancient precedent; some, from a virtual necessity, others of free choice. The tendency in this matter of nomenclature is clearly in the direction of reversion to type. So much for general principles.

(b) The particular case with which we have to deal calls for little comment. The preeminence of this city is conceded, and its relative importance as compared with the rest of the Diocese is likely to increase rather than to diminish with the lapse of time. It is now the see city, but nothing in our present Diocesan name gives any hint of that important fact. We believe that Churchmen everywhere in the Diocese are as much concerned as the Churchmen of Kansas City to adopt the proposed change, which will identify them and their interests in the mind of the Church at large with the Gate City of the great Southwest.

IV. The resolution, offered by the Rev. R. A. Saunders, proposing the merging of the Aged and Disabled Clergy Fund of this Diocese in the General Clergy Relief Fund, in the judgment of the Committee should receive more careful consideration than is possible at this Council. We therefore recommend that the Council appoint one of our number as a committee to correspond with the Secretary of the General Clergy Relief Fund for information on the proposition, and we recommend, further, that the Rev. Charles A. Weed be constituted as said committee.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE B. FOSTER,

ROBERT TALBOT,

CHARLES A. WEED,

R. B. MIDDLEBROOK,

JAMES C. HORTON,

Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The above report was accepted and adopted by a vote on the several propositions thereof. The hour of 10 o'clock having arrived, the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith read the

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The Committee on Christian Education, to whom was referred the resolution offered by Mr. R. B. Middlebrook, respectfully reports:

That the General Convention having appointed a committee "On the Name of the Church," and that said Committee, in an effort to discharge the duty laid upon them, has requested each Diocese and Missionary District to express their wishes on the subject, prior to October 1st, 1903, in order to enable them to arrive at some conclusion as to the mind of the Church, it is but right and courteous that this Council should respond.

Your Committee therefore recommends the passage of the following resolutions:

I. Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of West Missouri desires that the name, "the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America" be changed at this time.

II. Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of West Missouri requests that the name: "American Catholic Church" be adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

J. STEWART-SMITH,

WALTER S. TROWBRIDGE,

Committee on Christian Education.

On motion, the second of the above resolutions was amended by striking out the words "requests the name American Catholic Church be adopted," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "that each member of the Council, on a vote by orders, express his choice of name, in case a change is made."

The vote was then taken by orders, and resolution I. (in regard to change of name) was adopted as follows: Clerical vote, yeas, 13; nays, 7. Lay vote, yeas, 15; nays, 12.

On resolution II. (as to preference of name, in case of change,) the vote was as follows:

	Clerical Vote.	Lay Vote.
For the American Catholic Church.....	9	11
American Church	6	4
Episcopal Church.	2	7
Protestant Episcopal Church.....	0	1
Church in the United States of America.	3	3

On motion of Mr. H. D. Ashley the missionary meeting of last evening was resumed.

Archdeacon Flower read his report.

REPORT

OF ARCHDEACON FLOWER.

THE RT. REV. E. R. ATWILL, D. D.,

Bishop of West Missouri.

DEAR BISHOP:—I have the honor to report that during the year ending April 30, 1903, I have held services at Savannah on Sundays and other days 77 times, together with such pastoral visitations as circumstances required.

At St. Oswald, 43 services; Albany, 13; Empire Prairie, 13; Craig, 22, Milan, 10; Amazonia, 12; Plattsburg, 6; Stanberry, 1; other places, 9. Total, 207. I have also visited and searched for Church people in several towns, viz.: Princeton, Forest City, Linneus, LaClede, Darlington, Ford City, Pattonsburg, Green City, Unionville, Barnard, Rosendale, Bolkslow, Maitland, Biglow, Mound City, Union Star, King City, Altamont, Grant City and Osborn. Here and there I have discovered one or two Church people in many of these places, have made a record of them, ministered to them as occasion offered, and from time to time have sent them letters and Church literature to keep them in mind.

In some places I have been unable to find any one having ever heard that there was such a Church. The field is extensive, the populations generally indisposed to listen to any religion claiming ancient foundation, and Divine authority, while our own people in these communities in many instances are apathetic and hopeless, and there are many adversaries.

I have endeavored to do the work you set for me to the best of my ability with faith and prayer, and sadly regret that the results do not show to greater advantage.

It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a new Cassock and Surplice from the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's auxiliary, also a beautiful set of altar linen from St. George's Branch.

Services have been kept up at the following places: St. Mark's, Kansas City, Pleasant Hill, and Lee's Summit every Sunday. At Carrollton one Sunday each month and week day service. Richmond twice a month. At Hamilton, Utica, Breckenridge, Blackburn, Sweet Springs, Higginsville, Brunswick and Weston about once a month. I have also visited Platte City, Holden and Lathrop. Ten days' mission has been held at Carrollton. At St. Mark's, Kansas City, great progress has been made these past few months.

The lot on which the building stands has been purchased. The building improved, painted inside and out, granitoid walks laid. A number of memorials have been placed in the Church, such as a chancel window, communion service, processional cross, candlesticks, vases, altar book desk, alms bason.

There are now 116 Communicants in this parish. Active working societies, and a fine Sunday School, numbering 78.

At Carrollton improvements have been made in the building, which adds much to its appearance.

At Pleasant Hill, the work is most encouraging. The interior of the building has been refitted; vested choir organized and a growing congregation.

It is expected that before the next Council, Pleasant Hill and Lee's Summit will be joined under a missionary.. On the whole the work is most encouraging, and a splendid opportunity awaits the Church in this Diocese.

The mission field is greatly in need of more frequent services, and to do this, we must have more missionaries added to our forces. I have been assisted part of the time by efficient labor of the Rev. R. R. Diggs and the Rev. Erle H. Merriman.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL G. MACKINNON,
Archdeacon of Central Archdeaconry.

(Note by the Secretary.—Some of the above pledges were taken after adjournment, and are included here for the sake of convenience.)

The Bishop announced that he had appointed Sunday, May 24, as Missionary Sunday, for offerings for General Missions.

Mr. C. L. Holland, business manager of the Diocesan Messenger, made a statement asking for co-operation in support of the paper, and the Rev. W. T. Allan moved that a committee of three be appointed to confer with Mr. Holland and report to this Council. Motion adopted, and the Chair appointed as such committee, the Revs. T. B. Foster, R. Talbot and P. B. Eversden.

The Rev. T. B. Foster, Chairman of the above committee, presented the following report:

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of the Diocese Messenger, recommends the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Council elect six priests of the Diocese, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute the Editorial Board.

Resolved, That this Council recommends that each clergyman officiating in the Diocese shall do everything in his power to support the paper by contributing to its news columns at least one in three months, and by urging upon his people the duty of subscribing.

The Committee would add that the publisher who has assumed the financial risks involved in the publication of the Messenger; is ready to make liberal rates to clubs of subscribers, and that in the judgment of this Committee, the members of the Council (if they vote to pass the annexed resolutions) are in duty bound to co-operate with the editors and publishers in making the paper a success and credit to the Diocese.

For the Committee,

THEO. B. FOSTER.

The above report was accepted and adopted, and the Council elected the following as the Editorial Board: The Revs. T. B. Foster, R. Talbot, J. Stewart-Smith, E. B. Woodruff, P. B. Eversden, and D. G. Mackinnon.

The Rev. P. B. Eversden read the

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee report that there is cause for thankfulness to Almighty God for the measure of progress made during the past year. The work of the Archdeacons in re-opening many churches and reinvigorating many lonely, scattered congregations, is especially commended, and we trust that sufficient funds will be pledged to support the archdeaconry work of the Southern Convocation. The Diocese is also to be congratulated upon the accession to its Clergy list, of a number of able and fully equipped priests. The Committee desires to impress upon the Delegates to this Council, the importance of paying their assessments and mission pledges quarterly. In this connection, your Committee would suggest that larger pledges might be obtained at the Council if Parishes and Missions were properly canvassed previously, and Delegates attended, authorized to pledge personally in behalf of individuals not present.

The Committee also desire to call the attention of the Council to the work of St. Luke's Hospital, a church institution which has been operating in Kansas City for the past six months and has proved a valuable missionary agency in church work.

P. B. EVERSDEN,
GEO. L. NEIDE,
R. A. SAUNDERS,
Committee.

Mr. S. W. Kniffin read the

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

The Committee on Sunday School work respectfully submits the following report:

Two meetings of the Sunday School Institute were held during the past year, one at Carthage, Mo., in January, 1903, and one at Grace Church in Kansas City on Monday, May 11, 1903. At the latter, several good papers were read and discussed. The paper on "Missionary Army," aroused the enthusiasm of those present at the Institute and a resolution was passed, without a dissenting vote, to the effect that the idea of the "Missionary Army," viz. that of enlisting the children of our Sunday Schools in the work of Diocesan Missions be brought to the notice of Rectors and Missionaries throughout the Diocese, and that a committee for this purpose be appointed. The committee would commend this idea to the attention of the Diocese. During the discussion, it developed that one of the greatest hindrances to success in Sunday School work was lack of interest on the part of older people in our parishes and missions; hence your committee would earnestly urge that parents and guardians lend encouragement and strength to officers and teachers of Sunday Schools by taking a great interest in the work themselves by seeing that the children look upon their religious education as fully important a thing as their secular education.

E. B. WOODRUFF,
F. A. McELWAIN,
S. W. KNIFFIN,
Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Winchester, upon request, addressed the Council, and on motion of the Rev. W. T. Allan it was

On motion of the Rev. R. Talbot it was resolved that

The Council sends affectionate greeting to the Rev. J. W. Dunn with prayers for his early recovery.

The rules of order were suspended and the following Standing Committee of the Diocese elected: Clerical members—The Revs. R. Talbot, J. Stewart-Smith, T. B. Foster. Lay members—G. Lathrop, B. E. Fryer, C. A. Kelly. Mr. Wallace Pratt was elected Chancellor and the Rev. J. K. Dunn Registrar of the Diocese for the term ending May, 1906. Mr. W. B. Clarke was elected Treasurer of the Diocese.

On motion of Mr. James C. Horton, it was resolved

The Treasurer of the Diocese is hereby empowered to borrow, not to exceed $2,000, if necessary, to make up any deficiency of Diocesan assessments.

On motion of Mr. M. G. Harman the Secretary was instructed to print 600 copies of the Journal.

The Rev. J. Stewart-Smith and Mr. Chas. A. Kelly were elected delegates to the Missionary Council.

On motion of Mr. C. A. Kelly it was Resolved, That this Council as a body, both clergy and laymen, extend to the Rector, Vestry and ladies of Grace Church, Kansas City, their thanks as well as congratulations on the delightful manner in which they have entertained the Council.

On motion of Mr. E. C. Hamill it was Resolved, That this Council desires to remind the people of the Church of the advisability of remembering the different funds of the Diocese in their wills.

On motion of Mr. M. G. Harman, the Registrar was instructed to have 6 files of the Journal bound, and on motion of Mr. D. H. Smith, to send one copy to the Public Library at Sedalia, and on motion of Mr. J. E. Cobb, to send one copy to the Public Library at Joplin.

The following Diocesan Missionary Board was elected: Clerical members—The Revs. R. Talbot, J. Stewart-Smith, D. G. Mackinnon, J. D. La Mothe, P. B. Eversden, J. K. Dunn. Lay members—G. Lathrop, James C. Horton, R. B. Middlebrook, C. H. Nearing, C. A. Kelly, H. D. Ashley.

On motion it was resolved that the next annual Council be held in St. George's Church, Kansas City.

On motion of Mr. H. D. Ashley it was Resolved, That the Archdeacons and Missionaries of the Diocese be requested to send accounts of their work to the Diocesan Messenger and the Board of Editors be requested to give space to such communications.

APPENDIX NO. 3.

AUDITING REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

KANSAS CITY, MO., June 24th, 1903.

To the Rt. Rev. E. R. Atwill, D. D.,
Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Committee on Finance appointed at the last Diocesan Council respectfully reports as follows:

I.

The Committee has examined the report, accounts and vouchers of Mr. W. B. Clarke, Treasurer of the Diocese, and finds them correct.

On May 12, 1903, the date of his report, said Treasurer had in his hands a cash balance of $1,496.54, which was made up of the following sums:

Balance to credit of General Fund	$ 250.66
" " " " Theological Education Fund	14.90
" " " " Disabled Clergy Fund	1,230.98

Total $1,496.54

The receipts of the Treasurer from the various parishes and missions in the Diocese the Committee assumes to be correct as stated in the Treasurer's report to the Diocesan Council, and they can be verified by reference to the parochial reports.

The Treasurer also exhibited notes and trust deeds belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund as follows:

Loan to F. G. Smith, drawing 8% interest	$ 850.00
Loan to A. A. Tomlinson, drawing 6% interest	2,800.00

Said loans appear to be secured by deeds of trust which are first liens on real estate, and there is no interest in default except $68 on the F. G. Smith loan, which was due April 26, 1903.

II.

The real estate belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund consists of the west half (½) of Lot five (5), Block two (2), Western Highlands, Kansas City, Kansas.

III.

The treasurer also exhibited a note and deed of trust belonging to the trustees of the Theological Education Fund securing a loan to A. A. Tomlinson of $1,200 at 6% per annum. This is secured by a deed of trust which is a first lien on real estate.

IV.

The Committee also examined the report and accounts of Mr. C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer of the Permanent Episcopal Fund and found the same to be correct. Said report is dated May 12, 1903, and at that date the cash balance in the hands of C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer was $5,583.23, which is deposited in the Union National Bank, Kansas City, Mo., and drawing interest. The Treasurer reports that he has received no further dividends on claim against the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings Bank, now in the hands of a receiver.

V.

The Committee also examined the report, accounts and vouchers of Mr. Henry D. Ashley, Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Board, and found the same to be correct. Said report is dated May 12, 1903, and at that date the cash balance in the hands of said Treasurer was $869.94.

The note for $1,600 given by George Eberle has been paid. The Treasurer has the money in hand. As this is known as the Bishop Robertson Memorial Fund, principal cannot be used and will be re-invested.

VI.

Your Committee would recomend that Mrs. Smith's request, addressed to Mr. W. B. Clarke, Treasurer, asking that the interest on the Smith loan be reduced from 8% to 6% be granted. Provided all interest and taxes are paid, and the note properly extended for a term of three or five years.

JAMES W. GARNER.

M. G. HARMAN.

Committee on Finance.

APPENDIX NO. 4.

REPORT OF SAINT LUKE'S HOSPITAL.

To visit the sick is a divine commandment.

The diocese has in Saint Luke's Hospital the nucleus around which a great and good work can be built up, and to that end the council granted permission for this report to be inserted in the Journal:

Condensed report of St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City, Missouri, from October 1902 to April 1903.

Number of Patients, (clinic free)	588
Number of Patients (hospital, in bed)	97
Number of Deaths	1
*Referred to other Hospitals	22
Received from Patients	$757.19
Received from Subscriptions	502.10

Received donations of clothing, linen, sewing, etc., from more than forty (40) individuals and guilds.

About fifty Physicians and surgeons of Kansas City and vicinity have attended and visited at the hospital during the past six months.

The bequest of the late Sanford G. Sponable amounting to over $7,000 will be paid to the proper authorities in the near future.

St. Luke's Hospital located in the see city, can only be made a great Diocesan Hospital, by the co-operation of all the parishes in the Diocese of West Missouri. It is the earnest prayer of the hospital management that a St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary Guild be formed in each parish by the election of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and the adoption of such by-laws as each guild may deem suitable.

For fuller information address,

M. G. HARMAN,

Secretary St. Luke's Hospital Association,

200 Arlington Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

*These were patients who were able and willing to pay for better accommodations than we could furnish them without crowding out Charity work.

APPENDIX NO. 4.

AUDITING REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

KANSAS CITY, MO., June 17, 1902.

*To the Rt. Rev. E. R. Atwill, D. D.,
Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri.*

The Committee on Finance appointed at the last Diocesan Council respectfully reports as follows :

I.

The Committee has examined the report, accounts and vouchers of Mr. W. B. Clarke, Treasurer of the Diocese, and finds them correct.

On May 13, 1902, the date of his report, said Treasurer had in his hands a cash balance of $1,372.25, which was made up of the following sums :

Balance to credit of General Fund	$ 119.20
“ “ “ “ Theological Education Fund	33.40
“ “ “ “ Disabled Clergy Fund	1,219.65
Total	$1,372.25

The receipts of the Treasurer from the various parishes and missions in the Diocese the Committee assumes to be correct as stated in the Treasurer's report to the Diocesan Council, and they can be verified by reference to the parochial reports.

The Treasurer also exhibited notes and trust deeds belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund as follows :

Loan to F. G. Smith, drawing 8% interest,	$ 850.00
Loan to A. A. Tomlinson, drawing 6% interest	2,800.00

Said loans appear to be secured by deeds of trust which are first liens on real estate, and there is no interest in default except $34 on the F. G. Smith loan, which was due April 26, 1902.

II.

The real estate belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund consists of the west half (½) of lot five (5), block two (2), Western Highlands, Kansas City, Kas.

III.

The Treasurer also exhibited a note and deed of trust belonging to the trustees of the Theological Education Fund securing a loan to A. A. Tomlinson of $1,200 at 6% per annum. This is secured by a deed of trust which is a first lean on real estate.

IV.

The Committee also examined the report and accounts of Mr. C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer of the Permanent Episcopal Fund, and found the same to be correct. Said report is dated May 13, 1902, and at that date the cash balance in the hands of C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer, was $5,202.92, which is deposited in the Union National Bank, Kansas City, Mo., and drawing interest. The Treasurer reports that he has received no further dividends on claim against the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings Bank, now in the hands of a receiver. The Rev. E. W. Flower read the following report, which, on motion, was accepted, and the committee discharged:

Your committee to which was referred the matter of a suggested change in the method of raising funds for Diocesan Missions, respectfully report, that having made due inquiry in some of the Dioceses which have adopted the apportionment plan (except it may be in the Diocese of Albany), we do not discover the advantage gained to be sufficient as to warrant us in making any recommendation to change from our present voluntary method.

E. W. FLOWER,
CHAS. A. WEED,
JAMES C. HORTON,

Committee.

Mr. M. G. Harman presented the following, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons:

Whereas, The following was submitted to and approved by the tenth Annual Council, to be known as Section 2 of Article XV of the Constitution of the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri, viz.: The Council shall have power to forever release a Parish or Mission from assessments for the necessary expenses of the Diocese upon the payment of a sum of money, the amount of which is to be fixed by the Council, into the Permanent Episcopal Fund. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the said amendment be and is hereby approved and ratified by this Council.

The Bishop acknowledged the gift of a set of Episcopal robes in feeling and appropriate terms.

The hour of 3 o'clock having arrived, the Bishop then delivered his annual address.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

TO THE COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST MISSOURI,

MAY 17, 1904.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Assembling for our Fifteenth Annual Council in the octave of Ascension, we recall the words of our blessed Lord to His Apostles when He was about to depart from them into Heaven, "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you and ye shall be witnesses unto me unto the uttermost part of the earth." Here is the strength, and here is the mission of the Church of God. We are strong if we have abundantly the Holy Spirit of the Lord. We, who have received the laying on of hands in Confirmation, have been blessed with an especial gift of the Holy Spirit to enable us to know, and to do, all that a Christian ought to know and to do; we, who have Holy Orders in the Church of God, have received the Holy Spirit for the office and work of the Priest or Bishop. In the preaching of the Word, in the administering of the Sacraments, and in all the efforts made for the reconciling of the world to God, our strength is in the power of the Holy Spirit, who came when Christ departed, to teach, to guide, to comfort, and to save souls by the operations of the human ministry whom Christ also sent.

For what then shall a Council of the Church deliberate, legislate, and plan the work of the Diocese, but to put away whatever hinders the effective operations of the Holy Ghost, to invite His presence, and to do His will? In whatever we undertake, we should be able to say "It seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us."

And as we plan, as we legislate, we should ever bear in mind that in our day and generation we are bound to bear our part of the work of witnessing for Christ unto the ends of the earth.

Our considerations reach out beyond ourselves; we dare not restrict them to those things which relate only to our own salvation. As a detachment of the great army of the Lord, we may not content ourselves with burnishing our own weapons, embellishing our own banners, and seeking our own ease, or safety. We may not rest content with past achievements, nor with present success. So long as there is a single soul in our cities that the Church has not reached, so long as there are rural neighborhoods where the Church is not known, so long as there are races in foreign lands who do not know the way of God, or know it imperfectly, there is work for us to do that should engage our earnest attention, and enlist us in vigorous effort.

Let thoughts, such as these, dignify, spiritualize, and sanctify our work, and let us try to plan here a forward movement that shall cause every congregation to thrill with new life, and carry our missionary operations far afield.

I now proceed to lay before you, as required by the Canons, the record of official acts for the past conciliar year, and am most thankful that it has been my privilege to visit, with few exceptions, all the Parishes and Missions, a large number of them twice, and, where it seemed necessary, three times, or more.

The little stone church across the street stands as a monument to the many faithful years of service of this servant of God whose infirmities keep him at home; but he gazes lovingly from the window and his prayers bring a richer blessing to the congregation who enter.

The Archdeacon and I officiated afterwards in the church and I preached.

Winner.

CHANGES IN THE CLERGY LIST.

Seven clergy have been transferred to other Dioceses: Rev. G. Heathcote Hills to the Diocese of Georgia, Rev. William Temple Allan to the Diocese of Mississippi, Rev. George H. Bailey to the Diocese of Iowa, Rev. Franklin C. Smith to the Diocese of Iowa, Rev. Albert Watkins to the Diocese of Kansas, Rev. L. R. F. Davis to the Diocese of Kansas, Rev. Claude E. Remick to the Diocese of Missouri.

Rev. Lorin T. Minturn, a venerable Deacon, ordained January 18, 1883, was summoned to his well-earned rest on Saturday last. His faithful ministrations in Amazonia have brought blessings to many souls, and the little stone Church stands as the memorial of his devoted and patient toil.

(One Priest of the Diocese, Rev. Percy B. Eversden, has been deposed.

Two venerable Priests of the Diocese have, after long and faithful ministry, been called to their rest and reward.

Rev. John W. Dunn was a link connecting the present with the Episcopate of Bishop Hawkes, by whom he was made a Deacon on June 27, 1847. Mr. Dunn had been quite successful in raising money for the erection of churches. His whole ministry had been devoted to the work of the Lord in this State, and no man was more consecrated to his profession than was he.

Rev. John L. Gay died at St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., on March 22, 1904, aged ninety-four years, six months, and one day. At the time of his death, he was the oldest Priest in the American Church, and probably in the Anglican Communion. He was a gentleman of what is now called "the old school," although we are at a loss to know why the dignity, affability, and courtesy that were characteristic of that school, should be counted as things of the past. They are surely worthy of imitation to day. Mr. Gay had for several years retired from the duties of a parish Priest, but it was his delight to officiate when opportunity offered, and his active mind kept him ever in touch with the progress of the Church, and its aims under the inspiration of younger men.

The clergy received into the Diocese, and to whom we extend a hearty welcome, are Rev. Charles T. Coerr, from the Diocese of Connecticut; Rev. James H. Barnard, from the Diocese of Central New York; Rev. John Wilkinson, from the Diocese of Quincy; Rev. Edmund A. Neville, recently transferred from the Diocese of Mississippi (although at work with us for several years); Rev. Joseph A. Brown, from the Diocese of Los Angeles, and Rev. William H. Haupt, who, although not yet canonically resident, is entering upon a pastorate at Clinton that promises most gratifying success.

The only other changes among the clergy are the resignation of All Saints, Nevada, by Rev. Edmund A. Neville, and his acceptance of the rectorate of Calvary, Sedalia; and the withdrawal of Rev. Robert A. Saunders, formerly Missionary at Lebanon, from the active work of the Ministry on account of impaired health.

Doctor Reuben Barney, who was called to his reward since our Council of 1903, was for a long time Senior Warden of Grace Church, Chillicothe, and a delegate to our Diocesan Council. He came of sturdy Vermont ancestry, attained notable success in his profession, a churchman staunch and true, a public spirited citizen and a man respected for his integrity.

Mr. George W. Lee was stricken with fatal illness during the Council of 1903 and soon after died. He was a devoted Christian, a lover of the things that make for peace and a useful Churchman, respected by all and loved by those who knew him well.

Several of our notable Bishops have died during the year past:

The Right Thomas March Clark, D. D., L.L. D., Bishop of Rhode Island and Presiding Bishop, died September 7, 1903, aged 91 years—full of years and full of honors. He was in his prime the humorist of the House of Bishops and doubtless his appreciation of the humorous side of life delayed the depression and decrepitude of accumulating years; but he possessed withal a virile mind; he was a master of classic English and a preacher of rare power. His faith and spirituality enter into the couplets he wrote the year before he was called to take the last voyage.

“My work on earth is well nigh done
I wait the setting of the sun.

I hear the surging of the sea
That beats upon Eternity.

I see far off the shadowy realm
And thither turn the trembling helm.

The winds that blow so cold and drear
Grow softer as the end draws near.

There stand upon the misty shore
Faint forms of loved ones gone before.

The voice that once said “Peace be still,”
Now whispers softly “Fear no ill.”

The Right Rev. Thomas Alfred Starkey died May 18, 1903, aged 85 years. He also was a faithful and respected Bishop. His temperament, naturally impulsive, was balanced by his good sense and devotion to duty.

The Right Rev. Thomas Underwood Dudley, D. D., L.L. D., D. C. L., Bishop of Kentucky, Chairman of the House of Bishops, and Assessor to the Presiding Bishop, died last winter. Like the Presiding Bishop he combined with rare devotion of spirit a happy sense of humor and comradeship that won for him universal popularity and friendship. He was devoted to the cause of Missions and was the champion of work among the colored people.

The Right Rev. James Addison Ingle, elected during the General Convention of 1901 Bishop of Hankow, was called to his reward after a brief Episcopate. Perhaps the best index of his life is the cablegram announcing his death: “Ingle, fervently praying for all, died with fever peacefully, Monday.”

The death of Right Rev. Abiel Leonard, D. D., comes home to us who are Missourians, for he was one of us and his friends here are many. I need not dwell here upon his hearty, companionable ways, his unfailing cheerfulness and optimism under trials and burdens, his wise administration of a difficult field and his large-hearted sympathy with every movement tending to the extension and strengthening of the Church.

We have, indeed, lost men whose wise and statesmanlike leadership seems now especially needed.

“May we with zeal like theirs inspired Strive onward in the race.”

THE DIOCESE.

In reviewing the year past I note with pleasure that the clergy and those responsible for vacant points have almost entirely corrected the bad habit into which some had drifted of requesting the postponement of visitation, often for trivial reasons.

The appointments of the Bishop are made very deliberately and carefully with a view to the accomplishment of the greatest amount of work possible, in a given time in the whole field, and the reservation of certain periods for the equally essential work of the office. Changes, after the list of appointments have been prepared, are not only an inconvenience, but a hindrance, and it is better to accept the appointment at the time named, even though portions of the choir may be visiting elsewhere, or Mrs. Van Benscoten, who was to entertain the Bishop, is cleaning house, or the clergyman has not found time, in three months or more, to ascertain whether or no he has a class. In cases of actual necessity the Bishop is always willing to make a second visitation for Confirmation; but the observance of the original appointment insures at least one visitation during the year.

Of course, under our General Canon, as I suppose is sufficiently well understood, the Bishop has only to give at least a month's notice of his intention to make the visitation, and it is the duty of those in charge to be ready for him.

All Saints, Nevada, besides relinquishing $100.00 from its Missionary Stipend, is entirely out of debt, has paid promptly its assessment and Missionary pledge, has had thirty-three confirmed during the conciliar year, has presented three postulants for Holy Orders, two of whom recently Methodist ministers, have been accepted as Candidates, and another Candidate for Holy Orders from the same parish, is about to be made Deacon. They have also paid their apportionment for General Missions.

At Trinity, Lebanon (again we are thankful to say under that faithful Priest, Rev. John Wilkinson), although there are only about forty Communicants, the Easter Offerings were sixty dollars, and every cent of the offerings were given to Missions. Their Missionary Pledge, Missionary Apportionment are all paid in full, and they have given during the year to the Bishop's Purse thirty-two dollars and forty-five cents. There is a worthy example.

St. Marks, Kansas City, for some years a desolate waste watched over by a few faithful souls, who wept as those who wail at the walls of Jerusalem, is now a green spot in the course of the annual visitations. They have paid their Apportionment for General Missions, and their Pledge for Diocesan Missions, giving in all for Missions during the year, $182.20. They have also paid their Assessment and it would not be a surprise to me should they go on record this year as the only Parish that has ever asked to have its Assessment increased.

Christ Church, St. Joseph, besides keeping up its yearly record of good works, has paid its Apportionment for General Missions—the largest in the Diocese.

St. Johns, Kansas City, has paid promptly, and quarterly, its Assessment and Missionary Pledge. It was also the first in the Diocese to pay its Apportionment for General Missions.

The Rector of St. George's, Kansas City, and the Rector of Christ Church, Boonville, have taken every Canonical Collection at the time prescribed by the Canon, and also the Advent Offerings, and the Epiphany Offerings requested by the Board of Missions.

In Grace Church, Carthage; St. Phillips, Joplin, and Christ Church, Boonville, the year has been notable, because of decided advance in parochial accomplishments, and missionary activity.

The congregation of St. Johns, Springfield, has completed a commodious, neat, and convenient rectory. There is a small debt upon it, but not enough to be a serious burden. A rectory is a most desirable adjunct to a Parish. I wish that all our congregation would set out to build, or buy them, and then I wish that some provision might be made forever restraining the Vestries from renting those rectories to eke out the Rector's salary. It is so much easier to say "we will rent the rectory, and apply the proceeds upon Parish expenses, than it is to go out and do some strenuous work raising the money, that a Vestry now and then yield to the temptation." But they should set their faces against it. It is no sign of progress, but rather an indication of incompetence.

Several matters of general interest are brought to our attention at this time:

The International Sunday Rest Congress will meet in St. Louis, October 11, 12, 13, and 14. The aim of this Congress is "to promote among all classes such a true understanding of the value of the Lord's Day to themselves, and to the State, as will lead them to resist whatever deprives them of it, and to sustain the just laws which protect their right to it."

The Organizing Committee invite our sympathy and co-operation, and request that we send two official delegates to sit as members of that Congress. Our own Bishop Tuttle, Archbishop Glennon, and others well known to you, are on the local Committee of Arrangements.

The aim of the Congress to promote the reverent observance of the Lord's Day is one that must engage the attention of every one who has at heart the interests of the Kingdom of God. Neglect and desecration of God's Holy Day are crying evils of our time, resulting in the decline of true religion, the neglect of public worship, and in manifold evils to the State and the family. If it should seem to you that this Congress will be useful in bringing about reformation of the evils we deplore, I trust that you will elect two delegates who will attend the sessions.

The first Conference of the Sixth Missionary District meeting in this place last winter was so successful and stimulating that those who were present determined to hold similar meetings annually.

The second Conference will meet in the City of Omaha, January, 1905.

You are requested to elect five clerical and five lay delegates, and the resolution passed at the Conference last winter urges especially the election of such delegates as may reasonably expect to attend. This request will, I trust, meet with your approval. We should send a strong delegation to fairly represent the Diocese, and to assist in making the work of the Conference successful.

A communication comes to us from the Fifty-fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of California, requesting us to join with them in petitioning the General Convention to take such action as may be necessary to permit the use of the Revised Version in the lessons in morning and evening prayer. The Council will take such action upon this request as may seem wise to them. For my own part, I do not think the time has come for any further liberty than we now have. The Marginal Readings Bible, authorized by the General Convention of 1901, was, as the Committee said in their report, set forth as a wise substitute for an entire revised version, "not only in preserving the familiar words and phrases hallowed by long association, but also in that it does not commit the Church prematurely to a decision on critical or linguistic questions, which must for their satisfactory solution, require longer time and wider research."

Why not rest content until we have a revised version that is, so far as modern scholarship can make it, absolutely correct, and that at the same time preserves the tone and rhythm of that wonderful Version known as King James's? We have now several revised versions. That to which we assume the California petition refers is marred by hundreds of needless changes, many of them trivial, and was condemned by a committee of the House of Deputies in 1892, who said "The few instances where the original has been put in a more exact English equivalent are outweighed by innumerable passages which obscure the sense and offend the ear by verbal inaptitudes."

Our work in the mission field of the Diocese is constantly retarded by the stampede of congregations who move on to regions whither they are invited by cheap farms, or the hope of fortunes in oil or minerals, or who go to new camping places because they have contracted the restless habit so common in the West. And so it comes to pass that frequently a congregation, upon whose work we have expended time, labor, and money, loses suddenly half or three-quarters of its numerical and financial strength, and the mission that we hoped to make in a few years self-supporting lies helpless before us. There are a few families left—there are children who are beginning in the Sunday School to learn the Church's ways.

Now, there are two ways of treatment for such cases. One way is to say to the few who remain "you have suffered many losses, your mission is weak, we will withdraw Diocesan assistance and suspend operations here until better times come." This will, of course, discourage all effort on the part of those who are not Church people of the staunchest sort, and the children who have not Church parents, and many who have, will drift away to other Schools, and all the churchmanship they have absorbed will be blown out of them in some cyclonic revival.

The other way is to say to the decimated outpost, "Be of good courage, stand by the Mission, and we will stand by you. The services are to be continued. Better times will come, new people will move into your town. Our mutual prayers and labors will hasten the good times." This, I am sure, is the better way. Those who are without, seeing that we are there to stay, will be more easily induced to unite with us. We will keep the children we have, and we will be prepared to gather in the people who will certainly ere long stampede from some other town and come thither.

But you must perceive that this perpetual change in one part of the field and another, prevents us from showing by statistics the progress we desire to show for your encouragement, and for our own satisfaction. Of thirty confirmed at a certain point in two or three years, twenty-five have moved to Oklahoma. The number of Communicants had almost reached the self-supporting points, but the increment is gone. We are where we were five years ago .

We are baptizing, confirming and shepherding a procession. The individuals do not remain to help us bear our burdens. But those who go out from us, well trained in the Church and her strong adherents, will not be lost to her. Somewhere they will be reinforcing her congregations and praying for her welfare.

But, although we have not gone much into new territory and have not many new missions to add to our list, we have done a good work in strengthening the things that remain, and but for our co-operating effort, were ready to die. The debts on some missions have been diminished; in many missions the work is more effective than in the past, and preparations are made for immediate strengthening and enlargement. The missionary at Clinton will make that a center of operations in the adjoining towns, and will undertake especially to extend the Church in Henry County. The new Rector of Sedalia is planning a new mission in East Sedalia, and will undertake work in Pettis, Morgan, Saline and Moniteau Counties; the Rector of Joplin is reaching out through Jasper and Barton Counties; the Rector of Brookfield goes up into Sullivan County, and has agreed to go to Marceline in Linn County; the mission at Marshall will make that a center for aggressive work.

The Archdeacon of the Northern Convocation is constantly busy among the little groups of Church people, and the Archdeacon of the Central Convocation reports a Fund nearly sufficient to begin work on the new Church upon the excellent lot we have purchased in Richmond. He has also, by God's blessing, greatly revived and strengthened the congregation at Pleasant Hill.

The Woman's Auxiliary have continued during the year contributions to the Bishop's Purse. These are most gratefully acknowledged. They have enabled us to maintain men in our truly missionary field whom, without this aid, we should have sadly recalled. We are also thankful for the encouragement and stimulus we derive from the unfailing interest and prayers of these faithful women.

This is the Fifteenth Annual Council of the Diocese of West Missouri, and that reminds us that we are in the fourteenth year of our Diocesan life—not a long life compared with the one hundred and twenty years of the Diocese of Connecticut and Maryland, but long enough to develop an ideal of Diocesan life and to set up standards toward which we begin to direct our energy. We may be—perhaps we have been heretofore—content with just what we have; satisfied if we are not losing ground, afraid to devise liberal things, and to plan undertakings that correspond with the increasing population of the western part of this great State, and the improvement in its business. There are always timid souls who cry “Impossible” to any proposed development. I have known a clergyman, who with lugubrious countenance, affirmed that it was impossible to build up the Church in a town so “sect-ridden” as that committed to his care, and I have known another, under precisely the same conditions, to achieve success, proving that it was not impossible. When the Convention Hall burned in this City there were many ready to say “it cannot be rebuilt in time for the convention that was appointed to meet in it after ninety days. “It is impossible,” cried they. But there were men in Kansas City who said “It must be built,” and it was built. It stands as the monument to the determination and ability of our citizens. We want the same spirit in this Diocese. We want men who determined that certain things must be done, will proceed to do them. It is said of the late General Armstrong that “He had to, so he did,” was the motto of his life. And he himself used to say that “Doing what can't be done is the glory of living.”

Now, let us look about us to see what ought to be here and what therefore must be.

There ought to be among our clergy a good proportion of native clergy:—sons of the soil, men who have grown up among our people, know their ways and are of them by birth rather than by adoption. These native Candidates for Holy Orders should come, not only from the poor, but from the best families in our congregations. It is no disgrace to a man to be born of poor parents; some of our noblest Bishops, and most efficient Priests, have been beneficiaries of the societies created for the purpose of helping young men who desire to study for the ministry and are not able to pay for their own education. But the Church needs also those who can afford to give themselves every advantage, and who have every opportunity of social position and social training. There should be a Candidate or two from at least each of our principal congregations. You say "It is impossible," but, dear brethren of the clergy, have you ever preached upon the privilege of being a Priest in the Church of God? Have you sought out suitable young men and presented the matter to them seriously and earnestly? Have you urged parents to consecrate their sons to this the noblest of all professions? Shall we not take this matter up as one of the things that ought to be, and therefore must be?

The equipment of the Diocese for its work is not sufficient. In fact, it has hardly any equipment at all. If we speak of development in this direction we will again hear the cry "Impossible." "We can with difficulty raise our assessments, and meet our other obligations." "We cannot shoulder another feather's weight of financial responsibility." But I will proceed to set before you some of the things that ought to be, and I feel confident that if you business men of West Missouri can be persuaded that they ought to be you will see to it that they come to pass.

Do you ask me what I mean by complete equipment? I mean that a Diocese, such as ours, should have a permanent Endowment Fund; a Diocesan house or at least Diocesan rooms for the preservation of valuable papers, for the books and pamphlets in the custody of the Registrar, for the use of Diocesan Committees, for the office-work of the Bishop, the Secretary, and the Registrar; a Bishop's residence; an orphanage; a hospital; and, if possible a school. The Endowment Fund is necessary because the annual assessment is a burden and a hindrance to Church Extension. In proof of this I have only to point you to the fact that at every Council we are constrained to wait for the Report of the Assessment Committee before we make our pledges for Diocesan Missions. The Delegates, on the floor of the House, are unwilling to assume any obligation for the support and extension of our work in small and weak places until they know what burden they will be compelled to take up for the maintenance of the official machinery of the Diocese.

We do not blame them for this. It will continue as long as we rely for our revenue chiefly upon assessments. A permanent Endowment would set us free to enlarge our pledges and extend our borders.

We need rooms and offices for the orderly dispatch of our Diocesan business, for the safe and convenient storing of official papers and to bring together the officers of the Diocese. Every corporation, education board, or institution, has its official headquarters. Had you to hunt for its representatives and papers in out-of-way dwellings your estimate of it from a business standpoint would be lowered, the officials themselves would be out of touch with business men and would transact its affairs in a slipshod way.

We need a Bishop's residence. I do not think it indelicate for the present incumbent of the office to say so. He speaks for the dignity of the Diocese, for his successors in office and for the general good of the work committed to his charge. An ordinary rented house or quarters in a boarding house are not suited to a Bishop's needs. He does his work there at a disadvantage. With the prospect of frequent removals the natural and valuable growth about him of a library, historic documents, and of various matters connected with his work is stunted. Of associations that cluster about a home he has few. The home life that reflects his own personality and invites about him as guests the clergy and people of the Diocese, or honored visitors from abroad, is wanting. The oratory or chapel so conducive to devotion and useful for many offices cannot be established. The social influence of the Bishop in the See City is minimized.

An orphanage would be a valuable acquisition, because there are many children in this unsettled population, deprived of one or both parents, or with unworthy parents, and destitute of support. Applications have been made to me for a home for such children, and I have regretfully replied that we have none. So far as we are concerned, they are left to grow up uneducated and unchristianized—enemies of the State. We might train them in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and they might become valuable members of the Church, rearing children who would love and support her.

A hospital is a necessity. The Church should extend her motherly care over her children who are sick, and even over the unthankful and the unworthy: I could tell of many who have pointed to the days of illness in a hospital, where the Sisters not only tenderly and skillfully nursed them, but also set before them the example of a pure and holy life, as the beginning of their rescue from sin.

We have now the nucleus of a Church hospital. With the moral and financial support of our people it may be strongly established, and it has been demonstrated that such an institution may in time be made self-supporting.

A school is a necessity. "A school!" says someone, "is not the State full to overflowing with schools? Is it desirable or impossible to compete with our excellent public schools?" "A school!" says some Missionary Bishop in despair over obligations for the maintenance of an institution that has given him more anxiety than all his other cares. "Yes, I say unhesitatingly that we need a school. After all that may be said about labor and anxiety involved in founding schools and in maintaining them, Minnesota, Colorado, Kansas, Ohio, Tennessee and others will support me in saying that their schools have been their most effective missionary centers, saving to the Church the children of our own people and returning to their homes the children of those who have been opponents of the Church with their ignorance about her dissipated and an infectious love of her ways established that has permeated the whole family.

But are there in West Missouri, where the Church is comparatively weak, a sufficient number of young people who would pass by the public schools and welcome an opportunity to attend a Church school?

Yes. There are at this moment a sufficient number of young people attending Roman Catholic and sectarian institutions to fill a school of our own. Are they learning in those schools to love the Church? Are they learning to meet the assertion that Henry VIII founded the Church of England with intelligent denial? Are they absorbing from their environment the true Catholic spirit? Will any, who are not children of Churchmen, be won by the teaching of those schools to a more kindly reception of the doctrines of the Church? The question is absurd. I do not intend to speak unkindly of those institutions. They are established and maintained for the purpose of strengthening the communions which they represent, and if they do it successfully they are only accomplishing the designs of their founders? We may respect them for their consistency. But the question I ask is, How long will we be content, by failing to provide instruction under Church influences, to force our people to seek the education of their children in schools established for the purpose of disseminating doctrines which the Church holds to be errors.

(Of course there are schools of our own Church in Dioceses not very far away; but the cost of education in those schools is prohibitive to our farmers and village people. We need a school that will provide a good education at a moderate cost. This can be accomplished either by an endowment, or by establishing a farm school where the pupils may earn a portion of their education by manual labor. And this would meet the requirements of the larger number of those for whom we would seek to provide. Our pupils would not be drawn from the wealthy, but from those of moderate means.

Now by presenting so many objects for your consideration I may have dissipated your attention so that you will say "The task is too great; we cannot hope to accomplish it; we will attempt nothing." But I have been trying to present a bird's eye view of the field of our necessary institutions. I do not anticipate that they will all be established before we assemble at the close of the fifteenth year of the Diocese. I do say that it is high time for us to undertake one of these things or more. For several years we have been enjoying prosperous times. Our larger cities have had a phenomenal growth; the farms have yielded their increase, prices have been good: on every hand we see lavish investments of money. We are in danger of falling into the habit of thinking that we can only do so much for the Church as we did in hard times. But we should be doing more now. We are able to do more.

And this brings me to the work of the Church in our two large cities, St. Joseph and Kansas City. Since the Diocese was organized Kansas City has grown from a population of 132,716 to an estimated population of about 180,000; St. Joseph has increased from 52,324 to an estimated population of 105,000—more than doubled. Churchmen of these cities what are you doing? The Communicant list in Kansas City has increased from 1,229 in 1890 to 2,029 in 1904. In St. Joseph the Communicant list has increased from 660 in 1890 to 701 in 1904. It would seem that the increase should have been greater to have kept pace with the increase of population and that we should study the problem to discover what is lacking in our methods. I am confident that the clergy have been diligent and faithful. But, with an immense inflow from rural neighborhoods and small towns, with a constantly growing population, the Church should show a very large increase in numbers and in strength.

In St. Joseph a remarkable opportunity is now offered for Church Extension, and a liberal expenditure of money would ensure the establishment of a flourishing congregation in South St. Joseph. A mission was opened there some time ago but for want of means has practically lapsed. Churchmen of St. Joseph come to the rescue! Do your duty! See that we have the money and the helpers to set forward that work.

With the combined effort of representative men and women from all the parishes in Kansas City and with cordial, active support of the clergy we might be accomplishing much for the salvation of the people in the north end of the city and for the upbuilding of the Church.

Does not the Lord call us to lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes? Should we not have such faith in God and in the Church as will compel us fearlessly to make great ventures and to devise liberal things? If we hold in trust blessings that the world needs shall we not in the discharge of our duty at least penetrate every region of our field and give to every soul, the poor as well as the rich, the opportunity to accept or reject those blessings? Will any thing less than that commend us as good stewards of the Lord Jesus Christ?

One other thing is most necessary, and that is Laymen of a thoroughly churchly type. I do not say that we have none now; but I do say "May their tribe increase." Here again we will hear the cry "Impossible." We will listen to accounts of the absorbing claims of modern business, the change that has come over the habits of men, the increasing demands of society. We grant it all, but we are nevertheless quite confident that our men have such force of character, such ingenuity in devising ways to do whatever they determine to accomplish that they can become typical Churchmen if they will.

What then is the type? The typical Churchman is well informed about his Church. I do not mean that he necessarily goes exhaustively into the study of Church history and doctrine. He knows his Prayer Book thoroughly. In it he finds a compendium of what the Church expects him to believe and to do for his souls health and for the glory of God. Thence he gathers what the various festivals and fasts of the ecclesiastical year are and what truth they teach. He also has read some brief Church History, E. G. Illustrated Notes on English Church History by Rev. C. Arthur Lane, Bishop Boyd Carpenter's Church History, Bishop Browns History of the Church in America.

He has read for reasons of the Faith that is in him; of Bishop Kipp's "Double Witness of the Church," or Little's "Reasons Why I am a Churchman." He believes in his Church and is ready to defend her against all gainsayers.

He is loyal to and the friend of his rector. His friendship is shown in his occasional visits to the rectory or the rector's apartments to talk over parish affairs and to discover what the rector is planning for the development of the work. He sometimes makes suggestions that he has thought out himself. Now and then he and the rector may have a rather warm argument over matters on which they disagree, but he never forgets that the rector is the head of the Parish, the one who is in authority, and, if overruled by the rector, he submits with a good grace while the rector in his part is much pleased to find a layman who has sufficient interest in the Parish to enter into a friendly argument about its policy rather than to remain with the indifferent crowd. The friendly layman also shows his good will for the rector by considering and so far as possible providing for his comfort. He will not consent to look upon the rector as a hired man to be skimped and neglected as much as possible. He rather makes plans, and talks about them in the Parish, to relieve the rector of anxiety about his subsistence and the support of his family. He may, on some auspicious occasion, ever surprise the rector by an unsolicited increase of salary. And clergymen are human. They do better work when they are free from harrassing cares; they are cheered on their way and are worth more to their Parishes when they are encouraged by indications of appreciation.

The typical layman takes an interest in the Diocese, combines with other laymen to promote its welfare, looks into its affairs, seeks with honest pride to make it the best Diocese in the land, attends its Convocations and Councils, contributes to its Funds and provide for it in his will.

The typical Churchman is a Church-goer. That is part of his business in this world and he attends to it. His Church-going does not depend upon his appreciation of or want of interest in the present incumbent of the parish; it is not affected by the man in the next pew who may be distasteful to him; he is not less regular in his attendance because the choir sing tunes he never heard his mother sing nor because they sing out of all tune. He does not absent himself from his Communion or deny himself other Church Privileges because the rector puts on vestments that seem to him outlandish, or assumes postures unknown to Bishop White. He says "That is the Bishop's business." Let him attend to it. If he cannot stop I cannot and I will not permit myself to be deprived of my privilege of joining in the worship of God, or of refreshing my soul at his altar.

The typical Churchman informs himself regarding the stand his Church is taking upon the questions of the day, and regarding the work she is undertaking in the Mission Field. Increasing knowledge stimulates and feeds his interest. He has opinions regarding the policy of the Church and he himself takes a hand in her Counsels and her work.

The typical Churchman, as the years go on enters into the spirit of the varying seasons of the ecclesiastical year, engages in the services set forth in the Book of Common Prayer until he almost knows them by heart and catches their tone, thus evolving in himself the Churchman's character—strong and unwavering in faith, loyal to the Church and its clergy, not neglectful of the spirit of true devotion but seeking the expression of that devotion in the venerable forms and ceremonies that are old but not antiquated; restrained from the harmless enjoyments of life by no narrow rules but discreetly keeping in mind ever the honor due to God, and wisely abstaining from whatever may hinder his devotion; in his offerings for the Church and for charities he is systematic and self-sacrificing; in his relations to others he is honorable, honest and charitable; to his wife he is true and his children he trains in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

May God give us more men of this sort! We need them for the upbuilding of the Church in this fruitful land.

Am I using too strong words when I say that I have only faintly outlined the duty of every layman in this Diocese?

Aye! But the duty is only another name for privilege. What can compare with the possession of such a character?

Show me a man absorbed in the acquisition of property, or a man devoting his life to pleasure for its own sake, or a man who lives a life of self-indulgence, coarsely or daintily, or one who living morally and industriously, has not God in all his thoughts and I will show you one who has more satisfaction in life than either of these, the man whose character is guided and developed by the Church, who day by day aims to do his duty, who has thought for the interests of the Kingdom of God, who engages unselfishly in efforts to improve the conditions under which men live in his day and generation and who attends to the affairs that concern his immortal soul.

The following report was read and on motion was accepted and adopted:

REPORT
OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

It is gratifying to learn from the Bishop's Address that the Missions of the Diocese have generally been supplied with services and pastoral care during the past year, and that many fields have showed marked development, with bright outlook for the coming year.

Your Committee note with interest an improvement in the payment of the Missionary pledge over past years. The plan of General Apportionment has made great progress over the past year, showing an awakening interest in Missions.

Your Committee would suggest that more interest be taken on the part of the laymen, not only in making pledges for Missions, but in praying and working for Missions.

With the combined aid of efficient laymen the doors of all the smaller Missions could be kept open every Sunday, or at least a greater part of the time.

Your Committee would suggest that active missionary work be established in the growing centers, especially Kansas City and St. Joseph, and it is hoped that active steps be taken at once to maintain a strong Mission in South St. Joseph.

We note the removal of many of our people from the small towns, but the drift is towards the cities, and not so much away from the Diocese. On this account, the hope of the Church in this Diocese is in the activity of Missionary work in the growing centers of population.

Your Committee would petition the Board of Missions for an appropriation for an Archdeacon in the Southern Convocation.

JOHN R. ATWILL,

D. G. MACKINNON,

E. A. NEVILLE,

E. W. FLOWER,

Committee.

The Council took a recess until 7:45 p. m.

7.45 P. M.

Hymn 253 was sung.

The Rev. T. B. Foster read the following report, which, on motion, was accepted and adopted:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

Four matters have been referred by the Council to this Committee. Action of the Council is recommended as follows:

The proposed amendment to Article XV of the Constitution, submitted by Mr. M. G. Harman, should not be adopted. (See page 31.)

The resolution referring to the assessment on Christ Church, Lexington, is recommended for adoption without its preamble and with the addition of the words "for this year." (See page 26.)

Resolutions regarding the proposed merger of the Fund for Disabled Clergy of this Diocese with the General Clergy Relief Fund are recommended for adoption. (See page 25.)

The question addressed to the Council by St. Augustine's Mission and referred to this Committee for answer has been duly considered. The Committee would call attention to the provisions of Canon X, no special legislation being called for.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

THEO. B. FOSTER,

Secretary.

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THAT PORTION OF THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS REGARDING A HOSPITAL.

Whereas, The establishment and maintenance of a Church Hospital in the Diocese is desirable, and

Whereas, In the existing Church Charity Association and Saint Luke's Hospital we have the nucleus of such an institution, and

Whereas, The presidency of these organizations has been offered the Bishop of the Diocese; therefore be it

The Rev. T. B. Foster read the following report, which, on motion, was accepted and adopted:

REPORTOF THE COMMITTEE OF FIVE.

The Committee appointed to consider the part of the Bishop's Address which deals with the endowment of the Episcopate, provision for the Episcopal residence, Diocesan rooms, etc., beg leave to report that in their judgment the time has come for the Diocese to address itself to these matters and to adopt some practical measure looking to a speedy accomplishment of the end in view.

It is furthermore the judgment of the Committee that the effort to endow the Diocese should take the precedence, as the interests of our Diocesan Missionary work demand some diminution of the large assessments now levied on the Parishes and Missions for the support of the Episcopate. The effort should be made at once to secure at least $25,000 towards a permanent Episcopal Fund.

The Committee recommends the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Assessment Committee appointed by the Bishop at this Council be continued as a permanent Committee on the Endowment of the Episcopate, with the Bishop as its chairman ex officio; that this Committee be, and it is hereby directed, to devise a plan for canvassing all the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese during the coming conciliar year, and is also instructed to report to the next Annual Council.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE B. FOSTER,
DANIEL G. MACKINNON,

D. H. SMITH,

Resolved, That this Diocese, recognizing that events in the Church have demonstrated the necessity for such Courts of Appeal, and believing, furthermore, that the efficiency of the Church, especially in her Missionary work, would be greatly enhanced by the establishment of a Provincial System, hereby desires to unite with the Diocese of Milwaukee in the aforesaid memorial to the General Convention in October, 1904.

THEODORE B. FOSTER,
ROBERT TALBOT,
Committee.

On motion of the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith it was

REPORT

OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

Your Committee on Sunday School Work would call the attention of the Council to the fact that the Sunday School Institute has changed the time of its meeting from the Monday before Council to the evening of that day on which the Woman's Auxiliary has its Fall meeting. This action was taken because the present day seemed to be an unfortunate choice and one calculated rather to chill than to stir up enthusiasm in this important topic. Your Committee would also urge the advisability of the attendance of all who can possibly attend, at this Institute.

It would re-iterate its plea for more interest in Sunday School work on the part of both clergy and laity. It would recommend to the study of Rectors and Superintendents the new courses of study published by the N. Y. S. S. Commission.

AUDITING REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

KANSAS CITY, MO., August 2, 1904.

The Committee on Finance appointed at the last Diocesan Council respectfully reports as follows:

The Committee has examined the report, accounts and vouchers of Mr. W. B. Clarke, Treasurer of the Diocese, and finds them correct.

On May 14, 1904, the date of this report, said Treasurer had in his hands a cash balance of $1,249.00, which was made up of the following sums:

Balance to credit of General Fund	$1,079.01
" " " " Theological Education Fund	20.35
" " " " Disabled Clergy Fund	149.64
Total	$1,249.00

We have verified the receipts of the various parishes and missions of the Diocese and find them correct as shown by the Treasurer's books and set forth in his report.

The Treasurer also exhibited notes and trust deeds belonging to the trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund as follows:

Loan to F. G. Smith, drawing 6% interest	$ 850.00
Loan to A. A. Tomlinson, drawing 6% interest	2,800.00
Loan to the Treasurer of the Diocese drawing 6% int.	600.00
Total	$4,250.00

Said loans are secured by deeds of trust on real estate and the interest is paid.

The real estate belonging to the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund consists of the west one-half (½) of lot five (5), block two (2), Western Highlands, Kansas City, Kansas.

The treasurer also exhibited a note and deed of trust belonging to the trustees of the Theological Education Fund securing a loan to A. A. Tomlinson of $1,200.00 at 6% per annum. This is secured by a deed of trust which is a first lien on real estate.

The committee also examined the report and accounts of Mr. C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer of the Permanent Episcopal Fund, and found the same to be correct. Said reports dated May 18, 1904, and at that date the cash in hand of said Treasurer was $6,852.75, invested in a certificate of deposit of the Union National Bank of Kansas City, Missouri, and bearing four per cent interest. He also has an unsettled certificate of allowance made by the receiver of the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings Bank of $178.39, on which a final dividend of 5% is expected to be paid in the near future.

The committee also examined the report of Mr. H. D. Ashley, Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Board, dated May 17, 1904, together with his books, vouchers and accounts, and find on that date the cash balance in his hands as such Treasurer was $991.01 and that said books, accounts and vouchers verified said report and are correct.

We find that the recommendation of the Committee on Finance made June 24, 1903, advising that the interest on the Smith loan be reduced to 6% and the loan be extended for three years, has been carried into effect.

R. B. MIDDLEBROOK.

EDWARD C. HAMILL,

Committee on Finance.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR.

The Registrar respectfully reports that he has received Journals from most of the Dioceses of the Church during the past year. In accordance with the directions of the last Council, he has had bound six copies of the Journal (from 1898 to 1903), three of which have been sent to libraries (at Kansas City, Joplin and Sedalia.)

Registrar.

APPENDIX No. 5.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

The Board has held three meetings during the year, on June 12 and December 15, 1903, and January 28, 1904. The attendance has been good and a large degree of interest shown in the missionary work of the Diocese. The following new names have been added to the Board's list: the Revs. L. R. F. Davis, C. A. Remick, S. Wilson Moran, J. H. Barnard, W. H. Haupt, C. T. Coerr and J. Wilkinson. The following have removed from the Diocese: the Revs. A. Watkins, R. A. Saunders, L. R. F. Davis and C. A. Remick.

Two archdeacons have been actively at work through the year, whose reports will be of interest. In addition to the archdeacons, the board has on its list fourteen clergymen and one lay reader. More services have been given than ever before. Lexington and Warrensburg, which for some years had only semi-monthly services, are now having them every Sunday. All the points on the board's list are now supplied except Cameron, Trenton, Maryville and Harrisonville, and these will be supplied as soon as men can be found for them. Four thousand dollars are needed to continue our work in efficiency. Let us have at least that amount pledged and paid quarterly.

The board sees with satisfaction the growing interest in the apportionment for General Missions. Let us not forget also those nearest to us, our Diocesan Missions, our own special home work of church maintenance and extension. They certainly deserve our attention and gifts.

For the Board, JOHN K. DUNN,

May 17, 1904.

Secretary.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONS.

DEAR BISHOP:—I beg leave to respectfully report for the year ending April 30, 1904. I have held regular Sunday services bi-monthly at Savannah and St. Oswald's, also during Lent and at other times several week day services at Savannah.

These two Churches, while not giving much evidence of growth in membership, are loyal and true to the Church, and appreciate the work the Diocese is doing for their spiritual welfare.

I have also visited frequently, and given services at Amazonia, Albany, Cameron, Maryville, Empire Prarie, Craig, Lathrop, Plattsburg, Trenton, Rosendale and Stanberry. At a few of these places I have been able occasionally to give a Sunday, but for the most part the work has been done during the week.

I have also visited and ministered to the sick from outside towns on occasion at the Ensworth Hospital, St. Joseph. I have given assistance by preaching and celebrating the Holy Communion a few times in Churches at St. Joseph and Kansas City.

Visitations have been made at Mound City, King City, Darlington, Stewartsville, Bigelow and Forest City.

St. Joseph, April 30, 1904.

To the Right Reverend E. R. Atwill. D. D.

BEAR BISHOP:—I take pleasure in reporting to you my work in the Central Archdeacony during the past year:

Services Held	420
Sermons and Addresses	350
Baptized, Infants	30
" Adult	16
Celebrations of Holy Communion	140
Presented for Confirmation	38
Places Minnistered to	15

Three points are now ready to be placed under a missionary, namely Pleasant Hill, Lee's Summit and Harrisonville, and it is most important in this stage of the work for greater growth in these fields, that a good man be placed in charge as soon as possible.

At Richmond where we have a lot all paid for, in a fine location, I have commenced work towards a Church building. I have raised the greater part toward this end. With a house of worship we shall be able to produce better results in our work.

I give much of my time to St. Mark's, Kansas City, and here great results have been obtained in the spiritual and temporal work of the parish. The congregations now fill the Church, and the Sunday School has about reached the hundredth mark. Improvements have been made in the building and a number of memorials given.

The Mission field is greatly in need of more frequent services, and while the diocese is unable to maintain Missionaries in the smaller places for this purpose, great assistance could be rendered by the organization of a Laymen's Missionary League. By such means, without expense to the Diocesan Missionary Board, the doors of all the Mission Churches could be kept open every Sunday. With the assistance of efficient laymen in this movement, I shall be able to produce better results this coming year, with satisfaction to the people of the smaller Missions, and the strengthening of the Church work.

Respectfully Submitted,
D. G. MACKINNON,
Archdeacon of Central District.

- (9) On Missionaries' Traveling Expenses.
- (10) On the State of the Church.

4. All Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

5. All resolutions shall be reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and by him read; and a motion shall not be considered before the house until recorded.

6. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.

7. A member shall not absent himself from the services of the house unless he have leave or be unable to attend.

8. A member other than the Chairman of a Committee, whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than ten minutes at a time, without leave of the house.

9. Any member of the house may call for a vote by ayes and nays.

10. When a question has once been determined, it shall stand as the judgment of the house, and shall not be again drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority, and all motions to reconsider must be made on the day the vote is taken or on the next succeeding day.

11. When a question is under consideration, a motion shall not be received, except to lay on the table, to postpone it to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the house shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay on the table and adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

12. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a Committee, or to a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

13. All amendments may be considered in the reverse order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration a motion to amend the same may be made. An after amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order, but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute to the whole may be received. A proposition, different from the one under consideration, shall not be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

14. Every member who may be in the house when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be excused by the Council.

15. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from this decision to the Council by any member of the same.

16. The Secretary may employ one or more Pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Council.

17. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, and without motion for acceptance, unless recommitted by vote of the house. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the house, shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the house therein.

THE BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS.

Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

As we assemble in our Sixteenth Annual Council to review the work of another year, and to make our plans for the year to come, may the Holy Spirit give us a right judgment in all things and inspire us with holy zeal for the extension of our Lord's Kingdom upon the earth.

Activity, enterprise, ventures made in hope, prevail in the public affairs of our land and in the private business of our people. They are characteristic of the age in which we live. In every walk of life they survive and flourish who develop and improve. Fossils give place to forms of life. On the ranch he succeeds best who with wisdom and thrift uses the newest and the best machinery for the saving of labor and the accomplishment of results. The people gather about and patronize the merchant whose windows display new goods in every new and attractive combination and who has on hand the latest and the best productions of the looms. Business in the store or on the farm could not be carried on upon the immense scale prevalent among us did the old methods continue, and were the wonderful inventions of our generation ignored. Should a farmer prefer to plant his corn by the hand, hill it with the hoe, cut his grain with the cradle, and prefer a messenger on horseback to the instantaneous telephone, he could not extend his labors much beyond the original forty acres of his purchase. He who adds the forty, the sixty and the section to his estate and cultivates it with profit, thinks, works and improves his methods and his machinery. Everywhere there is progress and improvement. In the humble labor of the boy in the station who polishes the travelers' shoes, in the equipment of the transcontinental line with mogul engines and luxurious cars; here and everywhere there is something better from year to year.

There are of course, in all business, certain unchangeable aims and laws. Railways exist because men and things are to be carried some whither; the carrier takes them on their way because he desires to earn somewhat; the farmer farms and the merchant sells for bread and a livelihood. The same rain and dew and sunshine are essential for the growth of the plant as in the days when the men of Boaz reaped the field with the sickle. But there are also possible improvements in man's way of using the powers of nature, and he who ignores them is out of the race. These commonplace truisms may suggest to your minds a thought that I desire to emphasize. In religion as in other business there are indeed certain unchangeable factors and means of grace and power. The faith once delivered to the saints, the ministry, the sacraments, the Holy Scripture, men cannot improve or change. The forms of worship contained in our Book of Common Prayer give a certain stability to the Church that is essential in a body that is to be a refuge from the shifting winds of human thought and the driving storms of human life.

But how to bring the immutable truth and the unchanging order in touch with the varying customs, and new mental processes of successive generations is a problem that must be new to every age. To preserve the right balance between the stationary and the modifiable is the part of true wisdom. To present Gospel truth in the language of a past generation, unintelligible to the people of our day, is to fail to get the ear of the people. Upon our shelves are books of Theology, potent in their time, but wearisome reading today. The truth has not changed; but the environment, the associations, the language, are not the same. The appeal to the mind and heart is arrayed in a new robe, and touches chords that respond, because it speaks the language understood by the people.

The Church through her ministers, workers and people, must approach then the peoples of our day by the approach that is open. She must bring her message mutatis mutandis, the necessary changes being made not in the substance of the message, but in the manner of its presentation. Is not our danger that we may be too content with fixed conditions, going on from year to year in the old way, taking no account of the changing needs and the unfolding opportunities?

Are we fully awake to the calls that sound everywhere about us? Are we ready to be all things to all men that we may by all means save some?

I will refer to this again before I conclude my address. I desire to make my first word to you today an appeal for adaptation, expansion and development. I am satisfied that we do not know our strength, we do not realize the importance and the opportunities of our field; we may easily fail to understand the peculiar conditions that we have to meet, and, held in the rut of custom, or satisfied with routine, we may be shunted off the highway where the tramp of the multitude is heard and tread a little circle by ourselves, secluded from the throbbing, expanding life of our state.

But this Church is not only Catholic in its orthodoxy; it is also Catholic in its purpose to embrace within its fold, all sorts and conditions of men, and in its provision made for the manifold needs of the race. Let our purpose be as wide as its purpose and that of its Divine Founder.

I now proceed to lay before you the record of visitations and other official acts as required by the Canon:

The Diocese has suffered the loss of its Treasurer, Mr. William B. Clarke, who died February 24, 1905, at Santa Barbara, California, whither he had gone in the vain search for life and health. He had served continuously, and most acceptably in this office since the organization of the Diocese. Gentle, courteous in manner; wise and careful in all matters pertaining to business, he was an ideal Treasurer. As a citizen and churchman he was always actively interested in all that tended to advance the interests of Grace Church parish, the Diocese, Kansas City or the nation. We cherish his memory in our hearts, and pray that the blessing of the Lord may rest upon him in the place of waiting whither he has gone.

Major Morey of Sedalia, died in January, 1905. He was a devoted churchman, prominent in the parish and in the city of his adoption.

Some of the venerable members of the House of Bishops have been summoned by the Great Bishop and Shepherd of our souls from the fields of their labors on earth to the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

The Right Rev. Frederick Dan Huntington, D. D., L.L. D., L. H. D., Bishop of Central New York, died July 11th, 1904, aged eighty-three. In his early life and ministry he was a Unitarian; but becoming a churchman by conviction he was made a Deacon in 1860 and was rapidly advanced to posts of honor and responsibility in the Church which could not but recognize his charming personality and deep learning. Quiet and scholarly, he engaged little in debate or controversy; but his writings and sermons, his holy life and his strong character, his wise judgment and unwavering faith touched and strengthened every department of the church's activities, and were felt as an uplifting power in many individual lives. Having once seen in Jesus of Nazareth the Divine Redeemer, he never ceased from his humble discipleship and loving adoration. In the last address he uttered to his Annual Convention, he said: "The voice from the Mount of Olives and the cross at Calvary sounds unaltered from age to age and we believe it. It is most impressive and pathetic to see how the inwrought idea of a Something, a Power and Presence beyond all mortal forces or phenomena has survived in spite of all theological theories and systems. By a few simple New Testament affirmations our foothold is established and our place made secure."

That Church is greatly blessed whose Episcopate is adorned by men who possess the beauty of holiness, the certain faith, the rich stores of learning and the lofty purpose conspicuous in the personality of Frederick Dan Huntington.

The Right Rev. William Edward McLaren, D. D., Bishop of Chicago, died February 19th, 1905. He was of Scotch ancestry notable for canny thrift and stern piety. His early life was spent in journalism and later in the Presbyterian ministry. His studies drew him toward the Church and in 1872 he was made a Deacon. In 1875 he was elected Bishop of Chicago. He ruled his Diocese with wisdom, was faithful in the discharge of the duties of his office, and, especially in his later years, he developed the spiritual depth of a devout character.

An accurate scholar, and strong in debate, he became one of the recognized canonists of the House of Bishops.

The Right Rev. Alfred Augustin Watson, D. D., Bishop of East Carolina, died on the afternoon of Good Friday, 1905, in the eighty-seventh year of his age. He studied law in the office of Chancellor Kent, where he probably acquired that clear insight and legal poise of mind that made him for many years a valuable member of the Committee on Canons in the House of Deputies. He also was of Presbyterian ancestry, but becoming persuaded of the apostolic authority of the Church he was made a Deacon in 1844, and was consecrated a Bishop in 1884. Unpretentious and gentle in manner, a true gentleman and a devout Christian, he was beloved by all who knew him. Possibly none who listen to me today have even looked upon his face, for he had long withdrawn from active duty; but to me he was a revered friend in days far away, and the slight tribute I am able to pay to his memory is prompted more by affection than by the claims of custom that call for the formal mention of departed Bishops.

The Diocese.

In spite of the inevitable retarding of our progress by the changes that have taken place among the clergy, and by long vacancies; in spite also of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, which drained the pockets of many of our people, and loaded some of them with debt, the Diocese has not retrograded, but has made some progress, and the outlook for the immediate future is more encouraging than in former years. The established Parishes and Missions have grown normally, and while there may be nothing in the circuit of the year in their history so notable as to be mentioned here, there is ground for encouragement in the steady development that is an indication of healthy life.

In the annual history of some of the congregations we find events of unusual interest.

Grace Church, Kansas City, not only has a new and splendid organ, but has revised and reformed its financial management so as to provide a sufficient income for the annual parochial and Diocesan expenses, abandoning entirely the bad custom of an Easter collection for floating debts.

St. Mark's, Kansas City, has purchased the lot on which the church stands, the edifice has been improved, new and elegant appointments have been introduced, the congregation has increased, they have voluntarily made the rector's salary sufficient to claim his entire time; they have also paid the apportionment for General Missions, the pledge for Diocesan Missions and their assessments.

St. John's, Kansas City, with persistent zeal and self-sacrifice have gathered the three thousand dollars necessary to complete the bare walls and roof of the building. They have also taken offerings for their extra-parochial obligations, and have discharged them.

At St. Philip's, Joplin, the rector burned the mortgage on Thanksgiving Day, and a fund is growing in the bank for a new church.

Calvary, Sedalia, has made notable progress in the size of the congregations, the more vigorous life, the new altar and other improvements in the church building, the burning of the mortgage and the organization of a new mission in East Sedalia.

St. Paul's, Kansas City, is evidently entering upon an era of unprecedented prosperity and growth. A new lot has been purchased and plans for the stone church are progressing.

St. George's, Kansas City, has voluntarily increased the rector's salary, and have met all their extra-parochial obligations.

Christ Church, Boonville, has paid off its entire indebtedness.

Christ Church, Springfield, has paid its indebtedness and is developing in numbers and strong activities.

St. Luke's Hospital, Kansas City, has become more thoroughly a diocesan institution, a decree of the court has given to the Church Charity Association a small bequest, left to it some years ago, toward two beds in a hospital, which bequest will be used in St. Luke's as the legitimate successor of All Saints', that was lost under the stress of hard times in the nineties. Quite an income has been received during the year from pay patients and considerable charity work has been done. I am glad to find on my visits to the various towns and cities of the Diocese, much interest in this institution and a desire to give it financial aid. It is worthy of the confidence of our people, it is needed, it will be a valuable adjunct to our diocesan machinery, and I commend it heartily to you for your interest, your active co-operation and your generous benefactions.

The Diocesan Branch of the Board of Missions has had several enthusiastic meetings, and has made liberal contributions to the Bishop's Purse, as well as to the general missionary work of the Church. I am most grateful for the helpful sympathy and the material aid given by this band of noble women. I wish that more of the women of the Diocese, who live in places remote from Kansas City or St. Joseph, might join in this good work and feel the inspiration of touch with the missionary workers in the field and in the great centers. I am most anxious that a visiting or organizing Secretary may go out to tell of the plans of the Auxiliary and to organize new parochial branches. I therefore commend most heartily the effort being made to secure a fund to defray the expenses of such a Secretary.

I desire to express our gratitude to the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society and to the Bishop White Prayer Book Society for valuable gifts of Prayer Books and Hymnals for use in our mission work.

As the proposition to change the name of the Diocese will come before you for final action at this Council, I will state the present status of that matter. At the Council of 1903, a motion for the substitution of Kansas City for West Missouri was made and referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. That Committee in a lengthy report unanimously recommended the adoption of the resolution and gave their reasons for approving the change. This report was adopted by the Council.

The name of the Diocese being imbedded in the Constitution of the Diocese, subsequent action was necessary at the following Council. This action was taken in 1904, and the vote was reported as unanimous; but by an oversight the vote was not taken, as is necessary in making a constitutional change, by orders, and the action was invalid.

Under these circumstances it was thought advisable to ask the General Convention in advance for permission to make the change when our action should have been completed by another vote taken by orders. This permission was given. By your vote at this Council you will either make your action in favor of a change final or will vote against it and the old title will stand.

The Rev. Ezra Porter Chittenden proposes to open a Military School for boys, in the property at Clinton, Mo., known formerly as Baird College. While not a Diocesan institution, the school will be to some extent under the auspices and influence of the Church, and with due encouragement from our people may eventually become a Church School. I have received many letters from laymen who have known Mr. Chittenden and who assure me that he is an excellent business manager, as well as an efficient instructor.

I regret that nothing has been done during the year toward the endowment of the Diocese. I called several meetings of the Committee appointed at the Council of last year, but failed on either occasion to get a quorum of the original members. At the final meeting I secured a quorum by appointing a number of new members. The opinion was then freely and forcibly expressed that the present time is not opportune for a general and concerted movement; but a sub-committee was appointed to take certain action which will be presented to you at this Council. My own opinion is that in this as in most matters the simplest machinery is the most effective. If we should send an agent to approach the individuals in each congregation, with the consent and co-operation of the clergy, very considerable results would follow. This agent might be either a clergyman or a layman, but much of his success would depend upon his adaptation to the work. His salary and expenses might be paid by a percentage of the receipts.

In the meantime, should the clergy obey our Canon, which directs that an offering shall be made annually for the increase of the Permanent Fund for the support of the Episcopate and that this offering shall be made on the second Sunday in Lent, or on one of the Sundays nearest thereto, then the Fund would have a small but sure increase.

I will not recapitulate here the requisites I mentioned last year for the equipment of the Diocese. They are not less necessary now than then, and I trust that they will be kept in mind.

In this connection, I desire to call your attention to the duty of making some provision in last wills and testaments for the Church of the Living God, that has baptized you into the Body of Christ; that has broken to you the Bread of Life in the Holy Communion, that has preserved for you the Holy Scriptures, whose ministers stand by your side in times of trouble and in the hour of death. The Church will comfort those whom you leave behind and will bless them with all spiritual blessings. In the hour of greatest need she fails not. She is Christ's representative upon earth. The Scriptures describe her as the Bride of Christ. When you write down your legatees, will you ignore her who has brought to you the dearest hopes and the sweetest consolations that comfort us in this world of trouble and of death? Will not the portion that you separate, from the sum to be divided among your family and friends, for the Church, sanctify that which you leave to them and make it the source of double blessing?

But we may not be guilty of that form of selfishness which does not know any Church beyond our own parish or our own Diocese. "Go ye into all the world," said the Master. God forgive us if we have not thought and no gifts for the whole Church of Christ, whereof our Diocese or parish is a very little part. He is the Head of the whole Body. When we give to general missions we give more certainly to Him than when we give to a little part of the body, that particularly interests or concerns us. Give then to Him with no limitation of your gift. Let others, let the General Board of Missions, for example, determine the specific application of your offering. Give you to Christ because you are grateful to Him; because you desire to worship Him with the property that He has bestowed upon you. When we take the high view of giving; when we think of it as the creature honoring the Creator, the ransomed soul showing its love for its Redeemer, the mortal bringing his tribute to Him who bestows immortality, then giving will be spontaneous, then it will be esteemed a privilege, then the cry will be not "what must I give," or "why should I give," or "I do not take any interest in giving;" but "what shall I render unto the Lord for all the benefits that He hath bestowed upon me?"

Now the General Board of Missions has told the people how much they need, not to make generous provision for the Body of Christ, but how to make the scantiest provision possible. To make such provision as ought to be made would require double or thrice the amount suggested. They tell us how much our proportion of this scanty provision is. It is not an assessment. It is only a delicate suggestion. We should be glad to know how much the amount is. We should be grateful to the Board who spend time and money to come together and do this work for us. And knowing what is absolutely essential, should we not with glad hearts take up our part of the privilege of giving to extend the whole Church of Christ. When we of the clergy rise to the thought that we are not doing this for a little block of red men, or for a little band of yellow men, or for a territory of white men, but for Christ and the Church, when we drive this inspiring idea into our people's minds, when they give from this high and noble motive, when they acquire the divine habit of giving, then shall the thrill of life be felt in every department of home work as well. Concrete instances appeal to lower motives and sometimes obscure the highest motive of all. If I know that the sick in Alaska need a hospital, or that a frontier town needs a Church, it may appeal to my humanity, my sympathy, and under an ephemeral impulse I give for the specific object brought to my attention; but when I am persuaded that Christ needs my help for the great work He has inaugurated in the world, then I am ready to give all the time, and all I can, and I discover that I can give very much more than I thought possible.

But how is it with us, my brethren? Look at the tables showing how much our congregations have given toward the amount apportioned to this Diocese. What is to be done about it? Will you not when you go home, will you not pray that you may grasp the highest ideal of Missions and will you not by public sermon and private conversation try to give your people an uplift and set them thinking upon a higher plane? Oh, the pitifulness of the objection that that giving for Christ and the whole Church will hinder the work of our home congregations. A thousand times No! It causes the dry bones to live and opens the windows of Heaven.

The Missionary Thank Offering.

The next General Convention of our Church is to meet in Richmond, Virginia, in 1907, three hundred years since the first services were held in Jamestown, Va. In view of this the two Houses of General Convention, sitting together as the Board of Missions in Boston last autumn, adopted a resolution recommending that an extra offering for Missions be presented at that time "as a special recognition of thankfulness to Almighty God for the blessings He has vouchsafed to this Church during the three hundred years since it has been planted in Jamestown."

Subsequently a resolution was adopted looking to the "presentation at Richmond in 1907 of a Missionary Offering by the men of the Church as a thanksgiving for three hundred years of English Christianity." The fund shall be applied, first to restore the reserve funds of the Society (if they shall not then have been restored), and second, to provide permanent equipment in the domestic and foreign fields. "Each giver shall be asked to give under a pledge that his gift shall not diminish his payment toward the apportionment."

There is a Central Committee who have this matter in charge and in each Diocese or Missionary District there is a District Committee who are to co-operate with the Central Committee in the effort to reach each individual man with an appeal to unite in the Thank Offering.

God has greatly blessed us during these three hundred years. The little one despised, misunderstood, and without a Bishop has become a thousand. The Church brings to us the whole truth once delivered to the saints; she has preserved for us the rites of the apostolic days and the liturgical treasures of the ages. She is a factor of no small importance "in national, social and domestic life." For what she is to us and to speed her with blessings for the future we should gladly seek the privilege of joining in an offering worthy of this august occasion. I trust that every man in this Diocese will have some share in this acknowledgment of the goodness of God who has cast our lot with this noble branch of the Catholic and Apostolic Church.

Fund for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen.

This is the legal title of our General Clergy Relief Fund.

A resolution adopted by our Council of 1904, directed that our Infirm Clergy Fund, with the exception of such legacies as cannot legally be transferred, be merged with the General Relief Fund of the Church. Your offerings should, therefore, be made for the General Fund and forwarded to the Treasurer of that Fund. Our beneficiaries will receive their stipends from it.

The Board of Trustees of our Diocesan Fund have continued to care for it during the year and to make the preliminary arrangements necessary for its transfer, but canon xxii, under which the Board exists, having been repealed, they have no canonical standing and I suggest the appointment of an especial Committee to complete the work.

The offerings for this Fund should be generous. The disabled clergyman is a man in need, through no fault of his own, he is a brother in the most sacred of all professions, he is a servant of God who has sacrificed a competency to preach the Gospel for a pittance. When compelled to retire from active duty he should have a pension; when about to die he should have the comfort of knowing that his wife who has borne the burden of the day with him, and who has been his devoted assistant in parochial labors will be saved from utter poverty by their mother, the Church. When tempted to omit or to slight this offering my brethren, I beg you to consider whether common humanity, brotherly sympathy or esprit du corps does not move you to give the matter more serious thought, and to do all in your power for the increase of the Fund.

The New Canons.

The clergy will, of course, familiarize themselves with the new provisions in our General Canons, and I also commend them to study of the laity, especially Wardens, Vestrymen and Lay Readers.

I will here ask your attention to two or three of the new provisions that it may be well to bear in mind.

One of these is that when a Bishop publishes "Pastoral Letters to the people of the Diocese, on points of Christian doctrine, worship or manners, he may require the Clergy to read them to their congregations." The old canon did not give the Bishop this power; but it is only just and right that the Bishop as "Chief Pastor of all the congregations and people" should know that his instructions and advice reach those for whom they are prepared.

It is also provided that "no election of a rector shall be had until the name of the Clergyman whom it is proposed to elect shall have been made known to the Bishop, if there be one, and sufficient time, not exceeding thirty days, has been given him to communicate with the Vestry thereon." This does not give the Bishop a power of veto but it does give him an opportunity to express his opinion and very often to save a Vestry from making a deplorable mistake.

In addition to the requirement that "at the Bishop's visitation the Minister, Church Wardens and Vestrymen should give information to the Bishop * * * under such heads as have been previously signified to them in writing by the Bishop, it is further required that at every visitation they shall exhibit to the Bishop the parish register." While in many instances this may be only formal, it is a good provision. Many registers are not properly kept. I have known the records of a long rectorate to be written in pencil on loose pieces of paper, and in many instances, the entries in the register are not complete. The date is not there, the name is not fully written out, the Clergyman is not careful to sign the registry of every Baptism. I will therefore, in order that no invidious distinctions may be made, expect at my annual visitations to see the register of every parish and mission.

The new provision regarding Communion Alms should also be noted, especially by the lay officers of the congregations, who often ask me by what right the Clergyman claims the offerings at certain services. There has also been some confusion arising from the change from monthly celebrations to the primitive custom of Holy Communion on every Lord's Day, and also from the custom of paying subscriptions for current expenses through the weekly offertory. It is now provided that "the Alms and Contributions not otherwise designated at the Administration of the Holy Communion on one Sunday in each calendar month, and other offerings for the poor, shall be deposited with the Minister of the parish, or with such Church officer as shall be appointed by him, to be applied by the Minister, or under his superintendence to such pious and charitable uses as shall by him be thought fit. During the vacancy the Vestry shall appoint a suitable person to act as Almoner."

I also commend to the study of the laity, especially Canon 38, "on the Solemnization of Matrimony." Divorce and remarriage after divorce, have become prevalent in this country to an alarming extent. In no Christian nation is divorce permitted upon such trivial grounds and remarriage so easily accomplished. The Church sanctions and blesses the joining together in Holy Matrimony that is only to be dissolved by death. The only exception to this rule is that apparently granted by our Blessed Lord when one of the parties is guilty of the sin of Adultery. This exception the Canon recognizes, but authorizes any individual minister "to decline to solemnize any marriage." Such hindrances are also placed in the way that the number of marriages of innocent divorced people solemnized by our clergy will be very few. Some of our clergy have agreed together that they will not under any circumstances officiate at the marriage of a divorced person.

I did not think it expedient that I should sign that compact; but as I had previously in a published interview announced that I would not marry a couple one of whom had been divorced for any cause, it is evident that I take the same ground.

I cannot continue at length the study of the Canons. I suggest to the laity that they read carefully Canon 39, "Of Regulations Respecting the Laity;" Canon 43, "Of the due Celebration of Sundays," and Section 3 of Article VIII of Canon 52.

It would be well for clergy who are disposed to alter the services of the Church by interpolations or omissions to ponder carefully Article X of the Constitution of the Church. The interpolation of the Benedictus qui venit or any other alteration of the Communion Service is clearly unlawful and I have not been able for this reason to grant requests for permission to use them.

We should respect the law of the Church and be to the people examples in obedience as well as in devotion of spirit.

This Church has a mission as we said at the outset, to all sorts and conditions of men. She is sent, not to one fraction or two of the nation, but to the whole people. Perhaps she finds it easier to reach some than to reach others. The beauty and the order of her worship appeal to the refined, educated and trained mind. Her services are appreciated in the army and in the navy.

She also reaches the poor and the afflicted through her munificent gifts to charities, through her beneficent institutions and the settlements.

But, between the wealthy and highly cultured few, and the mob, there is the great mass of our American people. They are accurately called the masses, for they are many. In their hands are the destinies of the republic. They are the honest artisans, the men and women who earn a wage, who work with the hands; they are the smaller merchants, the employees of great concerns; they are the farmers, the gardeners, the fruit growers. They might be called in the parlance of England, the plain people, or the middle class, although we abhor class distinctions.

However, these are many and these are mighty. To these our Lord came. The common people heard him gladly. He was the divine commoner. Not only once, but always, He had compassion on the multitude. His severest censures were not for them, but for the selfish rich, for the arrogant religionist. He was one of the people, one of the fireside circle at Bethany, one of the considered guests at the wedding in Cana. He was not afraid to eat bread with publicans and sinners. His disciples were men who earned their living by hard labor.

And His Church comes in His name to the people. She is their champion against wrong and oppression. She is their loving mother yearning over them in sympathy, winning their hearts by intelligent ministry to their needs. They know that she understands them, respects them and is their household friend. She does not embarrass them by superior ways and condescending politeness. She comes speaking the language of the people, entering into their thoughts, taking so far as possible their point of view. She is all things to all men, if by any means she may win some, but in purity, in reverence for all that is good and worshipful, she is always herself, and her presence gives an uplift to the thought and manners of the people.

This is the ideal. These characteristics of the Church should be the characteristics of the clergy who represent her, who are her ministers. But does it ever occur to you that this Church is not here in this Middle West especially, the Church of the industrious, respectable, strong-handed mass of the plain people? Is she in touch with them, understood by them, and beloved by them? Shall we say that she cannot be their Church? Shall we abandon all hope of winning them?

On the contrary, I think that we should turn our chief thought and energy upon the problem. The great Head of the Church would undoubtedly seek them.

How shall we accomplish it? Now, there are none more appreciative and responsive than the sturdy, honest people, when that which is presented to them appeals to their common sense, their love of what is fair and just, their needs of body or soul, their sympathy with suffering and want, their inrought belief in the equality of men. The Church therefore, while standing sturdily for the truth and the order committed to her keeping, should be the Church of the People. She cannot be this by simply saying that she is so. She will be this when she is identified with the people through her clergy and laity, when she lends a hand in accomplishing moral and social reforms that they rightfully desire, when she comes to them as a friend not as a patroness, when in the spirit of Him who said, "They that be whole need not a physician but they that are sick," she through her representatives enters into the home life, and the real life of publicans and sinners that she may restore them. She will be this when by plain and simple instruction line upon line and precept upon precept, in language comprehensible by the people she makes them understand who she is, what she brings to them, what her services and her recognized symbolism means, and above all when she makes it clear that she comes not in arrogant self-assertion, but in love, in yearning desire to do good.

Above all should it be evident in our life, character and teaching that the Church stands not for licensed worldliness, not to outrage the popular sense of what constitutes the religious life, but for whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report.

Let us come in touch with the life of the people, let us go into the public schools and talk to the children, not about churchmanship always, but about what makes for noble character, good citizenship, good and sweet home life.

Let our influence be felt in all movements for better civic conditions, for the promotion of law and order on the lines laid down by the Governor of this State and by the President of this Republic.

Let us not be too much afraid to join hands with those of other religious training in rescuing the outcast and helping the poor.

Let us in the conduct of our services, among those who do not understand them, not be so much the slaves of decorum that we hesitate to disturb the order a little for the sake of bringing out the life and the spirit of the service.

If one of the brethren who sits before me will pardon a personal reference to him, I will say that his manner of conducting a service among strangers to the Church impressed me as excellent. The Confession was preceded by a few words calling the people's attention to its meaning and encouraging them to unite in saying it; there was an introduction to the Magnificat, and the Nunc Dimittis calling attention to the significance of those hymns as used in the liturgy; the creed was preceded by a short discourse upon the Creed of Christendom and the privilege of standing and reciting together the articles of faith that have come down to us through the ages.

The service was broken into fragments, but the people caught the spirit of the occasion, they understood what they were doing and saying. The effect was good.

We are, my brethren, very near the end of the fifteenth year of the life of the Diocese. Through all the services and sessions of this Council, and through the events that cluster about it run the thoughts and the purposes of an anniversary. There should be searchings of heart, confessions of failure to accomplish all that we might have done, resolutions and plans for the future. There is much to encourage us to do our best; the hard times have gone and our people are prospered. The farms, the orchards, the mines, the business carried on in our cities are yielding unprecedented returns. But prosperity will not come to the Church in this Diocese unless we create it. We have not only to pray but to work. We have not only to use the means of grace, but to give as God has prospered us, for the upbuilding of the Church. The people will not come to us; we must go to them. Few fields present more difficulties; but if we have the courage, the zeal and the generosity necessary to overcome those difficulties (and they can be overcome), we shall yet see our Church strong in numbers, mighty in influence in this great state. Our field is not a sparsely settled territory. It is teeming with people whose numbers increase with the dawning of every day. It is not a state that will retrograde; its magnificent resources are only beginning to be known and developed.

But if the Church is to grow the Churchmen in our parishes, missions and hamlets must stand together, true and brave, in their devotion to her interests, dismayed by no discouragements, suppressed by no unfriendly public sentiment, undisturbed by fears lest their allegiance to the Church may affect their business unfavorably.

We need to learn what it is to give in proportion to our means. When the man whose income is $50 a day shall give proportionately as much as the man whose income is $50 a month, and when they who have little shall not ask to be excused on that account, but shall gladly give of that little, then shall our clergy be increased in numbers, and shall go into every town and hamlet.

We ask that you will celebrate this anniversary by unprecedented pledges for our Diocesan missions. We need at least $6,000 for the year to come. Will you pledge it?

Summary.

I have officiated during the year at 125 services; have celebrated the Holy Communion 27 times; have delivered 142 sermons and addresses, have baptized 3 and have confirmed, on thirty-eight occasions, 278.

On motion of Mr. A. C. Stowell, it was Resolved, That so much of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop's address as pertains to St. Luke's Hospital be referred to a committee of three.

The Chair appointed as such Committee Messrs. A. C. Stowell, R. B. Middlebrook and A. Hamlin.

On motion of the Rev. F. A. McElwain, it was Resolved, That the former Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Clergy be continued as a committee to take care of these funds until the transfer of property to the General Clergy Relief Fund is completed.

On motion of Mr. A. C. Stowell, it was

Resolved, That all matters affecting the financial condition of the Diocese and the reports of the treasurers of the various funds be referred to the Committee on Finance, with power to examine and file auditing report with the Secretary after the adjournment of the Council.

The Rev. F. A. McElwain presented the following:

Resolved, That the title of the Constitution and Article I of the Constitution be changed by substituting the words "Kansas City" for the words "West Missouri."

Mr. Louis Motter moved the following substitute, which was lost:

Resolved, That as there appears to be some question as to the constitutional competency of this Council to remedy the defect of last year's vote, the whole matter be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

A vote was then taken by Orders on the Rev. Mr. McElwain's motion. The Chair appointed as tellers for the Clerical vote the Revs. H. L. A. Fick and R. R. Diggs, and as tellers for the Lay vote Messrs. J. W. Corley and F. C. Florance.

The vote was as follows: Clerical, 12 ayes, 2 noes, 1 blank. Lay, 25 ayes, 13 noes. The motion was therefore adopted.

The Bishop having verbally given his consent to the foregoing motion, Mr. R. B. Middlebrook presented the following, which was adopted:

It was moved that the approval of the Bishop of this Diocese to the amendment changing the name of the diocese be requested, and thereupon the Right Rev. Edward R. Atwill declared officially in open Council that he approved of said amendment as heretofore announced by him in writing. And it was moved, seconded and carried that the approval of the Bishop as announced be recorded formally in the minutes of this Council, which was accordingly done.

The Rev. J. Stewart-Smith read the following reports:

May 16th. 1905.

The Standing Committee has held four meetings during the past year.

June 20, 1904, the Committee met in Kansas City and organized by the election of the Rev. Robert Talbot, President, and the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith, Secretary.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Bishop-coadjutor-elect of East Carolina.

July 14, 1904, Mr. Douglass Henry Atwill was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders.

December 15, 1904, consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Edward Woodcock, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Kentucky, and the Rev. William T. Manning, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Harrisburg.

The request of Mr. Alfred R. Hill to be recommended for ordination to the Diaconate was refused, on the ground that Mr. Hill had been a candidate for Holy Orders only two years, and the Bishop had stated in writing that he did not request his time to be shortened, which request was declared necessary to enable the Committee to act, under Can. 7, Tit. I, Sec. iii of the Digest.

February 27, 1905, consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. James Henry Darlington, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Harrisburg.

The vacancy in the Treasurership occasioned by the death of Mr. William B. Clarke was filled by the election of Mr. Edward F. Swinney, Treasurer of the Diocese, and Mr. Swinney was requested to retain Mr. Bigalow as Custodian of the account, if possible, until the meeting of the next Council.

Respectfully submitted.

J. STEWART-SMITH, Secretary.

The Trustees of the Parochial Trust Fund met December 28, 1904, and organized by the election of the Rev. Robert Talbot, Vice President, and the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith, Secretary and Treasurer.

Consent was given to the Vestry of St. John's Church, Springfield, to place a loan of two hundred and fifty dollars on "The Mission Property" belonging to said parish.

Respectfully submitted.

J. STEWART-SMITH, Secretary.

Committee.

The Committee also recommended the following resolution:

Resolved, That the delinquency of Holy Trinity Parish, St. Joseph, be remitted.

On motion, the above report was received and adopted, together with the resolution appended thereto.

Mr. T. C. Bradley moved the following:

Resolved, That a special committee of three be appointed to consider and report to the next annual council what, if any, modification of the plan of assessment can be effectual, by which to secure an equitable distribution of the Diocesan Assessment to the several Parishes and Missions.

It was moved to amend by requiring said Committee to report at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Lost.

Mr. Bradley's resolution was then adopted, and the Chair appointed as Committee thereunder the Rev. E. H. Eckel, Mr. T. C. Bradley and Mr. J. F. Eaton.

Mr. J. F. Eaton moved that all delinquencies on assessments be remitted. Mr. C. A. Kelly moved to amend by remitting all such delinquencies over one year old, with a discount of 10 per cent on last year's delinquencies if paid by October. The motions as amended were finally adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That if quarterly payments of assessments be made within forty-five days from the beginning of the first quarter and thereafter promptly within thirty days from the beginning of each of the other three quarters, a discount of ten per cent be allowed on each payment.

Resolved, That all delinquencies prior to May 1st, 1904, be and are hereby remitted and that amounts owing for the past year, if paid by October 1st, 1905, be given a discount of ten per cent.

The Rev. Robert Talbot presented the following minute, which was unanimously adopted by a standing vote:

The Sixteenth Council of the Diocese desires to place upon record its high regard for the long and faithful services of its Treasurer, the late William Bingham Clarke. Mr. Clarke was unanimously elected to this important office at the primary council and has through all these years not only discharged in a most conscientious manner the duties of his office, but has taken the keenest personal interest in the welfare of the Diocese. For many years, when the Parishes were slack in paying their assessments, Mr. Clarke advanced the necessary funds to meet all obligations out of his own pocket, charging no interest therefor. His commodious offices in the U. S. Trust Co., were always open to the members of the Standing Committee and all other boards of the Church. His was a most charming personality. Ever courteous, gentle and thoughtful, he will be sadly missed, not only in the Church, which he loved and adorned, but in Kansas City, where he was universally regarded as a leader in all good works. May he rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon him.

ROBERT TALBOT.
CHAS. A. KELLY.
R. B. GREENE,
Committee.

Elections being in order, the Council proceeded to elect the Standing Committee. The Chair appointed the Revs. R. R. Diggs and F. A. McElwain tellers for the Clerical vote, and Messrs. H. P. Landis and Dr. H. A. Pearse tellers of the Lay vote. The Revs. R. Talbot, T. B. Foster, E. B. Woodruff and Messrs. J. T. Harding, C. A. Kelly and R. B. Greene were then elected by the following ballot:

The Bishop called the Rev. R. Talbot to the Chair.

On motion of Mr. E. C. Hamill, it was

Resolved, That the Secretary's salary be placed at $150.00 for the current year.

On motion of Mr. M. G. Harmon, it was Resolved, That the Registrar, the clergy and laity be requested to send to the Kansas City Public Library any copies of the Journals of the General Convention which they are willing to part with.

The Rev. T. B. Foster read the following:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church has had no opportunity to collate the statistics of the different boards and committees of the Diocese, or to examine with any thoroughness the parochial reports presented at this session of the Council. We would therefore be unable to give at this time anything more definite than a general impression of the condition of Church life and Church work during the past year which has been presented already in detail by the Bishop's address.

Our Diocese is hampered in its work by insufficient resources and even with its full complement of clergy is undermanned. Unfortunately the difficulty of finding suitable men for vacant Parishes and Missions is experienced here as in other Dioceses, to the great detriment of the Church.

The Diocesan Missionary Board, besides endeavoring to provide for services in the case of every vacancy, has recently arranged to have every Parish and Mission visited by a member of the Board, or an accredited representative, who is directed in that capacity to explain to the people the conditions of the Diocese, the work and the responsibilities of the Council and its different boards and committees, and above all, the demands that the Diocese makes upon the Parish or Mission, and the status of its individual account at date.

Your Committee desires to commend this effort, as being in their judgment an important step in the direction of educating the people, and especially the lay officers of our smaller Parishes and Missions, in those business affairs of the Diocese, which come before the Council each year. If the plan succeed there will be no room for the plea, so often urged during the Council sessions, that this or that Parish or Mission was not aware of its delinquency on Missionary pledge or Diocesan assessment.

Aside from this consideration, it is important to take into our confidence the smaller Parishes and Missions which, as experience shows, are rarely represented by any lay delegate on the floor of this Council. Obviously, it is to the interest of the whole Diocese, that all its members and component units should be in close touch with its affairs. Anything which tends to effect such a desirable result carries with it its own recommendation.

THEO. B. FOSTER,
THOS. AYLESBURY,
J. H. BARNARD,
T. C. BRADLEY,

Committee on the State of the Church.

On motion of the Rev. C. A. Weed, the following was adopted:

Whereas, The Rt. Rev. Edward R. Atwill, D. D., Bishop of our Diocese, will celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of his consecration to the Episcopate in October next; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of three clergymen and three laymen be appointed to take steps for a fitting celebration of the same, and that the committee be given full power to carry out such plans as, in its judgment, shall seem best.

The Chair appointed as Committee under above resolution the Revs. C. A. Weed, T. B. Foster, E. H. Eckel and Messrs. J. T. Harding, C. A. Kelly, W. H. Holmes.

On motion of the Rev. E. A. Neville, it was resolved that a Committee of three be appointed to make nominations for Trustees of the Permanent Fund for the Support of the Episcopate. The Chair appointed as such Committee the Revs. E. A. Neville and J. Stewart-Smith and Mr. Jas. C. Horton.

Mr. A. C. Stowell read the following report:

REPORT

OF COMMITTEE ON ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL.

Your Committee to whom was submitted that portion of the Bishop's address dealing with St. Luke's Hospital, desires to submit a concise statement of the affairs of that charity, as gleaned from a financial report submitted this month to its Board of Directors.

Including a balance of $114.03 cash on hand May 1st, 1904, the receipts during the year to May 1st, 1905, show a total of $6,163.91. Of this amount, the following sums were received from the sources specified:

Board	$3,390.26
Operating room	251.50
Donations	1,457.22

Expenditures have been $5,944.91, leaving a balance May 1st, $219.00. The Hospital has a floating indebtedness of $325.00.

The value of the hospital equipment is estimated to be $1,500.00, insured for $1,000.00

Particular attention is called to the good work done during the year. Out of 118 patients (75 surgical and 43 medical), fifty, or nearly one-half, have received free treatment. Eighty-six patients have been dismissed as cured or benefitted, and there have been 13 deaths. About $1,300 have been expended in the care of beneficiaries, or 667 days of free treatment have been given. The average cost to the hospital per patient has been a little over $2.00 a day.

The hospital is occupying a rented house, in many respects unsuitable, and in the near future must seek new quarters. This matter is now being considered by the Board of Directors. The most pressing need, however, is a better equipment. Many cases have been declined for lack of proper facilities. The desire and intention of the directors is to secure, if possible, in a suitable lease, a building large enough to afford accommodation for at least twenty patients, and to provide also suitable quarters for the superintendent and six nurses.

During the year the Circuit Court of this county has decided that St. Luke's Hospital is to receive the benefit of a bequest made by Sanford G. Sponable to The Church Charity Association for the benefit of All Saints' Hospital. Since this decision a very marked increase in interest and in contributions has encouraged those who have tried to keep this hospital going when there were none "so poor as to do us reverence." The election of the Bishop as president of the corporation and the choice of W. A. Rule as Treasurer seemed to have inspired additional confidence in our permanence and success. While it is largely owing to the indefatigable exertions of our secretary, M. G. Harmon, that we tided over the distressing period of inactivity which we have survived, illustrating the virtue of perseverance.

In submitting this report to the Council, your committee desires to emphasize the importance of this, the only charitable institution of our Diocese, to commend it to the interest of church people, and to ask more generous contributions for its support.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. STOWELL,
R. B. MIDDLEBROOK.

Kansas City, Mo., May 17, 1905.

On motion of Mr. R. U. Hendrick, it was Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be and is hereby authorized to borrow a sum not to exceed $2,000, if necessary, to make up any deficiency of the Diocesan Assessments.

On motion, the Council took a recess until 2 o'clock.

2 P. M.

The Council reassembled.

The Rev. E. A. Neville read the following report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE FOR NAMES FOR TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your Committe respectfully submits the following names for Trustees of the Permanent Fund for the Support of the Episcopate:

Mr. Edward F. Swinney,
Mr. Thomas B. Tomb.

EDMUND A. NEVILLE,
Chairman.
J. STEWART SMITH,
JAMES C. HORTON.

On motion of Mr. Jas. C. Horton, the rules were suspended and the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Council for the nominees named in the above report, and the ballot being so cast they were elected.

The Rev. H. L. A. Fick presented the following, which was passed:

In order to expedite the business of the Council, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to deliver his annual address at the opening service of the Council, in lieu of the sermon.

The roll was then called and pledges taken for Diocesan Missions, the list standing finally as follows:

On motion of the Rev. Robert Talbot, it was Resolved, That all delinquencies of Parishes and Missions on Missionary pledges, prior to May 1, 1904, be and are hereby remitted, and that on all amounts owing for the past year, if paid before October 1, 1905, there be given a discount of ten per cent.

The Rev. J. Stewart-Smith read the following report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

The Committee on Missions desires to urge upon the Churches of the Diocese the necessity of aggressive missionary work and its dependence upon liberal contributions, and to urge upon every Rector and Missionary regular offerings for the Board.

They recommend that the fifteenth anniversary of the Bishop's consecration be observed by a Missionary meeting and a special effort to increase the Bishop Robertson Memorial Fund.

Furthermore, that the office of Archdeacon be abolished and that the money heretofore appropriated to their support be used in placing Missionaries at fixed points, who shall be in charge of several stations.

J. STEWART-SMITH,
EDMUND A. NEVILLE,
HENRY L. A. FICK,
M. E. SCHMIDT.

On motion of Mr. A. D. Johnson, it was ordered that the above report be received and placed on file and that the last resolution recommended therein be referred to the Diocesan Missionary Board.

The Rev. T. B. Foster read the following report:

May 17, 1905.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese elected at this Council would respectfully report that they have this day met and have organized by the election of the Rev. Robert Talbot as President, and the Rev. E. B. Woodruff as Secretary.

The Rev. T. B. Foster read the following report:

REPORT

OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred a proposed addition to Sub-section 1 of Section 1, Cannon XX, would respectfully report that in their judgment the provision for credit of a fixed amount of interest—5 per cent—is not expedient. We would amend by the substitution of the words “actually earned by the sum contributed,” striking out the words that follow, and would recommend the passage of the resolutions thus amended.

For the Committee,

THEO. B. FOSTER,
Secretary.

(For proposed amendment see page 59 of this Journal.)

The report was received and, on motion of the Rev. J. K. Dunn, ordered printed in the Journal and the whole matter postponed to the next Annual Council.

Talbot, J. Stewart-Smith, T. B. Foster, D. G. Mackinnon, C. A. Weed, J. K. Dunn and Messrs. Jas. C. Horton, F. M. Hayward, A. D. Johnson, C. A. Kelly, O. E. Parsons, H. D. Ashley. The ballot being so cast, they were elected.

For the election of Delegates to the Missionary Conference of the Sixth District, at Denver, October 18th, the Chair appointed the Rev. F. A. McElwain and Mr. J. M. Lee tellers, and the following were elected: The Revs. R. Talbot, J. D. Ritchey, E. H. Eckel, D. G. Mackinnon, C. A. Weed and Messrs. T. C. Bradley, J. E. Cobb, S. W. Kniffin, C. A. Kelley, H. G. Algeo.

On motion of Mr. C. A. Kelly, it was unanimously resolved that the next Annual Council be held at Christ Church, St. Joseph.

On motion of Mr. Walter A. Landis, it was

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR.

The Registrar respectfully reports that he has received Journals from most of the Dioceses of the Church during the past year. In accordance with the directions of the last Council, he has had bound six copies of the Journal (from 1898 to 1903), three of which have been sent to libraries (at Kansas City, Joplin and Sedalia.)

APPENDIX No. 5.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

The Board has held three meetings during the year, on June 12 and December 15, 1903, and January 28, 1904. The attendance has been good and a large degree of interest shown in the missionary work of the Diocese. The following new names have been added to the Board's list: the Revs. L. R. F. Davis, C. A. Remick, S. Wilson Moran, J. H. Barnard, W. H. Haupt, C. T. Coerr and J. Wilkinson. The following have removed from the Diocese: the Revs. A. Watkins, R. A. Saunders, L. R. F. Davis and C. A. Remick.

Two archdeacons have been actively at work through the year, whose reports will be of interest. In addition to the archdeacons, the board has on its list fourteen clergymen and one lay reader. More services have been given than ever before. Lexington and Warrensburg, which for some years had only semi-monthly services, are now having them every Sunday. All the points on the board's list are now supplied except Cameron, Trenton, Maryville and Harrisonville, and these will be supplied as soon as men can be found for them. Four thousand dollars are needed to continue our work in efficiency. Let us have at least that amount pledged and paid quarterly.

The board sees with satisfaction the growing interest in the apportionment for General Missions. Let us not forget also those nearest to us, our Diocesan Missions, our own special home work of church maintenance and extension. They certainly deserve our attention and gifts.

May 17, 1904.

For the Board, JOHN K. DUNN,
Secretary.

To the Right Reverend E. R. Atwill. D. D.

BEAR BISHOP:—I take pleasure in reporting to you my work in the Central Archdeacony during the past year:

Services Held	420
Sermons and Addresses	350
Baptized, Infants	30
" Adult	16
Celebrations of Holy Communion	140
Presented for Confirmation	38
Places Minnistered to	15

Three points are now ready to be placed under a missionary, namely Pleasant Hill, Lee's Summit and Harrisonville, and it is most important in this stage of the work for greater growth in these fields, that a good man be placed in charge as soon as possible.

At Richmond where we have a lot all paid for, in a fine location, I have commenced work towards a Church building. I have raised the greater part toward this end. With a house of worship we shall be able to produce better results in our work.

I give much of my time to St. Mark's, Kansas City, and here great results have been obtained in the spiritual and temporal work of the parish. The congregations now fill the Church, and the Sunday School has about reached the hundredth mark. Improvements have been made in the building and a number of memorials given.

The Mission field is greatly in need of more frequent services, and while the diocese is unable to maintain Missionaries in the smaller places for this purpose, great assistance could be rendered by the organization of a Laymen's Missionary League. By such means, without expense to the Diocesan Missionary Board, the doors of all the Mission Churches could be kept open every Sunday. With the assistance of efficient laymen in this movement, I shall be able to produce better results this coming year, with satisfaction to the people of the smaller Missions, and the strengthening of the Church work.

Respectfully Submitted,
D. G. MACKINNON,
Archdeacon of Central District.

Kansas City, Mo., May 17, 1904.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

The Board has met twice during the year, on May 26, 1904, and Feb. 8, 1905. Meetings have not been held more often, owing to several points being for a time unsupplied, the Bishop not having been able to obtain missionaries for all the posts. He is now receiving some new men, and expects before long to have all the missionary points filled. There have been added to the Board's list, and whom we welcome to the Diocese, the following: The Revs. H. Harris, D. D., at Lamar, Webb City, etc., Archdeacon; R. A. Heath at West Plains, Mountain Grove and Fordland, and J. C. Ingham at Brookfield. The Rev. W. J. Page is soon to take charge of St. John's, Kansas City and St. Peter's, Harrisonville, and the Rev. E. N. Brun of Cameron, Trenton and Plattsburg. The Rev. Henry L. A. Fick, formerly at Boonville, has taken charge of Holy Trinity Church, St. Joseph and St. Mary's, Savannah.

The following have removed from the Diocese: The Revs. E. H. Merriman, C. T. Coerr, George L. Neide and S. W. Moran. The Revs. E. A. Neville and F. A. McElwain, having taken self-supporting parishes, are no longer on the Board's list.

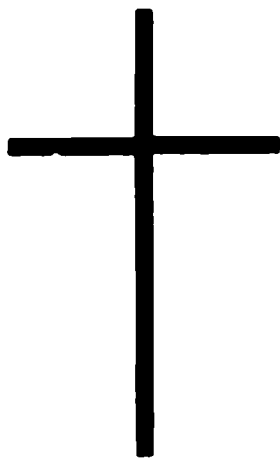

Eighteen clergy have been on the list for the year, though some only for a short time. The following have served regularly through the year: The Revs. J. H. Barnard, Neosho and Monett; R. R. Diggs, Independence, Pleasant Hill and Lee's Summit; J. K. Dunn, Warrensburg; T. G. Harper, St. Augustine's, Kansas City; D. G. Mackinnon, Archdeacon; F. A. McElwain, Marshall; J. Wilkinson, Lebanon; W. H. Haupt, Clinton, and S. W. Moran, Lexington (to April 1st). All of these (except Mr. Moran, removed from the Diocese) are still actively at work.

Our appropriation list for the last quarter, covering nearly forty points, called for the annual rate of $3,750.00, as necessary for this important home work. The Board therefore repeats its requests for liberal pledges and offerings, promptly paid each quarter.

For the Board, JOHN K. DUNN.

Secretary.

AUDITING REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

Kansas City, Mo., August 28th, 1905.

To the Right Reverend E. R. Atwill, D. D.,
Bishop of the Diocese of West Missouri.

The Committee on Finance appointed at the last Diocesan Council respectfully reports as follows:

The Committee has examined the reports, accounts and vouchers of Mr. E. F. Swinney, Treasurer of the Diocese, and finds them correct.

On May 16, 1905, the date of this report, said Treasurer had in his hands a cash balance of $1,628.87, which was made up of the following sums:

Said loans are secured by deeds of trust on real estate and the interest is paid.

The Treasurer also exhibited a note and deed of trust belonging to the trustees of the Theological Education Fund, securing a loan to A. A. Tomlinson of $1,200.00 at 6% per annum. This is secured by a deed of trust which is a first lien on real estate.

The committee also examined the report and accounts of Mr. C. H. V. Lewis, Treasurer of the Permanent Episcopal Fund, and found the same to be correct. Said report was dated July 21, 1905, and at that date the cash in hand of said Treasurer was $7,205.91, $7,200 of which has since been invested by Mr. James Mackenzie, present Treasurer, in a first real estate mortgage, bearing 6% interest. He also has an unset-

First Day.

Christ Church, St. Joseph, Mo.

Tuesday, May 15, 1906.

This being the place and time appointed for the meeting of the Seventeenth Annual Council of the Diocese of Kansas City, the Right Reverend Edward Robert Atwill, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, and a number of the clergy and laity assembled in Christ Church, St. Joseph, Mo., at 10:30 o'clock a. m. for divine service.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Robert Talbot, Rector of Trinity Church, Kansas City, who also read the Gospel. The Epistle was read by the Rev. John K. Dunn.

In accordance with the request of the last Council, the Bishop now delivered his Annual Address, as follows:

THE BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS.

Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

For the third time since the organization of the Diocese we come to be the favored guests of the hospitable church people of St. Joseph. We come with greetings and congratulations. On every hand we note indications of enterprise, accomplishment and prosperity. A new spirit has entered into the men of the city which now ranks third in this great state.

And the Church in St. Joseph is not going to lag behind. In increase of numbers it has not kept pace with the increase of population. But it is stepping out energetically now, and the clergy are planning great things. St. Marks, so long idle, is to be opened; perhaps work will begin ere long at other strategic points.

Furthermore, we note gratefully and joyfully that both Christ Church and Holy Trinity Parishes have not only paid their Diocesan dues and their pledges for Diocesan Missions, but also have paid in full their apportionment for General Missions. In this they are examples worthy of imitation by the congregations who have failed to contribute to General Missions the amounts assigned them.

I now lay before you the record of my visitations and other official acts during the past conciliar year:

June 21—At Fayette, I confirmed one and celebrated the Holy Communion.

During my vacation I officiated fourteen times at Traverse City and at Edgewood, Mich.

September 26—I presided at a parish meeting in Independence.

September 28—I granted Letters Dimissory to Revs. Alfred Reed Hill and Frank Arthur McElwain.

October 1—At Clinton, I celebrated the Holy Communion and preached. In the afternoon I met the congregation for conference about the condition of the work, which has been seriously crippled by the failure of the bank. The minister in charge presented his resignation, which I accepted, and subsequently appointed the Rev. E. P. Chittenden to the post. In the evening I preached for the first time at Windsor, where Rev. William H. Haupt has gathered a congregation of our people and of those favorable to the Church. I enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston.

October 5—I received notice of the deposition of Newberry O. Halsted, Deacon, by the Bishop of Long Island.

October 8—At Brookfield, I celebrated the Holy Communion at an early hour. During the session of the Sunday School I baptized an infant and addressed the children. I then read Morning Prayer and preached. In the afternoon I met the Vestry to consult with them about the affairs of the parish. The Treasurer agreed, with the assistance of others, to canvass the parish for subscriptions.

October 11—In anticipation of the fifteenth anniversary of my consecration as Bishop, some of the Clergy and people kindly arranged for a reception at the Coates House. It was a delightful occasion and my heart was touched by many expressions of affection and loyalty. An engrossed address was gracefully presented by Rev. Robert Talbot, President of the Standing Committee. Addresses were also made by Mr. John Harding, Judge Philips, of the Federal Court, Bishop Hendricks, of the South Methodist Church, and the Right Rev. Frank R. Millspaugh, Bishop of Kansas.

October 12—I celebrated the Holy Communion in Grace Church. The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, S. T. D., Presiding Bishop. The Bishops of Kansas and Oklahoma were also present and took part in the service. At noon I was guest at a luncheon at the University Club, with the Bishops and Clergy. Speeches were made by Bishops Tuttle, Millspaugh and Brooke, and also by Revs. Dunn; Eckel and Talbot. The latter announced the kind intention of the Clergy of the Diocese to present the Bishop with a Pastoral Staff. Announcement had also been made at the reception of the beginning of a fund for the purchase of an Episcopal Residence.

October 14—On this, the actual anniversary day, it gave me great pleasure to consecrate, for the first new congregation I gathered after my arrival in Kansas City, a fine stone church, which had been completed without debt. It was also most gratifying to have with us on that occasion as celebrant Bishop Tuttle, who presided at my consecration fifteen years before in the dear old parish church in Toledo. The request for consecration was read by the Rector, Rev. Wiley J. Page. The Instrument of Donation was read by the Warden, Mr. B. Fradenberg. After the services, at the time of the luncheon, Mrs. Page, the Rector's wife, in the name of the congregation, with her usual charming grace of manner, made a short address and presented me with a gold pen, suitably inscribed.

October 15—At St. George's Church, Kansas City, I preached. In the evening, at Trinity Church, I made an address and Bishop Tuttle preached. My heartfelt thanks are tendered to all who devised all the delightful incidents of the observance of the anniversary, to those who took part and to those who came from a distance to be present.

October 20—I met the Directors of St. Luke's Hospital.

October 22—I read service morning and evening and preached twice. I also conferred with the people with a view to the more vigorous prosecution of the work there.

October 29—At Trinity, Kansas City, I preached in the morning. In the afternoon there was a rally of Sunday School children in the same place. Rev. J. D. Ritchey, Rev. Robert Talbot and I addressed them. It is very gratifying to note the increasing interest in this branch of Church work wherein our hope for the future lies.

October 31—I accepted Rev. Robert B. Evatt, of Brookfield, as a postulant for Holy Orders and appointed him Lay Reader.

November 1—At Carrollton, I celebrated the Holy Communion and preached.

November 2—At the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, in St. George's Church, Kansas City, I celebrated the Holy Communion and made an address. Rev. Edmund A. Neville preached the sermon.

November 3—I appointed as Committee under the resolutions adopted by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, Rev. Edward H. Eckel, Rev. Everett W. Couper, Mr. H. D. Ashley, Mr. W. A. Landis, Mr. Benjamin B. Lee.

November 5—At Chillicothe, I took part in the service, celebrated the Holy Communion, preached twice, confirmed three and addressed them.

November 6—At Hamilton, I celebrated the Holy Communion. The church I found in need of paint and other repairs. I contracted with workmen to put it in good condition. At Cameron I attended the services and sessions of the Northern Convocation and made an address.

November 7—In attendance upon the Convocation and celebrated the Holy Communion.

November 8—In Christ Church, St. Joseph, I took part in the evening service and confirmed one.

November 10—At Lexington, I read service and preached. Presided at a parish meeting convened to ascertain what could be done toward securing a Rector. Some doubled their subscriptions and a committee was appointed to canvass and report to me after a few days. It was a great pleasure to meet there Mrs. John Reed, of Lexington, Ky., who is still the devoted friend and generous benefactor of our Lexington.

November 12—At Sedalia, I preached, confirmed seventeen and addressed them. In the afternoon I laid the corner stone of the parish house that is in process of erection and made an address. Addresses were also made by the Rector, the Mayor of the city and Mr. D. H. Smith. I received the gift of a beautiful silver trowel, appropriately inscribed, from Mrs. Dexter. In the evening I went with the Rector to the field of a new mission that he is working up with his usual indomitable energy in East Sedalia. We took the choir over in a stage and had a fine service in a large hall. Addresses were made by the Rector, Rev. J. K. Dunn, Rev. C. R. Stearns and myself.

November 13—At Boonville, I was pleased to welcome the new Rector, the Rev. C. R. Stearns, who is not a stranger among us, having done good work at Lebanon some years ago. Mr. Neville went over with me, and the new clergyman at Marshall, Rev. Frank A. Joseph, came. We welcomed Mr. Stearns, had a rousing service and all made addresses.

November 14—Mr. Neville and Mr. Stearns went with me to Fayette. We had a good service in the evening. I preached, confirmed two and addressed them.

November 15—I returned to Sedalia to confirm a lady who was prevented by an accident from presenting herself with the class on Sunday.

November 19—Have made a long run of some four hundred miles from Sedalia to West Plains. I took part in the morning service, confirmed seven and addressed them. I also celebrated Holy Communion at an early hour. This same evening I took part in the service at Mountain Grove and confirmed two.

November 20—Another long leap to Lamar. I made many calls upon our own people and other citizens of this pleasant and prosperous city. During the afternoon I called a meeting of the men and we purchased the South Methodist Church, situated near the center of the town, upon a lot one hundred and ninety-six feet deep. It is an excellent building, and we hope for a large increase in the congregation as soon as we can secure a competent clergyman. In the evening I read service and preached.

November 21—At Nevada, I took part in the service and preached. Mr. Neville came over and did much to make my visit a success.

November 22—At Rich Hill, I baptized an infant and inspected the church. I found it dilapidated, the home of birds and vermin. The town has declined, and our people, except three, have moved away or have died. I finally consented to the sale of the building which I have for several years opposed. In the evening, at Butler, I read service and preached. I also baptized and confirmed a young lady. At a meeting of the congregation I urged the immediate securing of a sufficient subscription list to enable me to appoint a clergyman to hold services once or twice each month.

November 23—At Aurora, a mining town of some ten thousand people, I opened the new church with appropriate services. It was a stormy night, the wind blew half a gale and the rain came down in torrents. Nevertheless, we had quite a good congregation, and it was a very happy occasion for Mr. G. C. Shaw and his wife, who have carried through the building of the church against what seemed insuperable difficulties. The building is in good proportion, well lighted and bright. There is a porch and a spacious robing room.

November 24—At Aurora, in the new church, I celebrated the Holy Communion. Afterwards, in a private house, I administered the Holy Communion to an invalid. In the evening I read service and preached at Monett. Presided at a meeting of the congregation and inaugurated a plan for the payment of the debt.

November 25—Still at Monett. I reinsured the church building and began arrangements for an especial service in the near future to celebrate the payment of the debt.

November 26—at Carthage, I took part in the service and preached. In the afternoon I officiated at Webb City. I also baptized an infant and discussed plans for the furtherance of the work. In the evening, at Joplin, another mining town, I preached, confirmed two and addressed them.

December 3—At Springfield, I found Christ Church enlarged and improved. The chancel has been moved back far enough to permit of the extension of a spacious choir beyond the rear wall of the church. The platform for the choir, formerly projecting into the main body of the building, has been removed, giving space for several new pews. A new Guild House has been erected where there are closets for choir vestments, a fine room for rehearsals and also a room for the various parochial societies. Altogether, the improvements are excellent. I celebrated the Holy Communion, dedicated the new chancel, preached, confirmed fourteen and addressed them. The Rector, Rev. Albert R. Llwyd, is beginning to see the results of his faithful work. In the evening, at St. John's, I preached, confirmed eleven and addressed them. The people of this congregation are working together splendidly under the new Rector, Rev. Everett W. Couper; the Mission, for some time closed, is again in operation.

December 6—At Warrensburg, I found the Northern Convocation in session. I took part in the evening service, confirmed two and made an address on Missions.

December 9—Call a clergyman and confer with one regarding work in the Diocese.

December 17—At Aurora, I opened the Sunday School, read service and preached. At Monett, I read service and preached. Much rejoicing over provision for paying the debt.

December 24—I preached at St. Mark's, Kansas City.

Rev. H. Harris has been dismissed to the Diocese of Springfield.

Rev. J. C. Ingham has been transferred to the Diocese of Missouri.

Before proceeding to the further consideration of our Diocesan affairs we pause to note the death of the venerable Bishop of Oregon, The Right Reverend Benjamin Wistar Morris, D.D. In order of consecration he stood next to our Presiding Bishop, but in age was his senior, having lived eighty-seven years. For thirty-eight years he has been a true and faithful Missionary Bishop.

On the 9th of November, 1905, the Right Rev. Thomas F. Davies, D.D., Bishop of Michigan, went to his rest after an Episcopate extending over a little more than sixteen years. Scholarly in mind, devout in spirit, gentle and loving in disposition, he won the hearts of all who knew him well. Happier, perhaps, among his books in the library than on the rough and trying journeying of the visitations, he conscientiously performed the duties of his office until enfeebled by advancing years and failing health. As he breathed his last the Convention was assembling for the election of a Coadjutor. The young and vigorous man chosen is now the Bishop and so the work goes on.

The outlook is encouraging; the opportunity for effective work has never in the history of the Diocese been as good. But we need more men, and money to support them. Your pledges for diocesan Missions should be very much increased. I have issued a circular indicating how much the increase should be.

and after reducing the Communicant List of each congregation have taken that as a guide to the apportionment I have suggested. I hope this matter has received serious consideration and that you have come to the Council prepared to pledge the amount suggested. A great responsibility rests upon us: we should not only strengthen the posts we now hold but we are bound to escape the reproach of suffering opportunities for the extension of the Church within our borders to pass unimproved. Some have passed already. Others are waiting.

Growth.

Three new churches have been completed during the past year. St. John's, Kansas City, is a substantial stone building of churchly architecture, well proportioned and conveniently arranged. St. Paul's, Kansas City, also of stone, is dignified in its simplicity of design and the interior is most pleasing. The altar and reredos, erected in memory of Mr. Geo. W. Lee, the lecturn in memory of Mr. Dent Yates, the fine organ and other gifts constitute an elegant equipment. The Rector's spacious study and guild room are adjuncts that will be most useful in the workings of the Parish.

Not so large nor so costly, but attractive and no doubt as precious in the estimation of the Lord is our little Mission Church at Aurora, erected without debt, and waiting for the Missionary.

At Sedalia a new Parish House has been erected and at Carthage one is to be erected during the summer.

At Lamar a church has been purchased of the South Methodists and the old church building is to be used for a Parish House.

The debt on the Church at Monett has been paid. Our Mission Churches are generally in good condition and insured against fire and tornado.

St. Luke's Hospital has been placed under the control of the Church Charity Association and rents quarters at the corner of Euclid Avenue and Eleventh Street. An addition has been erected containing an excellent operating room and a number of well lighted and well ventilated rooms for patients. These rooms have been furnished by the various Parishes in Kansas City, and the Hospital is equipped with modern and approved appliances. We desire to secure the property for the Church and are endeavoring to raise twenty thousand dollars for that purpose. A portion of this sum has been contributed. We commend this institution to you as worthy of your interest and your gifts. It will be under the management and spiritual care of the Church, and within its walls the sick who have no money to pay for attendance will receive it freely.

The Archdeacon.

Under Section 6 of Canon viii, I have appointed Rev. J. A. Schaad Archdeacon of the Diocese. The first suggestion of the appointment and the first money pledged for the salary came from the Church Club, and I trust that the pledge from that excellent body of men will be renewed from year to year.

In order that there may be a clear understanding of the position of the Archdeacon I will quote here the agreement between us as to his duties:

"The Archdeacon shall be charged with the duty of visiting the Mission Stations and the vacant Parishes, and, with the consent of the clergy in charge, the other Parishes receiving missionary aid, to ascertain their condition, and to give such advice as may be required, reporting the result of his inquiries and observations to the Bishop. It shall be also his duty to stir up an increased missionary interest and zeal, and to urge more liberal offerings for the work of Church Extension. He shall make an effort to secure subscriptions for the missionary work of the Diocese to be turned into the Diocesan Missionary Fund.

"It shall also be his duty, so far as possible, to visit and hold services in places where the Church is unknown, or where we have as yet no established stations. He may, at his discretion, visit a few points at regular intervals, demanding of them a stipulated sum to be paid to the Diocesan Board of Missions."

Candidates for Holy Orders.

Where are the young men, native born, who seek this highest of all vocations, the Sacred Ministry? We need more. We need the best, and the Holy Order is worthy of the best. Whatever some in this commercial age would have you believe to the contrary, the work of the Ministry demands the consecrated talent of manly men; it develops noble qualities; it needs heroes who are willing to endure self-sacrifice, to purify themselves, to endure hardness in the prosecution of a high and noble purpose. They are not useless burdens upon society. They are bound by their solemn vows to do their utmost to rescue their brethren from their sins, to maintain high standards of morality, to promote peace and good will among men, to redeem the time because the days are evil. They are the benefactors of their race.

Fathers, mothers! What do you propose for your boys? Would you not do well to consecrate them to the Lord in the work of the ministry?

Brethren of the Clergy, do you watch for fit persons to serve in the Sacred Ministry of the Church? Do you present the claims of the Church upon them? Do you on the third Sunday in Advent, or at any other time during the year, set forth the blessings as well as the claims of the ministry with direct reference to your young men?

Advent.

And stopping a moment to dwell upon Advent: Is it not a season of the Church Year of which more might be made? The solemn thoughts then set before us are strong incentives to self-examination and amendment of life. Would it not be worth while to have more than Sunday sermons on "the last things" and a few Advent hymns? Is it not a time to multiply services, to awaken the sleepers and to hold missions? The Diocese is overrun with evangelists, some good, some bad. However, harmful revivals may be in some regards they do appeal to the rank and file of the people and they do gather in souls. Some may backslide, and the last state of some may be worse than the first; but it still remains true that these services increase permanently the membership of the denominations, and that many are lost to the Church who might be retained or gathered in. Now, we do not need to adapt the Church to these conditions. The time honored observance of Advent admirably meets the case. At the opening of the Ecclesiastical Year, with our minds drawn to the consideration of death, the judgment and the dreadful separation of the evil from those who are saved we have the very best opportunity for a revival of the right sort.

Confirmation.

While there have been more confirmed during the past year than during the previous year, there should have been a greater number. Of course in some cases the absence of clergy accounts for the absence of confirmees. We have good hope that the min-istrations of the Archdeacon and of the clergy, whom we may, by your generous offerings be able to send to the vacant posts, will encourage a much larger number to present themselves during the coming year. In all the congregations there would no doubt be considerable advantage resulting from the formation of two classes.

The best time for beginning a new class is immediately after the Confirmation, when some are regretting that they did not come, and others are aroused by the impressiveness and beauty of the service. It is my desire to make two visitations to each parish and mission every year, but for the larger parishes with settled rectors I shall not make a second appointment unless there are classes waiting or some other especial duty to be performed. I am glad to note that in several of the larger parishes there were this year quite good classes, and I am also glad to know that some of the clergy do not excuse themselves from further attention to their candidates when the Confirmation is over, but by communicants' classes or in some other way keep them under surveillance and instruction. This is most important. Little advantage remains for the parish or the confirmees if the members of the class fall away and are absorbed in the worldly, teeming multitude. Like Apollos, while they are fervent in the Spirit, they need to be instructed in the way of God more perfectly, and that they may form the habits of the churchly life they need to be reminded again and again of duty; they need the guidance and the leading and the encouragement that the true pastor gives. If a parish is so large that the priest cannot keep in close touch with each of his communicants it is too large. More important in the building of character than even the public sermon is that pastoral care which is moulding day by day the souls of his people, filling their minds more and more with the principles that underlie the Churchman's life, strengthening faltering resolves, inciting to fresh enthusiasms. Oh, to do this well, demands the highest consecration of ourselves, never failing sense of our duty to the souls committed to our charge and continual replenishing of the grace that enables us with perpetual might.

Offerings for General Missions.

I cannot but speak again as I have in years past plainly and urgently about General Missions. I am humiliated by the reports that come month by month from the Missions House showing how little has been sent from this Diocese. It is true that two-thirds of our congregations are dependent upon missionary aid for the maintenance of their clergy and that of the one-third who pay their own bills only nine raise for all purposes a total annual expenditure of over two thousand dollars; only three report over five thousand a year for all purposes. Nevertheless, we are able to give more than we do for the blessed work of extending Christ's Kingdom in the world, and I do not believe that our work at home will prosper as it might until we rise to the performance of our duty to General Missions. I am persuaded that systematic effort by the clergy would bring much greater results. The people need information about the Mission Fields and instruction regarding their duty to make offerings for Missions. It rests with you, my brethren, to see that they not only are frequently informed and exhorted, but also that an offering is duly announced and taken. Will you, during the conciliar year, now beginning, make an honest, earnest and persistent attempt to put your congregations as Bishop Doane expresses it, "not on the honor roll but on the duty roll," of those who give for the extension of the privileges of the Church to the whole world?

The secret of success in raising any large amount for any purpose is to reach the individual. Let us try to do this by personal pledges to be paid at stated times.

Civic Reform.

We cannot but utter our word of thankfulness and appreciation for the rescue of our cities from the evil of open saloons on the Lord's Day by the determined action of our Governor, and generally for his prompt and thorough enforcement of laws that have been too long a dead letter. The decrease of Sunday crime and disorder since the closing of places where intoxicants are sold is remarkable.

Missouri, that for a generation has, among those who did know her well, borne the reproach of disorderliness that died with the outlaws who promoted it forty years ago, is now regarded as a leader in the promotion of law and order.

The brave effort that has been made by our attorney-general to uncover, punish and restrain the corruptions of corporations doing business within the borders of our state, while they defy the law, is most gratifying to her citizens, and will tend, we are confident, to promote prosperity, confidence and self respect among us. When any laws on the statute book are habitually ignored the standards of honor and honesty are lowered, the spirit of lawlessness in all things is encouraged, the tone of public sentiment is debased, and the individual conscience vacillates. To obey is better than sacrifice. This is true of the citizen no less than of the Churchman. Obey, and if the law is good you will thereby advantage yourself while discharging loyal duty. Obey, and if the law is bad the disadvantage of yourself and other law abiding citizens will hasten its repeal.

Lawlessness.

We cannot condemn in too strong terms the resort to what is commonly known as lynching. It is a form of lawlessness that not only frequently murders the innocent, but debases the perpetrators, awakening the savage passions that Christian civilization has subdued and restrained, but has not utterly expunged.

Our chief rulers, the President of these United States and the Governor of this state, are men of notable integrity, prompt to execute justice and to maintain truth; their precept and example are uplifting the standards of righteousness and equity, and while every citizen of this republic has a right to the benefit of all that may honestly be urged in his defense, public sentiment strongly condemns the use of unrighteous methods to defeat the course of justice; the courts may be trusted to mete out such punishments as criminals deserve and there is no excuse for resort to unusual methods for the punishment of even such beastly crimes as create a thirst for vengeance in the bosom of every manly man. But the days of Knighthood are over. Now, we best do our duty to the state and to our families by making good use of our ballots to clothe with judicial ermine men whom we can trust in an emergency and always to punish the guilty, and as Churchmen do well to bring to bear upon the ignorant, dissolute and dangerous classes all those holy influences that tend to purify, develop and uphold a high standard of character making them a law unto themselves.

Loyalty.

The Faith, meaning the sum and substance of things to be believed as essential and absolutely true, has existed well defined through the ages all along since the times of the apostles, the fathers and the general councils of the Church of Christ.

It has been revered as the gift of God to men, revealed as the foundation whereon have been erected the institutions of the Church, the hopes of believers and the characters of the saints.

Upon this rests as upon a sure foundation the beautiful and venerable structures of the Civitas Dei. Should that foundation be upheaved and thrown into chaos, or should it disintegrate and sink into the abyss of the unknown these structures would topple and fall as did the homes and the public buildings of stricken San Francisco reeling upon the quaking earth.

There are in our times many tremors of opinions that once seemed like the immovable Rock of Ages. Some opinions, whereon men built, have disappeared, and whatever of trust or hope has rested upon them has been shaken—perhaps destroyed. But we are still confident that, although all human theory and opinions were destroyed, there are things which cannot be shaken that will remain, the truth, that is God-given, the structures that he has guided men to build upon, the eternal truth—these will remain. That the mint in San Francisco, erected by the government of the land, and storing its treasures, was unharmed by the earthquake, may have been accidental. It may have been due to its foundation and construction.

But we have no shadow of doubt that the Church, erected by the apostles, guided by the Divine Son of God, and holding the treasures of the Kingdom He has established, will endure when the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll and the elements shall melt with fervent heat.

In the contemplation of the things that we Christian folk believe, it is not in all cases easy to distinguish between venerable opinions of men and the eternal verities of the God-given Faith. And that we may be assisted to arrive at certainty, or a greater degree of certainty, in making the distinction between God's truth and variable opinions whose perpetuation or destruction is of no great moment, we are patient with, and watch with interest the researches of reverent higher critics.

When they have ceased to oscillate and stand steady upon certain conclusions, accepting a residuum of truth as worthy even of their belief, we may hold with even greater confidence the articles of the faith that in the search light or under the microscope have stood the test.

With that irreverent and destructive criticism which rejects recklessly and upon insufficient evidence one article and another of the Christian Faith, proclaiming the decadence of their Faith with ghoulish glee, we have no sympathy.

Even the results of reverent criticism cause pain and anxiety to those who are led to abandon some cherished views, that the forefathers thought to be of God, and to take new points of view. Much more does the work of the destructive critic harass souls that without due consideration accept his conclusions. But the reasons for distrusting him become more convincing. Many of his assumptions have drifted from our vision like passing clouds and the sun still shines on. Some of the more honest of his kind have already confessed that they jumped at unwarranted conclusions. Upon insufficient or distorted evidence they cried that all was lost when all was not lost.

Devout thinkers are dismissing their alarm. Bishop Doane tells of a conversation with one of the most learned and noted Scotch theologians, who, speaking with him of higher criticisms, said: "You know the wave struck Scotland before it came to England. But with us it is subsiding and we are settling down upon the old acceptance of the Scriptures," I am surprised, he said, "to find America so much impressed by German writers. It is because you are so far away from Germany, that you have not the right perspective. If you were as near them as we are, you would measure them more justly. Your own Church of England scholars, Lightfoot, Wescott, Sanday and Driver are vastly superior."

And it is profoundly true that there is a depositum of Faith that we so confidently believe that we have no fear, but sit calmly by while the winds of thought shift and whistle about, and tidal waves of error dash themselves against it as against a rock.

The Bishop of Birmingham, in a sermon preached at St. Mary's, Oxford, tells of this Faith in sentences so strong and clear that I adopt them as far better than any I could frame.

"I have tried to face the question: In an age of change and criticism and new knowledge, what are we to regard as permanent Christianity? What are we to regard as the permanent faith for which we are to contend to death—any advance out of which, to use St. John's phrase, is only advance along a road which separates from God and Christ? I reply, first of all, the faith summarized in the Catholic Creeds—that faith in God and man and man's destiny; in the incarnation and the person of Christ and the accompanying miracles, and the eternal triune Being of God, disclosed in Christ's revelation. Beyond that, I am not now inquiring whether there be anything more of equal value. But that first of all and every part of it. And my reason is because in a remarkable manner it obeys all those three tests which I may restate in a different order. First, that the whole faith is historically identified in all its parts with historical Christianity. It comes to us with the whole weight of Christian authority. Secondly, this is not mere authority. We discover in the articles thus proposed by authority a most convincing sequence of ideas. It is not a number of isolated dogmas, but one view, coherent and indissoluble. Thirdly, when we approach the historical evidence we find it (at the points material to our present inquiry) cogent in a high degree. It supports and justifies our belief that the facts on which our faith rests really occurred. And if the mind is already furnished with the ideas which render it susceptible to the evidence, or, to put it in other words, if it is free from hostile prejudices which belong to another set of ideas, it will not fail to find the evidence convincing."

Now then, here comes a clergyman, who having dabbled in the new investigations that are made in our day, and having noted the premises of the argument against the Faith of the Church without verifying them, says, I have come to the conclusion that the summary of this Faith contained in the Apostles' Creed is a later upgrowth, unwarranted by the facts that really occurred. I do not believe and cannot teach my people to believe in the virgin birth of Jesus of Nazareth; I do not believe in the resurrection of the Christ who died upon the cross; I do not believe such and such other statements of the creed; but I intend to hold my commission as a Priest of the Church and I defy the Ecclesiastical Authorities to put me out.

Now if he has honestly arrived at these conclusions, we may deplore his decadence and pray for his restoration to a sound faith, but we may not torture him; we may not blame him for the opinions upon which his mind has seized. But, how can he dare on Christmas day or Easter Day to preach his unbelief and a few moments later say the Proper Preface in the Communion office; How can he presume to repeat in solemn asseveration the Apostles' or the Nicene Creed? Is he fulfilling his vow to minister the doctrine and sacraments and the discipline of Christ as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received the same?

When in the solemnities of his ordination he said, "I will do so by the help of the Lord," there was a new and specific obligation created that did not rest upon him before. He is sent forth to preach and teach not his own views but doctrine as this Church hath received the same. Of course, there is some latitude of construction and deduction anticipated, and reconcilable with the fundamental verities held by the Church, but those verities one continuing to minister as an officer of this Church must in consistency and honesty hold and teach.

Lord's Day Obligations.

The Lord's day is becoming among us, the railway's day, theatre's day, Golf's day, Guest's day, every sort of day but that which its sacred name implies. The percentage of our own people attending divine service on the Lord's Day morning is not large. We are ashamed and confounded when we note the handful present at afternoon or evening service. There is a terrible Zeit Gheist abroad that dulls the conscience and lures the faithful even, away from the sacred duties of God's holy day. What shall we do in this sad emergency? What ought the clergy to do? Ought they to humor this tendency, to neglect and countenance it by diminishing the number of services? Ought they to cease operations in the Churches after Sunday at about one o'clock. I know that some conscientious clergy think so, and I give a fatherly warning against it, with a little hesitation, because I would not say a word that would reflect upon the fidelity of my good and faithful friends. But may there not be some soul seeking in vain a place to worship God, as the eventide of God's day draws on? Are we discharging in full the duties of our office if that single soul is denied the privilege she craves? Should we not hold up a high and noble standard whether the people will or no? Should not our churches, wherein considerable capital is invested, be used to the full for the benefit of the communities where we live and minister? Should we not go out into the highways and hedges and compel by loving insistency a congregation in the evening of another sort than we have in the morning? Would not especial services, as different as the Church allows from those of the morning, and sermons, addressed to special classes—to young men, to young women, to parish organizations, draw in souls to whom we might minister? • Shall we not then have sung the most winning and inspiring music?

Shall we not stand firm and bring our people up to the standard set for us by the Church? Shall we not strive to make our Churches centers of power that shall illuminate souls and set in motion their dormant energies?

If we relax a little to meet the popular demand will the people drop a little lower? Will they not ask for less and less frequent services?

But the real responsibility for this sad state of affairs rests not upon the clergy alone. It rests upon or rather springs from the lay communicants of the Church who should be patterns of good works and diligent in attending divine service, to discharge their own duty to God, and to find nourishment for their own souls. Where are the classes that have been confirmed? Where are the Wardens and Vestrymen?

What says the Canon of our own Diocese? "It is hereby declared to be the duty of all persons who may be honored by their fellow parishioners with the office of vestrymen, and who thus become representatives of the parish, to faithfully endeavor to be worthy exemplars in all church work and duty, and in attendance upon the services of the Church."

What says our general Canon? "All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, by regular participation in the public worship of the Church, by hearing God's Word read and taught, and by other acts of devotion and works of charity, using all godly and sober conversation."

Whatever the attractions of the services of your parish church; whatever the inattractiveness of it from the human point of view, here stands your duty writ large. Fidelity in these duties, because they are duties, strengthens the fibre of Christian character.

The Calamity of San Francisco.

Our hearts were sad when the news of the great disaster came, and we thought with sympathy, not only of the many suffering and homeless people, but of the cares of the Bishop who looked out upon devastated churches, impoverished congregations; the results of years of sacrifice and labor gone. I asked you to pray for the Bishop and his people. You did so. I also asked an offering for his special fund. Offerings that have come into my hands for this fund and have been forwarded to the Bishop are as follows:

Holy Trinity, St. Joseph.....	$11.11
St. Mary's, Savannah.....	4.70

Before I close, I must say a single word of gratitude to the members of our diocesan branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. With even more interest and enthusiasm than ever they have contributed to the extension of the Church in this Diocese. Their sympathy, their prayers and gifts have cheered the heart of their Bishop and have furthered the work. While they are auxiliary to the General Board of Missions and possibly it would be more in order did all their offerings go through the headquarters of the Auxiliary for work outside the Diocese, stress of circumstances compel us to rely upon them for aid in the mission field apportioned to us. They have been sometimes our life-saving station. Without them the little boats laboing in a heavy sea with insufficient crews would have gone down.

I acknowledge most gratefully the gift of a beautiful altar cross of carved and burnished brass for use in the Bishop's private chapel, if such there be at any time in the future. It is presented by Mr. Oscar Luetke, of New York.

I renew my expressions of gratitude for the Pastoral Staff, the gift of the clergy of the Diocese.

Rev. Charles A. Weed and Rev. E. B. Woodruff made a thorough canvass of large portions of the Diocese, with kindly persistency, urging the smaller congregations to unite in the effort to gather a fund for the purchase of an Episcopal Residence. Printed appeals were also circulated in the larger cities, and while the effort has not been successful, I desire to record my grateful appreciation of all that was done.

The New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society and The Bishop White Prayer Book Society of Philadelphia, have again made valuable donations of Prayer Books and Hymnals for use in our Missions. We are grateful for these helpful gifts and I wish that our clergy would respond by taking an occasional offering if not a regular one, for the work of these benevolent institutions.

The General Board of Missions still lends a hand in our work among our white and colored populations. We thankfully receive the aid and spread it over as much ground as possible.

May the blessing of God be upon you as you deliberate and plan for the extension of His Kingdom and may the Holy Spirit give us a right judgment in all things.

*One clergyman counted by mistake last time; correct number for last year was 30.

At the close of divine service the Bishop took the chair and called the Council to order in the Sunday School room of Christ Church.

The Chair appointed the Rev. Robert Talbot and Mr. E. C. Hamill, Committee on the Credentials of Lay Delegates, Mr. James C. Horton, Diocesan Treasurer, pro tem, and Mr. A. C. Stowell, Missionary Treasurer, pro tem.

The following visiting clergy were escorted to the Chair and introduced to the Council: The Rev. Messrs. R. W. Clark, D. D., of Detroit, Mich.; R. H. Hulse, of New York, and J. A. Schaad, late of the Diocese of Michigan.

The Council took a recess until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

2:30 P. M.

The Council re-assembled after recess.

The Committee on Credentials made report, and the names of the Lay delegates being called, twenty-eight answered to their names and took their seats. (See list of Lay Delegates, page xiv.)

A canonical quorum being present, the Council proceeded to business. On motion of Mr. M. G. Harman, the rules were suspended, and the Assistant Secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the Council for the Rev. John K. Dunn as Secretary. The ballot being so cast, he was elected, and announced the appointment of the Rev. John R. Atwill as Assistant Secretary.

The Chair announced the appointment of the following:

On motion of the Rev. E. A. Neville, the Secretary was instructed to send a telegram of greeting to the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Missouri, meeting this day in Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. M. G. Harman presented the following circular:

PLEDGES FOR DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

To The Clergy and Congregations:

We need Pledges amounting to $4,300 to carry on the work with reasonable activity. Shall we have them? Shall we make this a great year in the history of the Diocese? Shall there be a strengthening of the posts now occupied, and progress into new territory? It rests with you, the churchmen and the churchwomen of this fertile and prosperous land included within the borders of the field for which the Divine Hand of the Church holds us responsible. It is your precious privilege to further the work of the Lord, to extend the Kingdom of the Living God. Come to the help of the Lord against the mighty forces of wordliness and sin. Make us glad with your gifts that will enable to rise and go forward.

I ask the congregations to make pledges for the following amounts:

CHURCHES.
Blackburn	$ 8.00	St. Paul's	450.00
Boonville	65.00	Trinity	400.00

Marshall	40.00	Versailles	5.00
Monett	10.00
			Total. $4,302.00

These pledges are larger than you have made in the past, but you can make them and pay them if you will. We ask you to do something unusual and remarkable. You ought to do it. The Church ought not to be left to struggle along barely "holding its own." It should increase and multiply.

Talk over this matter before your delegates come to the Council and authorize them to pledge the congregations for the amount indicated. Then let individual pledges, Sunday School pledges and pledges of all parish organizations, except the Auxiliary, be made toward these pledges, and be paid to the parish and mission treasurers. I have based these amounts upon the number of communicants in each congregation, minus a considerable reduction, to allow for families where there are several communicants and only one bread winner.

EDWARD R. ATWILL,
Bishop.

Mr. Harman then moved the following resolution, which was unanimously carried:

Resolved, That this Council hereby ratify and confirm the appeal of the Bishop for $4,300 for Mission work in this Diocese, and that the foregoing circular styled "Pledges for Diocesan Missions" be published in the Journal and that the Churches and Missions therein named be and are hereby requested to adopt the amounts assigned to them by the Episcopate as their pledges for Missions, and to use all the suggestions of the Episcopate therein made to raise the amount assigned to them.

On motion of Mr. M. G. Harman it was Resolved, That the portion of the Bishop's Address dealing with St. Luke's Hospital be referred to a committee of five.

The Chair appointed as such committee the Rev. Messrs. T. B. Foster and J. Stewart-Smith and Messrs. M. G. Harman, P. Toll and S. W. Kniffin.

On motion of the Rev. E. H. Eckel it was Resolved, That the Diocesan Missionary Board be requested to appoint a Sunday School Advent offering for Diocesan Church Extension and to furnish the clergy with mite boxes for the purpose, the contents of which shall be credited to the Parochial apportionment for Diocesan Missions.

Mr. John F. Eaton read the following, which, on motion, was adopted, including recommendation:

 Committee.

The Committee also recommended the adoption of the same plan as last year for the collection of assessments (see Journal of 1905, page 62).

The Rev. E. H. Eckel read the following, which was adopted:

REPORT

OF COMMITTEE ON MODIFICATION OF THE PLAN OF ASSESSMENTS.

The special committee appointed under the resolution of Mr. Bradley (Journal of 1905, page 62) "to consider and report to the next annual council what, if any, modification of the plan of assessment can be made effectual by which to secure an equitable distribution of the Diocesan Assessment to the several parishes and missions," respectfully begs leave to report as follows:

The committee has taken the subject referred to it under consideration and believes the contemplated modification of the present plan of assessment to be impracticable until such time as the several parishes and missions which are now for a large part of the time without regular services shall have been supplied with clergy. The committee therefore offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

EDWARD HENRY ECKEL.
 T. C. BRADLEY,
 JOHN F. EATON.

In the absence of the Treasurer, Mr. John F. Eaton read the following, which was received and referred to the Committee on Finance:

On motion of Mr. John F. Eaton it was Resolved, That all delinquencies of Parishes and Missions on assessments and on Missionary pledges, prior to May 1, 1905, be and are hereby remitted.

The Rev. E. B. Woodruff read the following, which was adopted:

REPORT

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE, DIOCESE OF KANSAS CITY, MAY 15, 1906.

The Standing Committee held five meetings during the past year.

May 17, 1905, the Committee met and organized by the election of the Rev. Robert Talbot, President, and the Rev. Edwin B. Woodruff, Secretary.

June 7, 1905, Mr. Alfred Reed Hills was recommended to ordination to the Holy Order of Deacons.

June 30, 1905, consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick F. Johnson, Assistant Missionary Bishop-elect of the jurisdiction of South Dakota.

January 16, 1906, Robert Bagley Evans was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Edward M. Parker, Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Diocese of New Hampshire; John Newton McCormick, D. D., Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Diocese of Western Michigan; the Rev. William Walter Webb, D. D., Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Diocese of Milwaukee, and the Rev. Charles Davil Williams, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Michigan.

January 24, 1906, the Committee consented to give a quit claim deed to Frederick Bonfils for the property formerly held by St. Mary's Church, Kansas City, being lots 80, 81 and 82 of Ross & Scarritt's addition to Kansas City, Mo.

E. B. WOODRUFF,
Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. E. A. Neville it was Resolved, That the Chair be asked to appoint a committee of three of which the Bishop shall be one member, to select a design for an official seal for the Diocese of Kansas City, and that if necessary, said committee employ an expert on seals, his services to be paid by the Diocese. The Committee to report at the next Council.

The Chair appointed as such Committee, in addition to the Bishop, the Rev. E. A. Neville and Mr. H. D. Ashley.

The Rev. H. L. A. Fick moved the following, which was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons:

Resolved, That Canon II, Section 2, be and is hereby amended by the addition of the following sentences after the words "of such mission." "The certificates shall be in duplicate, and one copy forwarded to the Secretary of the Council not less than five days before the meeting of the Council; the other copy being given to the Lay Delegates elected. No Lay Delegate's name shall be placed on the Secretary's roll prior to the meeting of the Council unless the Parish or Mission which he represents has paid its Diocesan assessments before the first day of May."

Mr. Fick also moved the following, which was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons:

Whereas, The organization of the Council is unduly retarded by the requirements of committee action upon the credentials of Lay Delegates; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council be and is hereby instructed to furnish every parish and mission through its rector or minister in charge (if there be one), otherwise through one of its wardens, a duplicate form of credential, the same to be filled in and returned to him by mail not later than five days before the meeting of the Diocesan Council; and that from the same he make up his roll of Lay Delegates prior to said meeting, which roll (including the names both of principals and alternates) he shall call by towns and parishes in alphabetical order immediately after the roll of clergy; and shall thereupon report to the chair whether or not a canonical quorum of both orders is present. The original certificates of election of Lay Delegates shall be given the Secretary when the Council convenes. No reference to the Committee on Credentials shall be necessary except in the case of contested seats.

The Rev. T. B. Foster read the following report, which was received and ordered to be published in the Journal:

St. Joseph, Mo., May 15, 1906.

The Committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's address which refers to the work of St. Luke's Hospital, would respectfully report as follows:

The new St. Luke's Hospital, formerly situated in Westport, is now permanently located at No. 2011 East Eleventh street, being the southeast corner of Euclid avenue and Eleventh street, Kansas City. The beautiful grounds comprise an area of 196 feet on Euclid avenue by 132 feet, 9 inches, on Eleventh street. The old shade trees and fine lawn add much to the comfort of the patients. Although but a short distance from the business center, it is free from the noise and dirt of the city, owing to its high and slightly location, yet it is only one or two blocks from several car lines.

The present building is a solid brick, slate roof. The old part of the building has been remodeled and joined to the new wing, giving a capacity of twenty-five beds, besides the parlor, Superintendent's room, kitchen, diet kitchen, operating room, etc., etc.

The entire Hospital has been newly furnished with the most approved hospital beds and all conveniences. It also has a model operating room.

We submit herewith an annual report from the 1st of May, 1905, to April 30th, 1906, showing the receipts and disbursements, and would call attention to the fact that this represents but eight months' work, as the Hospital was practically closed for four months during the alteration of the old and the erection of the new building:

The Church Charity Association which controls St. Luke's Hospital has an option to buy this Hospital for $16,000. This option expires the 1st day of October, 1906.

It is estimated that the present value of the real estate is ..	$25,000
Fixtures and furniture	5,000
Total value	$30,000

The Hospital has a floating indebtedness of $2,634.90.

The Association has received during the past year a legacy from Sanford A. Sponable, deceased, of $5,000, which has been invested under the direction of the Probate Court of Jackson County, Mo., the income of which is to maintain free beds. The Association has also received the residuary of Mr. Sponable's estate, amounting to $3,500, which has been placed in the hands of Robert B. Middlebrook, trustee, by the Probate Court of Jackson County, Mo., the income derived therefrom to be devoted to general expenses.

The building and furniture are insured for $20,000.

The Association has also received from Mr. and Mrs. Madison E. St. Clair, $1,000, which is deposited in the Bank of Commerce of Kansas City, drawing interest. This $1,000 is given for the purchase of the present property now held under option, to be used only when $15,000 has been added to it.

Your Committee would most earnestly recommend this, our only diocesan institution, to the churchmen and church women of the diocese, hoping they will make possible the securing of this valuable piece of property for the permanent home of St. Luke's Hospital.

We would also recommend that Hospital Guilds be formed in each parish and mission throughout the diocese, for the purpose of aiding in the maintenance of this worthy institution.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. STEWART-SMITH,
S. W. KNIFFIN,
PHIL R. TOLL,
M. G. HARMAN,

Committee.

Mr. M. G. Harman presented the following:

Whereas, The following was submitted to and approved by the Tenth Annual Council, to be known as Section 2 of Article XV of the Constitution of the Church in the Diocese of West Missouri, viz.: The Council shall have power to forever release a Parish or Mission from assessments for the necessary expenses of the Diocese upon the payment of a sum of money, the amount of which is to be fixed by the Council, into the Permanent Episcopal Fund. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the said amendment be and is hereby approved and ratified by this Council.

The motion was lost.

Mr. John F. Eaton moved that a new Committee be appointed to suggest a remodeling of the assessment plan. The motion was carried, and the Chair appointed as such Committee Messrs. John F. Eaton and Philip Toll and the Rev. E. H. Eckel.

On motion of Mr. James C. Horton the rules were suspended and the Secretary empowered to cast the ballot of the Council for Mr. Walton H. Holmes, as Treasurer of the Diocese. The ballot being so cast, Mr. Holmes was elected.

On motion of Mr. R. W. Cary it was

Resolved, That the Secretary's salary be placed at $150.00 for the current year.

The Rev. C. A. Weed read the following:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CELEBRATION OF THE BISHOP'S FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Your Committee, to which was assigned the duty of arranging for the fitting celebration of the Fifteenth Anniversary of our Bishop's consecration (Journal of 1905, page 65), begs leave to submit the following report:

At a meeting of the Committee, held at the close of the Council, it was resolved to celebrate this anniversary by appropriate services, to be held in Grace Church, Kansas City. This part of the Committee work was given into the hands of the Rev. T. B. Foster, under whose management a reception was given our beloved Diocesan at the Coates House on the evening of October 11th. On the following morning an anniversary service was held in Grace Church, the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., preached. At the close of the service lunch was served at the University Club, at which informal addresses were made by several of those present. The announcement of the gift of a Pastoral Staff was made in a very happy manner by the Rev. Robert Talbot, senior priest of the diocese. At the Committee meeting, held at the close of the Council session, it was also resolved to take active steps toward the securing of an Episcopal residence for the Diocese. As a result of this determination, a partial canvass was made in the Diocese, resulting as follows:

Cash received.	$1,068.17
Notes, unpaid.	948.40

Total secured.	$2,016.57
------------------------	------------

In connection with this result the thanks of this Committee are due the Rev. E. B. Woodruff for a thorough canvass of the towns in the Missouri river valley.

An engrossed address, accompanied by a list of the names of the donors to this fund, was presented to the Bishop during the reception at the Coates House, the presentation speech being made by the Rev. Robert Talbot, President of the Standing Committee, in his usual happy manner.

We ask, in conclusion, that the Committee be discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

C. A. WEED, Chairman,
EDWARD HENRY ECKEL,

Secretary.

Wednesday, May 16, 1906, 9:30 a. m.

After morning prayer and litany said by the Rev. E. H. Eckel and the Rev. A. W. Farnum, the Council met pursuant to adjournment.

On motion of the Rev. E. B. Woodruff, the calling of the roll was dispensed with. Minutes of yesterday read and approved.

The Rev. E. H. Eckel moved to incorporate all nominations in the proceedings. Mr. E. C. Hamill moved as amendment that the Secretary be instructed to follow precedent in regard to the matter, and the motion as so amended was adopted.

The Rev. T. B. Foster presented the following communication:

Kansas City, Mo., May 15, 1906.

The Right Reverend The Bishop and the Council of the Diocese of Kansas City:

GENTLEMEN:—At the meeting of the Council in May, 1905, a resolution was adopted directing the Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund to transfer that fund to the Trustees in charge of the General Fund for the Disabled Clergy of New York. In attempting to comply with this resolution the Trustees found a difficulty concerning which they desire the instruction of this Council, and that is this:

Twelve hundred ($1200.00) dollars of the fund was given by Rev. Lucius Waterman to the Trustees of this fund for this Diocese, with the understanding that one-half of the proceeds from this fund should be paid the donor annually throughout his life-time. This being a special trust fund to this Diocese, the question has been raised as to the authority to transfer this fund to others than those to whom it was specifically given.

A large portion of the remainder in the hands of the Trustees was given originally to the Diocese of Missouri by a resident of Missouri, in consideration of his respect for it. Upon the division of the Diocese of Missouri this fund was divided between the two Dioceses thus formed, a larger portion, however, coming to this Diocese by reason of the fact that the donor was a resident of Kansas City, Missouri, and it certainly would be contrary to his intentions to transfer this fund, which was a special donation to the old Diocese of Missouri, to the General Fund for the whole of the United States without the consent of the donor.

It is believed that at the time the resolution in question was adopted these trust funds were not taken into consideration, and your Trustees would respectfully ask the advice of the Council as to their disposition, and the right of this Diocese to transfer these funds.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. NEARING,

Secretary.

And on motion of the Rev. J. Stewart-Smith it was Resolved, That the donors of Funds for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and Orphans of the Clergy be communicated with as to their wishes in regard to the transfer of their gifts to the General Clergy Relief Fund.

On motion, the Council proceeded to ballot for one clerical and one lay member of the Standing Committee.

A ballot being cast, Mr. A. C. Stowell was elected lay member by both Orders. No clerical member elected.

The Rev. J. D. Ritchey read the following:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We, your Committee on Sunday Schools, recommend:

First: That this Council urge upon the Sunday Schools of the Diocese the use of the Joint Diocesan Series of Sunday School Lessons and Helps.

Second: That the Council urge upon the Clergy of the Diocese the support and encouragement of the Sunday School Institute.

Third: That a Standing Committee of five on Sunday Schools be appointed at the Council to consider the conditions of the Sunday School work in the Diocese and devise means of increasing its efficiency, and to report to the next meeting of the Council.

D. G. MACKINNON,

The Chair appointed as such committee the Rev. Messrs. J. D. Ritchey, E. H. Eckel and Mr. C. A. Kelly.

The Rev. E. B. Woodruff read the following:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

The Committee on Missions anticipate a year of fruitful increase in the Missionary field, through the work of an Archdeacon, with no parochial connections, but entirely at the disposal of the Bishop for the needs of the hard places in the Diocese. We urge the Rectors of Parishes to welcome the Archdeacon, to give him opportunities to speak and to commend his work to the generous support of the people of the Church.

The scheme of Missionary apportionment sets a high ideal of Missionary endeavor before every Parish and Mission. If we believe in our ideal we shall make it a reality. We urge the Clergy to keep the subject on the amount hoped for before their congregations, vestries and Sunday Schools; to solicit personal pledges, and to systematize Missionary collections.

E. B. WOODRUFF,

JOHN R. ATWILL,

Committee on Missions.

Another ballot being taken for a clerical member of the Standing Committee, there was no election.

On motion of the Rev. J. D. Ritchey, it was resolved to hold the next Annual Council at St. Paul's Church, Kansas City.

Mr. Geo. T. Irvine read the following, which, on motion, was accepted and adopted:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church is in no position to do more than record the general impression that the spirit of earnestness and aggressiveness on the part of both Clergy and Laity in the Diocese is greater than common, and gives promise of excellent results in the near future.

Money and men—these are the two requisites of helpful and hopeful work. Only when these are forthcoming to the degree that they are needed can we expect the forward movement which we all so earnestly desire.

EDWARD HENRY ECKEL,

EDMUND A. NEVILLE,

GEO. T. IRVINE,

Committee.

The Rev. H. L. 'A. Fick moved the following:

recklessly and upon insufficient evidence one article and another of the Christian Faith, proclaiming the decadence of their Faith with ghoulish glee, we have no sympathy.

Even the results of reverent criticism cause pain and anxiety to those who are led to abandon some cherished views, that the forefathers thought to be of God, and to take new points of view. Much more does the work of the destructive critic harass souls that without due consideration accept his conclusions. But the reasons for distrusting him become more convincing. Many of his assumptions have drifted from our vision like passing clouds and the sun still shines on. Some of the more honest of his kind have already confessed that they jumped at unwarranted conclusions. Upon insufficient or distorted evidence they cried that all was lost when all was not lost.

Devout thinkers are dismissing their alarm. Bishop Doane tells of a conversation with one of the most learned and noted Scotch theologians, who, speaking with him of higher criticisms, said: "You know the wave struck Scotland before it came to England. But with us it is subsiding and we are settling down upon the old acceptance of the Scriptures." I am surprised, he said, "to find America so much impressed by German writers. It is because you are so far away from Germany, that you have not the right perspective. If you were as near them as we are, you would measure them more justly. Your own Church of England scholars, Lightfoot, Wescott, Sanday and Driver are vastly superior."

And it is profoundly true that there is a depositum of Faith that we so confidently believe that we have no fear, but sit calmly by while the winds of thought shift and whistle about, and tidal waves of error dash themselves against it as against a rock.

The Bishop of Birmingham, in a sermon preached at St. Mary's, Oxford, tells of this Faith in sentences so strong and clear that I adopt them as far better than any I could frame.

"I have tried to face the question: In an age of change and criticism and new knowledge, what are we to regard as permanent Christianity? What are we to regard as the permanent faith for which we are to contend to death—any advance out of which, to use St. John's phrase, is only advance along a road which separates from God and Christ? I reply, first of all, the faith summarized in the Catholic Creeds—that faith in God and man and man's destiny; in the incarnation and the person of Christ
